Welcome Our New Associate Pastor
Fr. Ryan McMillin
A Message from our Associate Pastor, Fr. Ryan McMillin

July 7, 2019

Dear Friends,

Allow me to introduce myself. My name is Fr. Ryan McMillin, and I’m thrilled to say that St. James is my new home!

I’ll have to admit that I haven’t yet grown accustomed to hearing that—“Father” Ryan McMillin—because it was only a month ago that I was ordained to the priesthood. In other words, I’m coming to you as a newbie. I’m coming as one who hopes to continue to learn, this time not so much in a classroom but in a strong community of faith. From the time I was told of my new assignment (way back in February), I’ve heard so many good things about St. James. I have every bit of confidence that this will be a great place for me to serve and begin to grow into my priestly ministry.

Before I begin to learn from you all, let me tell you a little about my own journey to the present day. Some thirty years ago, I was born in Denver. Just a year or so into life, I moved to Oak Lawn, Illinois, where I later attended St. Linus School and Richards High School.

During high school, I thought I might eventually like to have a career in politics/government, so I went off to study in Washington, D.C. at Georgetown University. Thankfully it only took me a few weeks into my classes to realize that I had very few gifts for politics, so I quickly changed course and decided to study economics and mathematics instead. I enjoyed the latter so much that I went on to get a graduate degree in it.

Unfortunately (or fortunately), that enjoyment lasted only until I got my first desk job as a statistician in, of all places, the government. Just a few weeks in, I realized that the plan I had charted out for myself would not even come close to fulfilling me at a deep level. It was in my cubicle that I first began to think about what would be more life-giving. Through many good conversations with friends, family, and good mentor priests, I finally discerned that it might be ministry as a priest that would bring me the fulfillment I was looking for.

With a bit of prayer and guidance, the decision to follow the path to ordained ministry was not too difficult to make. After all, I had been working through high school and college as a part-time pianist/organist, so church was no foreign place to me. I also had side jobs tutoring or teaching in various capacities. While in college there began in my life a series of profound encounters with the Word of God through Scripture, liturgy, community service, and the good example of others. All of these seemed to be pointing me toward priesthood.

My reflecting on God’s work in my own life led me to begin preparation for the priesthood at Mundelein Seminary. I spent six long/short years continuing my formation there. Over the past few years, I’ve had the privilege of serving as a seminarian intern and then transitional deacon at St. Emily in Mt. Prospect.

My journey to the present day has been an exciting one, and I’m grateful that God has guided me even when I haven’t been keen to realize it. I’m so excited to begin the next part of my journey at St. James and most of all to hear about and learn from your own journeys into a deeper relationship with our Lord.

Thanks for your welcome and for your prayers. You can be sure to count on mine for all of you!

Fr. Ryan
Liturgy and Worship

Join us on Thursdays for Holy Hour with Deacon Hahn at 7pm in the church!

This is our faith! The Real Presence of Christ, Who is alive, waits for us to visit Him in our Church.

We are thankful for Eucharistic Adoration at St. James Church.

St. James Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapel

There has been talk around about how to spend an hour in the adoration chapel...how to pray, etc. for a whole hour. Here’s a quick, true story that might help answer that question.

Many years ago I first signed up for a weekly hour of adoration. Within weeks, a woman started coming into the chapel every time I was there. She would come rolling in looking disheveled and poorly dressed usually in mismatched athletic attire. She would go to the back row of chairs and lie down across 3 or 4 of them and go to sleep. I thought to myself, “How rude is that?” As the weeks went by, I noticed that if I ever made eye contact with her either as I was leaving or as she was coming in, that she would give me a big, strange smile, so I then decided that she was probably just crazy.

More weeks went by and I finally got to know her a little bit. Turns out she wasn’t crazy; she was just really, really sick. Stomach cancer. She was dying and she knew it. She told me that she went for her weekly cancer treatments and then came right to the chapel because she just wanted to be in the room where Jesus was. I thought to myself then and still think now, man oh man, that’s the kind of faith that I’ve got to get.

So, what should we do when in the chapel? There are hundreds of answers to that question, but maybe the point is to just come and be with Jesus. Sit with Him for a while. Heck, lie down if you need to. You’ll be OK.

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:
• are not baptized
• were baptized in another Christian denomination
• or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on September 25th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It’s high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are “among the missing.” Some find the summer’s call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the “sabbatical” rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, “Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live.” By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society’s life.

My name is Theresa Storto. Before joining St. James as the Administrative Assistant for the Evangelization and Formation team, I was the assistant to the Director of Religious Education at St. Julian Eymard Church in Elk Grove Village for seven years. I love working in the Church and am blessed to be a part of St. James Parish.

Assisting St. James’ Evangelization and Formation team gives me the opportunity to serve our parish families by supporting their faith formation and helping them learn more about their faith and deepen their relationship with Christ.

I grew up in Chicago and moved to Elk Grove Village with my family in 1993. My husband and I have been married for 38 years and have two children and two grandsons.

I look forward to meeting all our families and working with everyone at St. James.

A Church Deacon (you might know) Is Saving Babies Dying in Uganda

"Until I die, I want to see every dying child in Africa have an opportunity to live"

[Note: This complete report can currently be read throughout July. At the end of this report you'll want to read what an African woman scholar has written with great insight about the causes of poverty in Africa, It might make you think differently about all poverty.]

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (Matthew 6:21)

From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked. (Jesus to his disciples, Luke 12:48)

Faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. (James 2:17)

Our church neighbor Deacon, Donald Grossnickle at Our Lady of Wayside Church, grimaced as he paused before entering another store-front clinic outside Nakifuma in Uganda, Africa. He was not his usual cheerful self this May day. It was this third trip to Uganda, and he knew what to expect. How many mothers and their babies will malaria kill today in this country?, he asked himself.

Don slid the door open and scanned the room for a doctor who should have been there but wasn't. There was just two work-stressed nuns caring for ten mothers lying on cots with one arm around their dying baby and another arm hooked up to an IV of anti-malarial medicine, both with expired "use" dates. Don, whom you might know as a tall man with a mind seemingly never at rest, now bent over the first of the mothers and her baby and prayed. A few tears from him were inevitable. So much work to be done by this 71-year-old medical missionary, so many more return trips to Uganda, and so very much more money to raise….

GOD’S PROVIDENCE
Today’s readings celebrate God’s providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God,” but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God’s care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul’s trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.
