A Reflection….from Fr. Derek Ho, Associate Pastor

November 4, 2018

Sharing our Catholic faith is not easy. There are so many reasons not to…

1. Being afraid of offending others.
2. Not knowing enough about the arguments others bring up.
3. Feeling defensive if/when others test us, and so on and so on.

Meanwhile, studies show that the “nones” are on the rise. Who are the “nones”? When asked what is their religious affiliation (Jewish, Christian, Buddhist, Muslim, etc.), they respond, “none.” Fully 25% of our country now consider themselves some form of atheist or agnostic. That’s 80 million people! What’s worse? Among those 30 and younger, it’s 40%. How should we respond?

Come join us…

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr Derek

We kindly ask that you keep our men and women of the armed forces in your prayers, always.

Veterans will be recognized at all masses on Nov 10/11th.

Anointing of the Sick After Mass

We will offer the Sacrament of Anointing after two Masses on the weekend of November 10th and 11th.

Anointing will take place after the 5pm Saturday and 11:30am Sunday Masses that weekend.

If you wish to receive Anointing at either of these Masses, please just move forward to the front of the Parish Center immediately after Mass. The priests will invite you to come up to receive the Sacrament.
Seeking Slideshow Operators for Weekend Masses

We have some exciting news—we are now ready and are using the screen and projector during all masses! We’ve been waiting a while for this, and now that it is here, we need your help.

We need one person who can commit to each mass to help “run” the slideshow. Being the Slideshow Operator involves showing up 15 minutes early to mass, and clicking the button on the laptop to advance the slides during the mass. While it would be very helpful to know the flow of the mass, we will help direct you as to when to advance each slide (a.k.a. “click the button”).

Please go to website www.stjamesah.org home page & click on button to sign up to help run the slides!

Thanks for helping to make this a successful change at St. James!

- Frederic Remington, Bronco Buster
- M.C. Escher, Drawing Hands
- Paul Klee, Senecio
- among others.
WHAT ON EARTH ARE YOU DOING, FOR HEAVEN’S SAKE?

Those clichés still applies today. How we live on earth and help each other matters. At St. James we are blessed with opportunities to bring our faith to life. A couple of them are by helping seniors get where they need to go. Be it driving them to medical/dental appointments during the week, or to St. James for Sunday Mass, we know we can make a significant difference in their lives. To do so, we need your help, and your wheels! Be it once a month or once a week, your time will matter to those who need your help.

Some of our Wheels 2Worship drivers tell us they enjoy getting to know others and like not going to Mass alone. It gives them that “feel good” feeling. Our Escorted Transportation Service Northwest (ETSNW) drivers agree! Some love hearing the stories our beloved elderly share along the way. Joe Ruane says. "I believe that I am called to be an ETSNW driver for a number of reasons - the most prominent of which is that I can serve a senior who has a critical need that otherwise would be unfulfilled or fulfilled at substantial cost and that I will not nor expect to be repaid for it."

Passengers are so grateful! They tell us what we do is such a blessing to them. They praise drivers for their courtesy, and friendliness... "Just as if they knew me for ages!" If you want to feel appreciated, this will fill the bill!

On November 3rd & 4th volunteers with ETSNW and W2W will speak before each Mass to invite you to consider joining these outreach opportunities. Since it began in 2006, ETSNW has provided over 28,000 round trip rides to medical and dental appointments for seniors. W2W is off to an impressive start getting those in need to Church on time! Since 2015 over 600 rides have been given. Both receive funding from Jubilation and are partnering this weekend to maximize efforts recruiting parishioners to join our teams.

Volunteers will be available in the greeting space after Masses to answer your questions and offer a sign up to serve. Stop by to learn more or join these remarkable volunteers in these interesting ways to connect with your neighbors and parishioners. There is no greater gift than your time. Your time will be well spent with ETSNW and/or Wheels2Worship.

U.S. BISHOPS CHAIRMAN EXPRESS DEEP CONCERN ABOUT REFUGEES LEFT IN HARM’S WAY DUE TO LOWEST EVER REFUGEE ADMISSIONS CEILING FOR 2019

October 8, 2018

WASHINGTON—President Donald Trump has issued the Presidential Determination (PD) for refugee admissions for fiscal year 2019, setting the level at 30,000 refugees. The PD will be the lowest refugee ceiling in the 38-year history of the resettlement program, with the average annual limit being 95,000 refugees. Bishop Joe S. Vasquez of Austin, Chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Migration has offered the following statement regarding the PD.

Full statement follows:

"As Christians, we believe it is our duty to welcome and help those who are persecuted, including the vulnerable such as children and religious minorities. Resettlement in our country is a way through which we live out our Gospel call to welcome the persecuted into our communities—individuals and families with no viable options to stay where they are or return home. I am saddened by today's major reduction in resettlement to 30,000 refugees. I worry and pray for those refugees left in harm's way by this decision. We urge the Administration to diligently work to reach this year's Presidential Determination as we know that many in the world fleeing war, persecution and religious discrimination continue to desperately need our support. We pledge to work with the Administration to ensure that we reach that goal. We will continue to call for a higher refugee admissions level for next year. We can and must do more to assist those in need."

When I Call for Help: A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women – 4

“Religion can be either a resource or a roadblock for battered women. As a resource, it encourages women to resist mistreatment. As a roadblock, its misinterpretation can contribute to the victim’s self-blame and suffering and to the abuser’s rationalizations.”

