I am the Bread of Life
May 5, 2019

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend, 157 second graders are celebrating the sacrament of their First Holy Communion at St. James. My prayer for each of these students is that they grow closer to Jesus each time they receive Him in the Eucharist.

Guided by our Religious Education catechists and St. James School teachers, these students have spent much time in preparation not only for the sacrament of First Holy Communion, but also for their First Reconciliation that took place in January. We are blessed to have many dedicated adults to share the faith with our youth at St. James.

Providing leadership for all of this preparation is no small feat. I want to give a special thank you to our co-directors for Religious Education Carrie Conley and Rebecca Linscott. Carrie and Rebecca have worked tirelessly to transform the Religious Education program at St. James. Their love of Jesus has allowed hundreds of families to grow in their faith. I am forever grateful for their commitment to their faith and to St. James.

Let us always remember the sacrifice that Jesus made for us and recognize the great blessing that we have been given as Catholic Christians to be in communion with Jesus through the Eucharist.

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt Foley
Pastor
Third Sunday of Easter

The superabundance of God’s kindness ties all of today’s readings together. Especially when life overwhelms us, the Lord provides all we need, and then some. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter takes the lead when facing the Sanhedrin. We might expect the man who denied Jesus to crumble under the imposing glare of the high priest. Instead, the Holy Spirit helps him testify to his faith in Jesus Christ. What Peter had lacked before, courage and conviction, God provides in abundance. Similarly, today’s Gospel shows Jesus providing a surplus of fish for the disciples. They have no luck fishing until the Lord intercedes. Jesus supplies an almost ridiculous number of fish, and he cooks it for them, too. As our reading from Revelation affirms, the overflowing riches of God require constant praise. Countless creatures—“everything in the universe”—cry out to honor the Lord, forever and ever.

GONE FISHING

Today’s Gospel reveals Peter’s reaction to the difficulties of being a disciple of the risen Jesus. “I am going fishing,” says Peter. Jesus has been tortured, executed, and buried—and then gloriously raised from the dead. He has appeared to the disciples a number of times, but he no longer lives among them as their teacher. The disciples do not exactly understand how to proceed in this unfamiliar and dangerous situation. So Peter goes fishing. He’s hungry, after all, and at least he knows how to fish. Jesus seems to reward Peter’s instinct, and blesses their net with one hundred fifty-three large fish.

Seven troubled men went out in a boat in the middle of the night, when life seemed dark and empty. They caught no fish. What did they do there, in the dark, at sea, amid failure? Very possibly, they thought of their beloved teacher. Silently in their hearts, or together in stories, they recollected moments in their relationship with Jesus. That kind of recollection is prayer. Each one of us can spend time in prayer like this when facing our own challenges.

“COME, HAVE BREAKFAST”

The Gospel goes on to show us how Jesus prepares breakfast for the disciples. Jesus, in his resurrected body, surely has no need for food. As usual, he thinks only of the needs of others. The Gospel describes the charcoal fire that Jesus has prepared, and we can sense the slow, intimate pace of the early-morning encounter: we hear the hissing of cooking fish; we feel dripping clothes dry in the fire’s warmth; we smell bread roasting; and we see Jesus, king of the universe, serving a warm breakfast to his disciples. In so doing, Jesus demonstrates God’s care for us. Sometimes God provides extraordinary miracles for us, like bursting nets. At other times, the Lord offers himself in ordinary circumstances, like breakfast. We follow Jesus’ example by doing what we can to care for others, in extraordinary and ordinary ways.

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

Altar Servers - assist the priest (and God) at the altar. Altar servers assist at weekly Masses and weddings. St. James is looking for students, 5th through 12th grade who would like to join the Altar Servers.

Eucharistic Ministers - join a Mass team, which distributes the Eucharist every other week. Prospective ministers participate in a Vicariate training session plus attend a specific training for St. James.

Funeral Adult Servers - Our faith community wishes to give both honor to the deceased and comfort to the surviving family members as well as participate in the funeral liturgy. There are three adults who make the necessary set-up preparations for the liturgy and serve at each funeral liturgy.

Greeting Ministry - As people enter our church and parish center during weekend liturgies and special holidays, the Greeting Ministers happily welcome them. The greeters make everyone feel welcome.

Lectors - serve at are assigned to proclaim the first and second readings at all Sunday Masses as well as Holy Days. To become a lector, completion of training at a Vicariate session is required. A lector reads once a month, on average.

Mass Coordinators - serve at weekend Masses and special seasonal Masses by ensuring an organized and respectful celebration of the Mass. They are responsible for organizing and guiding parish volunteers who serve at the Mass to ensure each Mass is properly staffed.

Music Ministry - Wonderful musical prayer at our liturgies is an integral component of our Eucharistic celebrations, and thus we place high importance on developing a music ministry that is rich with quality, leadership, enthusiasm and participation.

Sacristans - perform a simple but important task of ensuring that the linens, vestments and sacred vessels are clean, prepared, and made available for Mass.

Ushers - serve at the celebration of the Mass so everyone may feel the hospitality of our community, while we ensure the convenience, comfort, and safety of the congregation. We seek able-bodied men and women.
“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service, but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

Time & Talent Stewardship Weekend June 1st and June 2nd

We all have unique gifts and talents to share. Do you know what your gifts and talents are? Have you thought about how God is calling you to share your gifts in service to others? At St. James we have a variety of ways in which you can share your time, talents, and treasure. Please join us at mass the weekend of June 1st and 2nd as we celebrate those who give of their time and talents at St. James and encourage others to get involved.

Online Giving

The Lord is risen! As Christ’s disciples, we are called to go forth and spread the good news of His Resurrection. Our parish’s many ministries are examples of how many of you answer that call. Our ministries require not only gifts of time and talent, but also financial help. Please prayerfully consider supporting St. James with electronic donations through Faith Direct. Signing up is easy! Visit www.stjamesah.org/online-giving. Thank you for your continued support to our parish family!
Thank you to all our middle school and high school students, and volunteers (Tom Hussey, Sharon Lindeman, Mary McDermott & John Towner) who participated in Living Stations this year. A special thank you to Emily Madden for her assistance with rehearsals, and to Bridget Dillon, who not only played our Opponent in this year’s performance, but was also our main director. We couldn’t have done this without you!

Kid’s Bulletin

God’s Word for Children

Third Sunday of Easter

When Jesus and his disciples had eaten together, Jesus told Peter to take care of his sheep.

He meant that Peter and the other disciples were to tell everyone about him so that people would love him and follow him as the disciples themselves did.

Use the picture clues from the Bible story (John 21:1–19) to fill in the crossword.
EARTH SHEPHERDS UPDATE: Jan Gedmin and Cathy McQuillan enjoyed the ecology fair. We had lots of visitors to our St. James booth — the children enjoyed our questions about plastics, many adults admired our dishes lending ministry, and many entered the raffle for reusable items.

Providing Food for the Hungry

The St. James Conference of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul along with our friends at St. Edna’s are again hosting the Producemobile. The next food distribution will be Thursday, May 9th, 9:30 – 11:30 in St. Edna’s parking lot. Volunteers from St. James and St. Edna have helped deliver needed produce to an average of over 210 grateful families representing over 700 individuals per distribution since 2011.

Volunteers are always needed and welcome. I promise you’ll meet the nicest people and will enjoy giving a helping hand. Volunteers should arrive around 8:45 a.m. to set up tables. Should you have any questions or wish to help don’t hesitate to contact me at Max70McGee@gmail.com 847 848 5574
