

SAINT JAMES PARISH
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Welcome!

Fr. Ed Pelrine

*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

JULY 4
2021

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Greetings to the St. James Community!

I am delighted to begin my service as pastor of this wonderful parish. I spent eight years as pastor of Queen of the Rosary in Elk Grove Village, and would often hear about the many good things happening at St. James.

Throughout the twenty years of my priesthood, I have become more and more convicted that the Church's mission is this: to confidently preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all people so that they might receive the salvation and new life he has won for us. The Lord has given us all that we need to proceed on this mission – the living Word of God, the sacraments, the Tradition passed down to us from the Apostles, and the presence of the Trinity in the Church - always. I am excited to continue this mission with you here at St. James.

Over the last six years, I have served on the faculty of Mundelein Seminary, most recently as vice rector. Working with men preparing for the priesthood has been gratifying and fruitful. Parish life, too, is a great joy, and I am grateful be doing that once more.

During the next weeks and months, I am looking forward to meeting you and sharing our faith and mission.

Thanks to all those who have been so helpful in my first days here, especially Father Ryan, who graciously took on the temporary administration of the parish.

God bless you,
Fr. Ed

HOSPITALITY & FELLOWSHIP

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

That They Might Have Life

Independence Day and the Right to Life

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness." Thomas Jefferson, Declaration of Independence

"It is impossible to further the common good without acknowledging and defending the right to life, upon which all the other inalienable rights of individuals are founded and from which they develop." St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae

"The 'people of life' rejoices in being able to share its commitment with so many others. Thus may the "people for life" constantly grow in number and may a new culture of love and solidarity develop for the true good of the whole of human society." St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae

We invite you, once again, to follow us on St. James facebook or to join our ministry by contacting us at RespectLife@StJamesAH.org

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Racism and Migration

Sixth in a series of nine USCCB backgrounders on racism and systemic racism, wealth, education, employment, housing, migration, criminal justice, the Native American experience, and voting. Combatting Racism - Parish Resources / USCCB

Ethnicity has long been a factor guiding migration policy in the United States. In the early twentieth century, eugenics became popular among many of the political and scientific elite. Though false, it was upheld as science wherein biological principles were used to differentiate between what were perceived as superior and inferior races. Opponents of mass immigration believed that non-Catholic Northern European or Anglo-Saxon bloodlines were superior. This same ideology reached a high point with the National Origins Act in 1924, which significantly restricted immigration from countries in the Eastern hemisphere. Western hemisphere countries were exempt. This system remained in place, ending with the passage of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965.

- Although the overt racial discrimination that was built into the quota system was eliminated, many migrant communities continue to experience racism in life in the United States. Hispanics and other migrant populations are often discriminated against in hiring, housing, educational opportunities, and in the criminal justice system.
- Racist rhetoric that marginalizes and causes discrimination against migrant populations is common. In response, the church must provide a counter-example for those who use race to deny the God-given dignity of people who are migrants. As Catholics, we are called to welcome newcomers upon their arrival and help to ease their transitions into life here in the United States.
- In their pastoral letter Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope, the bishops of the United States and Mexico emphasized the importance of encounter in the process of conversion. Strangers No Longer reminds us that "part of the process of conversion of mind and heart deals with confronting attitudes of cultural superiority, indifference, and racism; accepting migrants not as foreboding aliens, terrorists, or economic threats, but rather as persons with dignity and rights, revealing the presence of Christ; and recognizing migrants as bearers of deep cultural values and rich faith traditions."