“Abused women often say, ‘I can’t leave this relationship. The Bible says it would be wrong.’ Abusive men often say, ‘The Bible says my wife should be submissive to me.’ They take the biblical text and distort it to support their right to batter.”

“As bishops, we condemn the use of the Bible to support abusive behavior in any form. A correct reading of Scripture leads people to an understanding of the equal dignity of men and women and to relationships based on mutuality and love. Beginning with Genesis, Scripture teaches that women and men are created in God’s image. Jesus himself always respected the human dignity of women. Pope John Paul II reminds us that ‘Christ’s way of acting, the Gospel of his words and deeds, is a consistent protest against whatever offends the dignity of women.’” [Pope John Paul II, On the Dignity and Vocation of Women (Mulieris Dignitatem), no. 15]

“Men who abuse often use Ephesians 5:22, taken out of context, to justify their behavior, but the passage (v.21-33) refers to the mutual submission of husband and wife out of love for Christ. Husbands should love their wives as they love their own body, as Christ loves the Church.”

“Men who batter also cite Scripture to insist that their victims forgive them (see, for example, Mt 6:9-15). A victim then feels guilty if she cannot do so. Forgiveness, however, does not mean forgetting the abuse or pretending that it did not happen. Neither is possible. Forgiveness is not permission to repeat the abuse. Rather, forgiveness means that the victim decides to let go of the experience and move on with greater insight and conviction not to tolerate abuse of any kind again.”

“An abused woman may see her suffering as just punishment for a past deed for which she feels guilty. She may try to explain suffering by saying that it is ‘God’s will’ or ‘part of God’s plan for my life’ or ‘God’s way of teaching me a lesson.’ This image of a harsh, cruel God runs contrary to the biblical image of a kind, merciful, and loving God. Jesus went out of his way to help suffering women...”

“Finally, we emphasize that no person is expected to stay in an abusive marriage. Some abused women believe that church teaching on the permanence of marriage requires them to stay in an abusive relationship. They may hesitate to seek a separation or divorce. They may fear that they cannot re-marry in the Church. Violence and abuse, not divorce, break up a marriage. We encourage abused persons who have divorced to investigate the possibility of seeking an annulment. An annulment, which determines that the marriage bond is not valid, can frequently open the door to healing.”

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Song - In Remembrance of You

VERSES

1. Jesus, hope for all, teach us to believe.
2. Jesus, Son of God, you are living in Word.

1. Water, wine, and wheat.
2. Share what we have heard.
3. Heal us from within.

REFRAIN

Gathered at table, gathered in love, food for the journey sent from above. Strengthen and feed us in all that we do,

Gathered at table in remembrance of you.

To Verses  Final

you. Gathered at table

___ in remembrance of you.
Let Justice Roll Like a River

Refrain

Let justice roll like a river, and wash all oppression away; Come, O God, and take us, move and shake us, Come now, and make us anew,
that we might live justly like you.

Verses

1. Take from me your holy feasts, all your off’rings and your music;
Let justice flow like waters, and integrity like an ever-flowing stream.

2. How long shall we wait, O God, for the day of your mercy to dawn, the day we beat our swords into ploughs, when your peace reigns over the earth?

3. Hear this, all of you who use the poor in your thirst of power and riches:
the Lord will turn your laughter to tears, on the wondrous Day of our God.

4. Even now return to me, let your hearts be broken and humble, for I am gracious, gen’rous and kind; come and seek the mercies of God.

5. You have been told the way of life, the way of justice and peace;
to act justly, to love gently, and walk humbly with God.

Exodus Trekkers

Could a Struggling Next-Door Neighbor Be a Saint In the Making?

"In those parents who raise their children with immense love, in those men and women who work hard to support their families, in the sick, in elderly religious who never lose their smile, their daily perseverance I see holiness," writes Pope Francis in his third apostolic exhortation, Rejoice and Be Glad. "Very often it is a holiness, found in our next-door neighbors, those who, loving in our midst, reflect God's presence. We call them the middle class of holiness."

"Ron is not my next-door neighbor, and I don't know how holy he is," writes the Exodus Trekker author. "But I am grateful for the coffee-time conversations Ron and I have had at a supermarket nook for the last two years. They made me practice some life skills Mom and Dad taught me, such as look for the good in people, soften your heart, don't lie and don't quit ...Ron's personality defined someone who vibrates a fierce independence that tolerates no opposition. Yet, the more Ron was Ron, the more I felt obligated as a journalist to know some facts about his interior life..."

You can read more about Ron in the November Exodus Trekker blog at EXODUSTREKKERS.BLOGSPOT.COM. (There you'll find several inspiring and dramatic true accounts written by a St. James member about our church members and others who have struggled across a desert of ups and downs to reach their "Jordan River" and the freedom beyond it. This blog is now being read in eleven countries.)

And, at the end of this blog post, you'll want to read about six "weak" men and a woman whom by God's grace and by all accounts, exceeded human limits of mind, body and soul and became victoriously strong.

Thank You St James!
The St James Blood Drive Committee wishes to thank all the 32 blood donors who gave their time and blood at our recent Blood Drive. We also want to thank those who came and were willing to donate but were unable due to various issues. In addition, there are many donors who give at the LifeSource donation center in the name of St James. It is amazing to think that each of our donations helps as many as three cancer, burn and trauma patients. We really appreciate the support of the people of St James in this important endeavor.
