Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” “Here I am,” I said; “send me!”

Isaiah 6:8
February 10, 2019

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As we can all see, the construction of our church building is moving along. There is still much work to do in the interior of the church, but in just a few short months we will be moving in.

The parish staff has been working hard to make plans to prepare us to move into the new space—everything from choosing furniture to scheduling liturgical trainings.

We’ve also been planning how we will work to ensure that our Sunday Experience reflects the joy that we feel as disciples of Christ. Therefore, I’ve asked Sharon Moeykens to lead our hospitality efforts as our new Hospitality and Engagement Manager. She will initially be focused on training ministry and lay leaders to ensure that the Sunday Experience reflects our parish mission and vision.

More important than hospitality, though, is the reality that the St. James community will finally be able to celebrate the Mass in a sacred space reserved exclusively for worship and prayer.

I agree that the Mass is the Mass wherever you celebrate it…I’ve celebrated Mass in the hills of Mexico and in a war zone in Afghanistan. But when celebrating the Mass within the walls of a church, we are able to experience the beauty of our faith with all of the elements that allow for the signs and symbols of the Catholic liturgy.

Since we have not had a church for more than 10 months, we will be offering information in the bulletin and on our website over the next few months to prepare us to start celebrating Mass in a sacred space.

Some of the information we offer may be well known to you and some of it may offer a new insight or appreciation for the beauty of the Catholic liturgy. Above all, though, this information is intended to help you grow in your relationship with Jesus Christ.

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt Foley
Pastor

Learning Generosity and Kindness

St. James School 3rd Grade Brownie Girl Scout Troop 45224

In preparation for earning their Philanthropist badge, the girls shared information with each other about their family's favorite charity. Each girl explained the good work done by these amazing organizations. They then earned money through chores at home between Brownie meetings that they then used as donations to these special charities in December. Each girl chose which charities they wanted to support.

The troop mailed checks to:
Alzheimer’s Association Best Buddies
The ChadTough Foundation
Epilepsy Foundation
Feed My Starving Children
Little Sisters of the Poor
Lurie Children’s Hospital
Meals on Wheels
Misericordia
Safe Families

Psalm Response

I will sing of your salvation.

Alleluia

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(All bow when reciting words in bold)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, helivered up to death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

TODAY’S READINGS
First Reading — Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the Lord and responds, “Send me!” (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)
Psalm — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).
Second Reading — Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).

GOD’S SUMMONS

Confronted with God’s power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. “Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips,” he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus’ instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.”

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” Isaiah answered, “Here I am, send me.”

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won’t lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God’s messenger?

The Summons

1. Will you come and follow me If I but call your name? Will you go where you don’t know And never be the same?

2. Will you leave yourself behind If I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind And never be the same?

3. Will you let the blinded see If I but call your name? Will you set the prisoners free And never be the same?

4. Will you love the ‘you’ you hide If I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside And never be the same?

5. Lord, your summons echoes true When you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you And never be the same.

Will you let my love be shown, Will you

Will you risk the hostile stare Should your

Will you kiss the leper clean, And do

Will you use the faith you’ve found To re-

In your company I’ll go Where your let my name be known, Will you let my life attract or scare? Will you let me such as this unseen, And admit to shape the world around, Through my sight and love and footsteps show. Thus I’ll move and life be grown In you and you in me?

answer prayer In you and you in me?

what I mean In you and you in me?

touch and sound In you and you in me?

live and grow In you and you in me.

“Come, Follow Me...and share the Word”

During the last few weeks, many parish families received a letter from Cardinal Cupich requesting your participation by making a pledge to the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal. The Appeal supports both Parish and Archdiocesan ministries and services.

The ACA theme for 2019 is “Come, Follow Me...and share the Word”

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to answer Jesus’ call to “Come, Follow Me.” Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

We have all received God’s love. By financially supporting the ministries and services funded by the Annual Catholic Appeal, we help to extend God’s love to many, many others. See page 5 of this bulletin to see the distribution of funds from 2017.

Reporting Child Abuse

Victims-survivors of clergy sex abuse have the right to report their stories. We are here to help, listen, and connect them with the right resources. Report all allegations concerning the abuse and/or neglect of minors to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) Hotline (1-800-25-ABUSE) and/or the local police department before reaching out to the Archdiocese of Chicago Office for the Protection of Children and Youth (OPC). To report historical abuse in the Archdiocese of Chicago, please contact OPC at 312.534.5254. We also encourage victims-survivors to connect directly with leaders from the Office of Assistance Ministry, a division of the OPC that provides care, support and resources to victims/survivors of clerical sexual abuse, and their loved ones, in their efforts to achieve psychological, emotional and spiritual healing.

Healing and Reconciliation

The Archdiocese created https://heal.archchicago.org to share the actions we have taken, as well as our on-going work to address clergy sexual abuse, ensure leadership accountability and protect and support victims-survivors and their loved ones. The website includes resources for victims-survivors, instructions for reporting a sexual abuse allegation, frequently asked questions about our policies, procedures and practices, as well as public statements made by Cardinal Cupich and other Church leaders.
In August 2018 the Illinois legislature passed the Illinois Tax Credit Scholarship Program bill, Invest in Kids. This scholarship program awards income-based scholarships to students in grades K-12 who come from low-income families or have special needs. This bill gives more students an opportunity to receive a quality education. Since the bill’s inception, St. James School has received $34,500 in funding from the program.

Matching Gift Challenge until February 28, 2019!

A group of generous donors has agreed to pool their resources and offer a 2-for-1 matching gift program to schools run by the Archdiocese of Chicago. For every dollar designated to a qualifying school through Empower Illinois* from now until February 28, 2019, the school will receive two dollars in matching funds. The donations are capped at $100,000 per school.

After April 1, 2019, any matching gift program funds that are not awarded at a designated school will be reallocated to low-income students at schools with unmet demand. For more information please visit www.archchicago.org/tcs or call 312.534.2617 to speak with the Tax Credit Scholarship Office at the archdiocese.

Empower Illinois is a statewide Scholarship Granting Organization created in 2017 to serve Illinois children through the state’s tax credit scholarship program.
