ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

"The Lord was invited and came to a wedding.

Is it any wonder that he who came to that house for a wedding came to this world for a wedding? ... Therefore he has a bride here whom he has redeemed by his blood and to whom he has given the Holy Spirit as a pledge."

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Good people of St. James Parish,

Hello everyone! My name is Fr. Bob Heinz, and I have been assigned to you to be the temporary Administrator here at St. James until Fr. Ed Pelrine returns. I don't expect to be here long. I arrived here about 2 weeks ago and I am already enjoying renewing some friendships I made from my first time here over 30 years ago. Ministry has always given me more than I could ever give back.

I thank God for my vocation and where it has led me. I was ordained in 1980 and have served in the Archdiocese for over 40 years at St. Ailbe, St. Mary Star of the Sea, St. Alphonsus Liguori, St. Norbert, Our Lady of the Brook, St. Mary of the Woods, St. Francis in Lake Zurich, and here at St. James from 1991-1994.

I am glad to be here at St. James Parish which continues to be a shining light in the Archdiocese of Chicago. I am privileged to be a part of that light again at least for a little while.

I view my role here as an "accompanying" one. I am simply going to try to "be with" the staff, parishioners, sick, grieving, hungry, and those in need. Sometimes those in need are right here in our midst. Sometimes they come to our door or come to us through technology. I hope to be as present as possible to those who need someone to be with and help them remember or encounter Christ's presence in that moment(s).

Administrators do not change things. I believe I am to support and encourage the mission that the parish has articulated. So, I hope to support and encourage the values of St. James articulated in the Parish Mission which I understand as, Divine Intimacy, Education, Respect, Generosity and Hospitality. Your values make it sound so simple and yet I know it can be very challenging. So, one day at a time, we give thanks to God and try to serve him by serving one another.

I pray we all can live in gratitude by sharing the gifts that are within each of us! Looking forward to our ministry together.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Bob Heinz

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN, MAY WE SUGGEST...

Relax! God put the wiggle in children; don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house.

All are welcome!

Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear what's going on at the altar. They tire of seeing the backs of other's heads.

Quietly explain the parts of the Mass and actions of the priests, altar servers, musicians, etc... Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.

If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."

Remember the way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to the church, to God and to one another.

Let them know that they are to be reverent in this house of worship.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR PARISH ...

The presence of children is a gift to the church and they are a reminder that our parish is growing! Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

New Men's Study Group Forming!

Deepen your faith through study and fellowship in the Christian humanism tradition. Join a group of approximately 6 men to read, analyze, and discuss books from Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J.'s The Catholic Lifetime Reading Plan (available on Amazon). The reading list includes The Bible, The Catechism of The Catholic Church, and authors such as the Church Fathers, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, Cervantes, John Henry Newman, St. Therese of Lisieux, G. K. Chesterton, Evelyn Waugh, Christopher Dawson, Jacques Maritain, and Bernard Lonergan. The group will make the reading selections. The group will meet at least once a month in members' homes. Happy New Year, friends!!

I hope you all had a joyful Christmas season filled with hope and God's consolation! I am delighted to inform you that since Israel has reopened its borders to travel to/from the United States, my classmates and I will be leaving for the Holy Land on Saturday, January 14 for a 9 week pilgrimage! We will visit the vast majority of historical sights in the area while also taking classes.

Since this is a pilgrimage and because I am always so very grateful for your prayers and support of me, I want to remember your prayer intentions as I journey over to the place where it all began. Please feel free to comment below or message me privately any and all prayer intentions you have! I will record them in my personal prayer journal so that I may offer them continuously during my pilgrimage. Thank you all so much, and as always, please continue to pray for me!
