A Message from our Pastor, Fr. Matt Foley

June 16, 2019

“Brothers and Sisters: I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you…
Do this in remembrance of me.”

My Father was both a Lector and Usher at Masses throughout his life. He was involved in other volunteer activities; however, I always remember how seriously he took serving at Mass. He stopped being a Lector as he entered his seventies. He never stopped serving as an Usher and he would tell me that he still always knelt during the consecration at Mass, even though he should have probably taken a seat.

My Father always preached that it was an honor to serve at Mass. Telling me the stories of his Army service and being an Altar Server for Latin Masses. I miss listening to him, so I find myself often going to his grave at Ascension Cemetery in Libertyville. At his grave I take a knee to offer prayers for his soul and remember his guidance and the sacrifices he offered our family.

The Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ invites us to share in the new covenant. This is an unbreakable covenant bond with Christ and one another. As we give thanks for our Fathers, may we take a knee and pray for them.

Your Servant in Christ,

Padre Matt

REFLECTION ON ADORATION

What Happens In Eucharistic Adoration?
By Tom Garson, St. James Parishioner

OK, so it’s time for our hour of Eucharistic Adoration in the chapel. We walk in wondering what we are going to do in there for a whole hour. What, if anything, is going to happen to us? As I mentioned last week, I’m just a regular guy, not a trained theologian, but here is what I think happens.

We walk into the chapel as complete human beings with a body, mind and soul. The chapel is nice and quiet and comfortable. Jesus is there in the Blessed Sacrament. We kneel or sit and begin our hour of Adoration. Our whole person is there with Him.

My experience is that our mind tries to focus on prayer and the Lord’s presence but soon starts doing what it normally does, jumping around from thing to thing like situations or problems in our lives. It distracts us from what we came to the chapel for and is pretty hard to control.

Our bodies are there too. They may or may not be in good shape, but they are probably happy to have an hour of rest.

It is our souls, however, that know what’s going on. Our souls know Who is in the room with us, and our souls are awakened because, at that moment, they are nearer to their final, joyful destiny than they can be at any time while we are still alive. As St. Augustine prayed, “My soul is ever restless, Lord, until it rests in you.”

It seems to me that we spend way more time thinking about our minds and bodies than we do our souls. But I’m pretty sure that the reason I always feel a little lighter on my feet when I leave the chapel is because my soul has been nourished and strengthened and therefore I am better equipped to go back into the world.

COME and CELEBRATE immediately following the 11:30am Mass, Bishop Rojas will lead the Eucharistic procession of the Blessed Sacrament and bless our new Adoration Chapel.

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, on the Passage of Senate Bill 25

June 1, 2019

The passage of Senate Bill 25, eliminating even the minimal limitations on abortions under previous law marks a sad moment in our history as a State. We have worked to make the case for a consistent approach to human dignity in Illinois and will continue to do so even as elected officials single out unborn persons for particular disregard. It remains our hope that Illinois will eventually distinguish itself as a safe place that welcomes not only those seeking a new life or second chance, but also the most vulnerable among us who deserve a chance at life.

We are resolved to let women and families in the Chicago area know they have alternatives to abortion. We will continue to provide help during their pregnancies and throughout their journey as parents. Our ministry in Cook and Lake Counties has taught us that when teenagers in underserved communities experience an unplanned pregnancy without proper support, the consequences for the health and well-being of mother and child can be grim.

But, we have also seen that a brighter outcome is possible when support is provided. Catholic Charities and its partners serve hundreds of young women and developing families every year. They nurture the mother and therefore the baby by providing classes in health and child development. They encourage the new families toward independence by providing childcare and making referrals for education, housing and employment.

As a young woman, served by a Catholic agency said, “It was like a second family when I came here. My Doula took me to doctors’ appointments, explaining what all the papers and procedures meant, how my baby was developing, the changes my body was going through and how to eat and exercise to stay healthy.”

Today, her son is thriving in the organization’s early childhood program and its family support program helps her stay on track with personal goals. She will begin a bachelor’s degree program this summer. With loving encouragement, she has turned stressful circumstances into a positive, hopeful future for herself and her son.

Women have a real choice when they are given the support they need to bring their children into the world and parent them, supported by a society that truly values them. We will give that support to all who seek it in the hope that by offering them a choice, we will build stronger families and a better Illinois.

SUMMER MISSION…..

Sara Allaire and Julie Morgan, SJS Class of 2012, are doing a summer mission trip to Africa. They are traveling with Love Africa Mission to Kijabe, Kenya, home to the Africa Inland Mission station established in 1903. On station, Julia and Sara will connect with Kijabe Hospital, CURE Hospital, Kenya Kids Can, Little Lambs Daycare, Southern Cross, and Rift Valley Fellowship – all incredible ministries that are working to alleviate the hardships faced by the people of Kenya. They will have the opportunity to meet the Masai people down in the Rift Valley and experience true tribal culture during their Sunday worship service. We will also be serving refugees at the IDP Camps (Internally Displaced People) as a part of a feeding program, established in 2011, which feeds over 300 children each school day.

God bless you, Sara and Julia, for your commitment to service!

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
Father’s Day 2019

“God has revealed his innermost secret:
God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange.” (CCC 221)

“Right from the beginning, the blessing of fruitfulness descended, linked with human procreation” (Theology of the Body, St. John Paul II, cf. Gen 1:28)

Marriage, the relationship between husband and wife, was designed from the very beginning to be a sign on earth of God’s love within the Trinity.

Thank you fathers (mothers too),
for your participation in God’s wonderful plan for LIFE!

Aid for Women

THANK YOU!

Aid for Women expresses our deepest gratitude to St. James Parish for your generous gift of Baby Shower Donations. Your donations totaled $3,646.00 and will provide much needed items for the babies who live in our two homes and for the babies whose mothers come to our pregnancy care centers for help.

Thank you for your support of Aid for Women’s life-saving mission. Your generosity helps us provide thousands of women each year in the Chicago metropolitan area with the emotional, practical and spiritual support they need to choose life for their unborn babies and to create brighter futures for themselves and their children.

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today’s readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The wisdom of God played on the surface of God’s earth, finding delight in the human race (Proverbs 8:22-31).

Psalm — O Lord, our God, how wonderful you name in all the earth! (Psalm 8).

Second Reading — The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:1-15).

Gospel — The Spirit of truth will guide you to all truth (John 16:12-15).

Our Charity

During this month of June, our charities will be the Archdiocesan collection for Retired Priests, and the Peter’s Pence Initiative.

The Collection for Retired Priests helps to support our elderly and retired priests, who have faithfully served our Church for many years. (Funding often assists with healthcare, prescription drugs, and nursing home care.)

The Peter’s Pence Initiative supports the work of Pope Francis. Donations are a witness of charity and help the Holy See reach out compassionately to those who are marginalized. Contributions provide assistance to victims of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease.

Thank you for your generosity to both of these June initiatives.
