Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we continue to explore how to best live out our mission to be disciples and make disciples, we have been focusing on the Sunday Mass worship experience at St. James. A significant part of the worship experience is music—whether it be songs of praise or of reflection. Music is intertwined in all aspects of the Mass and offers a way for us to raise our voices in prayer to praise God.

As we endeavor to live our faith boldly and renew our parish, I have set a new direction for our Music Ministry that is based on movements within the Catholic church to incorporate more 21st Century worship music that is attracting new believers and inspiring lifelong believers.

At our 10 a.m., 11:30 a.m. and Saturday/Sunday 5 p.m. Masses, we are shifting to 21st Century worship music selections. We will still sing some traditional Catholic hymns but will start to incorporate new songs that will speak to our community in new ways.

At the 7 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. Masses, we will begin to sing more traditional hymnody and will incorporate more chant.

At our 5 p.m. Masses on Saturday and Sunday—our second and third most-attended Masses—we have begun to offer a more robust musical experience. We will be creating small group ensembles to lead worship on a more regular basis at these two masses.

You may have noticed some of these changes already. With all change, the unfamiliar can be uncomfortable…but it can also be said that growth is uncomfortable. As your pastor, it is my job to set direction intended to help each of you to grow in your relationship with Jesus.

I am confident that these changes will be a significant part of renewing our parish by inspiring all who worship with us. I thank each and every person involved in our Music Ministry. We are extremely blessed here at St. James with wonderfully dedicated and talented musicians who are capable of praising God in a way that has garnered attention to our parish as having very high-quality music.

I invite you to an exciting upcoming event to learn more about the role of music in how we worship…

Why We Worship
Wed., May 29 – 6:30 to 8 p.m. – St. James Church
Presented by Tam Conseur, Director of Music and Liturgy, and Jonathan Blevins, Director of Evangelization and Formation

My prayer is that through each Mass celebrated at St. James, the mystery and power of the music guides hearts and minds to hear the call of Jesus more clearly.

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt Foley
Pastor

Update on Our Seminarians at St. James

Ben Rahimi will be leaving St. James on May 26th. This summer he will be all over the place in different assignments ranging from spiritual intensives to manual labor. He has loved spending this last year with the people of St. James. It has been a real joy for him to get to know the families that make up this wonderful parish and a great learning experience to see how a parish moves through a variety of sometimes painful, but ultimately positive transitions. He will continue to keep the parish of St. James in his prayers. After the summer is finished, Ben will return to Mundelein seminary to complete his 4th year of theological studies and will, God willing, be ordained a priest in 2020. If you want to keep in touch with Ben, you are welcome to email him at rahimi.benjamin@gmail.com.

This summer, Dan Korenchan will be teaching in the youth catechetical program “Totus Tuus” at various parishes in the Archdiocese. He just completed his Master’s Degree in Philosophy at Mundelein Seminary and will enter the 4-year Theology Program at the seminary in the fall. Dan has loved getting involved at St. James this year and meeting so many of the parishioners. He will be with us at St. James until he is ordained a priest in 4 years.
Fr Matt is looking for VETERANS to walk with him in the Memorial Day Parade!

Join him on Monday, May 27th at 9:00am. The group will be East of Village Hall on Davis Street. Look for the St James School Float east of the Village Hall on Davis Street.
