A Message from our Director Evangelization & Formation, Jonathan Belvins

August 11, 2019

Dear Friends,

Today’s readings, much like last week’s readings, remind us that we need to keep our eyes fixed on the Kingdom of God rather than the things of this world. We are to be ready for Jesus to return so that we can fully receive all that He has for us. What a perfect weekend to introduce our new Evangelization & Formation team here at St. James who has been tasked to help us with this very thing, namely, to be Disciples who make Disciples.

My name is Jonathan Blevins and I am the Director of Evangelization and Formation here at St. James. I have been here for about 4 months and I have loved getting to know so many of the families and parishioners and I look forward to meeting everyone over this next year. It has been a busy four months as we have transitioned from one school year into the summer and have been working on getting everything ready for this upcoming year.

One of the major projects of my first few months has been to establish and assemble the Evangelization & Formation Team. I am thrilled that God has provided our community with some of the best people in ministry that we could have hoped for and certainly prayed for. You will find pictures and titles in this bulletin to help put names to faces. As a team, we pray daily, pray together weekly, and are passionate about sharing the Gospel with all that we meet.

We are launching some very exciting ministries in the Fall! Life Teen for our high school community, EDGE for our middle school community, Alpha for anyone 18+, Quarterly Senior Luncheons, and many more opportunities for people of all ages to continue to grow closer to the Lord.

We would love to meet with you and answer any questions that you might have, help with registration, or simply say hello! The Evangelization & Formation Team will be in the Laramie room with fresh coffee and a bite to eat after all of the Masses this weekend as well as the weekend of August 24-25. Please pray for us and know that we are praying for you. Let’s change the world!

In His Name,

Jonathan Blevins

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Your ancestors waited in faith and courage for God’s promised summons (Wisdom 18:6-9).
Psalm — Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).
Second Reading — By faith Abraham sojourned in the promised land (Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19 [1-2, 8-12]).
Gospel — You do not know the day nor the hour when the Son of Man will appear (Luke 12:32-48 [35-40]).

Evangelization & Formation Team

Kevin Byrnes
Coordinator of Children’s Formation
Responsible for the Religious Education of 1st - 5th Grade. I am also responsible for any Children’s ministry in grade 1-5. It is my role to inspire our children to begin a life long journey with Jesus. Fun Fact: I once chased a wild kangaroo!

Sarra Stanley
FOCUS Parish Outreach
As a FOCUS missionary and baptized daughter of God, I hope to walk with, encourage, and equip the women of St. James to live in their identity as ‘daughter’ before any other identity. Living in our primary identity enables us to love God, ourselves, and others a whole lot more; keeping us straight on the way to fulfilling the Great Commission! (Matthew 28:19-20) Fun Fact: I have a book dedicated to me! It might be because my dad wrote it…

Karen Jarosz
Coordinator of Open Doors Ministry
Open Doors Ministry welcomes all people into a full and active spiritual life by providing faith formation for individuals and families with special needs. We joyfully enter into faith formation through catechesis, adaptive programming, and mutual support. Fun Fact: I love playing games with family and friends.

Matthew Lawson
Coordinator of Middle School Youth Ministry - I will help middle school youth find God at an important time in their lives as they are becoming who God made them to be. We will have a blast along the way! Fun fact: Biked across Ireland!

Theresa Storto, Administrative Assistant to Evangelization and Formation Team - I provide support as the primary contact for our ministries related to evangelization and formation. Fun Fact: I’ve gone dog sledding in Michigan’s upper peninsula with hiking club.

Matt Marcheschi, FOCUS Parish Outreach - I am blessed to accompany St. James parishioners on their journeys of deepening discipleship to build them up and equip them in order for them to then go out and make other disciples as well. Fun Fact: My college nickname was Dr. Thunder.

Jonathan Blevins
Director of Evangelization and Formation
I am blessed to lead a team of incredible people here at St. James in order to help everyone to Be Disciples that Make Disciples. I get to vision and plan for the future as well as minister to the wonderful parishioners here. Fun Fact: I have been on Family Feud and Celebrity Family Feud!

