JAN 17

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ. So spoke St. Jerome, a doctor of the Church who is famous mostly for his love of sacred Scripture. (Lesser known fact: he had a dry wit and a healthy love of sarcasm. Saints have personalities too...)

Taking St. Jerome's maxim to heart, Pope Francis decided to mark the 1600th anniversary of Jerome's death (September 30, 2019) by calling for a new celebration of the Word of God. And so we have it: the "Sunday of the Word of God" is now celebrated on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time—this year, on the weekend of January 24.

I'm excited to announce to you that this year we'll be celebrating the Sunday of the Word of God in a special way. Thanks in part to the generosity of the Family-School Association (FSA), we will be gifting new study bibles to all of our eighth-grade candidates for Confirmation. To me at least, there seems to be no greater way to invest in our young people than to invest them with the power of the Word of God.

Of course, I'd be naïve to think that simply giving them bibles would make them love the Word. To that end, my goal is to invest some of my time with them breaking open the Word in their classrooms. I hope that you too, as their parents, mentors, teachers, and friends, can find creative ways to study and share the Word with them and learn from each other.

But wait, there's more! Anyone attending mass here at St. James on January 23/24 is invited to bring a bible to church to receive a special blessing with it. Let's call it BYOB, Sunday edition.

Obviously, our celebration of the Word of God is not meant to be confined to a single day of the year. Rather, it's a symbolic launch into a yearlong (or better, lifelong) relationship with the Word. Stay tuned for more information on future opportunities for growing in love for the Scriptures and, thereby, Christ.

FORMING DISCIPLES

I met and befriended people from the evangelization team, but they didn't just let me be. They challenged me to grow. They challenged me to bring others together to grow with me. They walked with me, made me confident in my own faith, and confident enough to share my faith. And now, because of everything, my faith and relationship with God has grown immensely. – Carrie S.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Next Week St. James School and R.E. students will celebrate their First Reconciliation. Please pray for them as they receive God's mercy in a new way. Reconciliation will look a little different than in past years, Fr. Ryan and Kevin Byrnes have made a video demonstration to show how a socially distanced confession will look. Please review the video here!
