THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Dear Friends,

This week was quite a momentous week. On Monday, we celebrated the witness of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., perhaps with mental images or clips of his famous March on Washington in 1963. Two days later, we witnessed the inauguration of President Biden in a Washington with far fewer throngs of people. And today, the anniversary of the Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade decision, we would normally witness the March for Life, an event to pray for the promotion of a culture of life and to protest a culture of death. This year's march, however, is virtual.

As I continue to reflect on these events and what they celebrate or signify, I'm wondering if it's helpful for us as Christians to recognize the importance of two wombs, the womb of the mother and the womb of the world.

The womb of the mother is the miraculous seedbed of life—the place where we were nurtured before we saw the light of day and were manifest to the world as newborns. The womb of the world is the place where, in a similar way, we are conceived and awaiting our definitive new birth: that moment when we are brought into the light of an everlasting day, no longer confined to the world of space and time as we know it. As of now, all of us reading this are much like an embryo on a path of development, one whose end is nothing less than a risen, glorified body like our Lord's.

Our Christian faith demands that life be protected, nurtured, and loved in both wombs. To assault or neglect people in the womb of the world is to abort human dignity. To assault or neglect a person in the womb of a mother is to practice unjust discrimination in its highest form.

Thankfully, even the most vicious attacks in both wombs cannot rob victims of the promise given at conception that we are called to live forever with God. If our violent discrimination or discriminating violence could take away that life, Jesus wouldn't have risen from the dead. But he did, and that means that no form of violence can ever have the last word.

Through our joy and courage, let's help the culture to realize this so that life may be loved and valued wherever or however it is found.

-Fr. Ryan

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Jan. 6, 2021

What has been unfolding at the Capitol today should shock the conscience of any patriotic American and any faithful Catholic. The eyes of the world look on in horror as we suffer this national disgrace. For many months we have witnessed the deliberate erosion of the norms of our system of government. Peaceful protest is a sacred right. It has been an essential component of much social progress over the course of human history.

But violence is its opposite. Violence in the service of a falsehood is worse. Please join me in praying for the woman who was shot during the rioting, and who has died, and for law enforcement who protect us against mob rule.

We pray for peace at this bracing moment in U.S. history, a history that has been marked by one of democracy's greatest virtues—the peaceful and orderly transition of power. May our elected officials heed the counsel of their better angels to stand up for the Constitution they swore to defend, to speak the truth, and to recognize threats to democracy, no matter their source.

May God's love suffuse our political life together, reminding all Americans that politics is the peaceful resolution of conflicting points of view. This is our tradition as a democratic nation—and we undermine it at our own peril.

FORMING DISCIPLES

We congratulate St James Seminarian Mauricio Espino on his Diaconate Ordination, December 16th at St. Anne's Catholic Church in his Diocese of Las Vegas. Mauricio continues to serve St. James as a Deacon baptizing our babies & preaching at masses as well as assisting with Lifeteen events. Please continue to pray for Mauricio as he prepares for ordination this summer.

David & I began the Catholic School journey for our children almost 6 years ago. We were welcomed with open arms by the staff & parents of St. James School. We are blessed to be able to fiscally provide the Catholic education offered by SJS. Many families, however, are not in the same situation. These are the families that need tuition assistance in order to allow their children to flourish in the educational and spiritual environment that SJS offers. Through EMPOWER Illinois, we are all enabled to help these families. This tuition assistance is not only a financial support to them, but it also offers a 75% financial return benefit to us. Being able to receive a credit on our taxes by donating to a scholarship fund is an amazing opportunity. Plus, it's an incredibly simple process that we plan to continue. ~ David & Pamela Kelly