Christina Hudson
Coordinator of High School Youth Ministry
Help high school students realize they were made for greatness, help encounter that greatness through Jesus so they can live life to the fullest, and inspire others to do the same. Fun Fact: I lived in Japan for 4 years and refused to eat sushi during that time. Sushi is now one of my favorite things.
From the Adoration Chapel

Today is the feast day of St. Clare of Assisi who came from a wealthy and noble family and lived from 1194-1253. She was very beautiful, gentle and kind. St. Clare loved Jesus from a young age.

When St. Clare first heard St. Francis preach, she was a teenager. She was filled with such love for Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament that, after hearing St. Francis, she decided to give her life completely to Christ. She became a spiritual daughter of St. Francis and gave away all that she had.

In the village of Assisi, in an old house, St. Clare started an order of nuns called the Poor Clares. They dedicated themselves to a life of penance, fasting, and prayer before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. The Holy Eucharist was always the total source of their life and strength.

An army of Saracens came to Assisi in the year 1240 with plans to destroy the city and enter the convent where St. Clare and her sisters lived. St. Clare knew that Jesus was with them in the Holy Eucharist and that He could protect them. She took Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, exposed in a beautiful gold monstrance and carried Him outside of the convent to the city walls. When the army of violent men saw St. Clare raising up Jesus in the Holy Eucharist they ran away in fear!

Our Adoration Chapel with Jesus present in the Most Blessed Sacrament is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

May we all trust in Him as did St. Clare!

Are you looking to connect with other women and build meaningful relationships based on your Catholic faith?

Then check out the Women of St. James! Our first meeting will be in early September.

The Women of St. James is a community of Catholic women who are committed to growing and sharing our faith through sisterhood and service.

Our small groups come together one evening a month. We serve the St. James community as well as local community groups and charities with our time, talent and treasure. All women in our parish are encouraged to join!

For more information, you can email WOSJ@stjamesah.org or contact Nina Losch 773.512.7039
The New Evangelization and Formation Team are so excited to be serving the parishioners of St. James and the local community as a whole. The entire team will be at all of the Masses on August 10-11 and August 24-25 to meet the parishioners, help with registration for all of the new programs, and to continue to share the vision moving forward! Pray for us and know that we are praying for you!

Meeting Mental Illness with Grace

What can faith communities do to minister to those with mental illness and their families?

As faith communities, we can make a difference in people’s lives by:
- educating ourselves on the facts of mental illness
- being accepting of a person’s illness
- comforting them in time of crisis
- supporting them in their ongoing need
- assisting them in their search for mental health services.

Please join us to learn how we can make a difference ...

St. James, St. Edna and Our Lady Of The Wayside come together to deliver a 5 part archdiocesan series of weekly information meetings.
All meetings are at St. Edna’s from 7-8:30p. No registration is required.
You may attend as many evenings as you wish.
If you have any questions, please reach out to Deacon Jim Bannon at 847-577-6328.

Prior to the series, we will be running weekly articles on mental illness and its effect on individuals, families and society.

Christ calls us to care for one another.

OUR MISSION
To be disciples of Christ and make disciples of Christ.

OUR VISION
That each member of our community encounters the fire of God’s love; then with hearts burning brightly, shares that love with others.

OUR VALUES
Divine Intimacy
...cultivating a deep and abiding relationship with Jesus Christ centered on prayer and the Eucharist.

Education
...seeking to learn the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Respect
...honoring the dignity of each human person.

Generosity
...giving selflessly and abundantly of our time, talent, and treasure.

Hospitality
...creating an atmosphere of joy and welcome.

St James PADS (Public Action to Deliver Shelter)

As we look to start a new season of care for those in our community experiencing homelessness, we take inventory of all the gifts the Lord has given us to share with our brothers and sisters. The newly renovated church offers many opportunities to provide respect and human dignity to those in need.

Please consider volunteering this fall. The overnight shifts continue to be our area of greatest need.

Saint James PADS is 100% volunteer run. We are a Wednesday night site that provides overnight shelter, showers, dinner, breakfast and a sack lunch to guests weekly. Help is needed between the hours of 5 pm and 8 am Wednesday evenings to Thursday mornings, from October through April.

If you are able to join us as a volunteer, please fill out this form and someone will be in contact with you soon.  https://goo.gl/forms/2zeKXciYAA0Fppsg2
