A Message from our Principal, Judy Pappas

June 2, 2019

As you can see on the bulletin cover, it is time to wish congratulations to the SJS Class of 2019! This is a very exciting time and a time that can cause anxiousness or apprehension, too.

Transitions are not always easy. Adjustments to new people, new rules, new schedules, different expectations can be a scary thing! I walk in transition right along with our graduates this year as I retire from my 43 year tenure as an educator. I’m nervous about what’s ahead. It’s an uncharted territory!

But here’s the thing. We have one advantage that so many people do not. We have our faith in Jesus. St. James and our parents have provided us with what we need to take on transition with confidence and purpose. We know what we need to do. And we know we’re not alone in this new adventure. Jesus walks with us. He knows where we need to go and what we need to accomplish; goals that we have or will set. He will lead us and guide us to where He knows we should be. And, as newly confirmed Catholics, our graduates have new graces to make their way. The Holy Spirit is with all of us. And if we open our hearts and minds to the Spirit, we will find whatever we need to be strong and confident in our journey of life.

So off we go, off into unknown territory. We’ve learned so much at SJS but have so much further to go. Let us learn. We’ve been given so many gifts to use in service. Let us serve. And, we owe all we are and all we have to God. So let us give God praise and be grateful!

Remember that St. James School will always be our home away from home.

God bless you always,

Mrs. Judy Pappas
Principal

For the life of the world, we will stand together, we will cry for justice, and every heart will sing that Jesus Christ is Lord!

(refrain from the hymn "For the Life of the World", text and tune by David Hass.)

Life has a sensitive nervous system through which everything is connected. (Fr. Alfred Delp, executed in the Nazi death camp of Auschwitz)

The concept of the Body of Christ hasn’t nearly achieved its potential, which is amazing and has more potential than any other organization in the world. (Dr. Mike Atella, Christian psychologist)

If you ever had any questions about the universal, living Body of Christ--what it is and who's in it--hopefully, they will be at least partially answered in this report. You'll read comments from several St. James members (including those of our own physician-author) and from two other noted Christian authors, also interviewed for EXODUS TREKKERS.

A MOTHER’S CONSECRATION OF HER CHILD
Oh St. Philomena, I place my children in thy keeping. Illustrious Virgin, who so thoroughly understood the excellence of purity, keep their souls pure and holy in the sight of God. Wise young maiden, who so fully comprehended the infinite value of eternal treasures and the shallowness of temporal riches and power, instruct my children in the value of things spiritual. Assist them in building up rich treasures in the storehouse of Heaven, where their wealth can neither be destroyed nor taken from them.
