THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

A MESSAGE FROM...

Use Lent to Reorient Towards God, Who is Love

At Christmastime we say, "Have a Merry Christmas!" And at Easter, "Happy Easter!" But Lent feels different, maybe a little sad. But I think that we can be joyful about Lent saying, "Have a Loving Lent." Let me explain.

On Ash Wednesday, the ministers said, "Repent and believe in the gospel" before distributing ashes. In today's usage, repent means to feel sorry, to have remorse or regret. So, we might think that we should be sad for Lent. But in the biblical context "repent" means to have a complete change of heart, which turns away from sin and towards God. So repent means we reorient ourselves away from worldly things and towards God!

And we have a lot in the world we can orient our lives towards, rather than God. I remember some of the things I turned towards other than God during the worst of the pandemic. For example:

- I remember all the time that I spent watching TV, especially Netflix. Now binge-watching old shows or getting wrapped up in Joe Exotic the Tiger King are not the best things to turn towards, because they do not lead us to Truth, Beauty, Goodness, and Love.

- I remember the quarantine playlist I made on Spotify, but you can only listen to Don't Stand So Close to Me by the Police and All By Myself by Eric Carmen only so many times, and they don't lift our spirits to God.

- I remember the separation I felt from family, friends, and parishioners. So, I often turned towards the voices of politicians, commentators, and experts who frequently lacked wisdom, truth, goodness, and love.

- But now during Lent, I remember the incarnation, suffering, and death of Jesus for our salvation...and the new covenant of the Eucharist that he made with us.

- This is the reorientation that we are called to in Lent. To turn away from all the worldly things around us... and our sins, and turn towards the perfect Truth, Beauty, Goodness, and Love of God.

We "repent and believe in the gospel." This belief is not just an intellectual conviction - it is also a trust & personal commitment even when facing a threatening future, such as a pandemic. It means:

- having the confidence that God cares for us so much that he became man, suffered, and died for our sins;

- that he guides our lives through the work of the Holy Spirit;

- and that God wants us to share eternal life with him.

We have the Lenten practices of prayer, almsgiving and fasting not to punish us, but to remind us to repent and believe.

- To remind us that we are beloved daughters and sons of God, who need to turn towards him...towards his perfect love.

- And to remind us that we need to share God's perfect love with the entire world.

So there it is. Have a joyous, Loving Lent!

- Deacon Jim Bannon

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Let's Pray Together

During Lent, we invite our Religious Education students to add his or her prayer intentions to our Lenten Prayer Basket.

This Basket will be at the foot of the altar during St. James School's Wednesday morning Mass, Friday's Pray Day and at all of our Encounter Nights.

Write your prayer intention, place in an envelope and drop it off at the Parish office during regular hours or email to tstorto@stjamesah.org

Your prayer intention will be placed in the basket where our children will pray for one another in solidarity.

Examples of your intentions might include sick friends or relatives; a difficult situation at school; better relations between siblings; for issues of peace and justice; health and safety. The Lord will hear all our prayers.

Where Two or Three are Gathered in My Name, I Am in Their Midst –
Matthew 18:15-20

This past week was incredible with our young people at St. James. We had an amazing EDGE session where we went over the season of Lent and the middle school youth shared some great things that they are doing to prepare for Easter. We met with our catechists and 1-5 youth to talk about what God is calling us to throughout Lent. We also had the opportunity to pray with our SJS students. Please continue to pray for all of the youth of our parish.

Meeting Mental Health With Grace: Finding My Balance in Difficult times

Finding My Balance In Difficult Times

Last spring, Stacey O'Connell, LCPC and Lead Counselor at Amita Alexian Brother's Center for Mental Health joined the Mom's Plus group to share insights and practical tips for finding balance. While originally aimed at helping young moms, Stacey's insightful tips are applicable for children as well as all of us. Here are a few highlights from her presentation:

- Set intentions vs expectations. Intentions are softer guidelines that help us view things more in that "grey area" vs right or wrong/black or white
- Know your support team. Who do you reach out to when you need a laugh? someone safe to vent with? a problem solver? Identify these people, and write them down so you have them at your finger tips.
- The power of LOVE. Find the love in everything. In a conflict? ask yourself where is the love - how can I use it? Share your love with someone through a small thing.
- List 5 things you like to do. Make sure you do 1 each day.
- Peace begins with me. Looking to bring peace to a moment of stress? The mantra: "Peace begins with me" can be tapped out on your fingers and said silently: thumb to pointer (peace), thumb to middle (begins), thumb to ring (with), and thumb to pinky (me).
- Make a coping skills box or board. Remember the power of senses (taste, sight, smell and touch) as you identify the items to include.

*Do not fear: I am with you; do not be anxious: I am your God.
I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand. Isaiah 41:10*

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Hi, my name is Christina Park. I was raised Presbyterian by my two immigrant parents. After attending DePaul University, for my undergraduate degree, I decided to explore the various denominations of Christianity. I attended several churches around the Chicagoland area. It has been an educational ten year journey. Throughout my exploration phase, I was always drawn to the Catholic church. The history, liturgy, and the morals/spirituality were some of the few things that always stood out to me.

Therefore, I decided to commit to this faith and took the steps to convert. I joined RCIA at St. James by chance, but it has been an amazing experience! The team and my fellow candidates have been very supportive and encouraging throughout this process. I am extremely thankful to have met such remarkable individuals, and I look forward to meeting everyone at St. James soon!

Hi, my name is Millicent Guerrero Arocha. I live in Buffalo Grove for about 5 years now. Originally from Venezuela. Born, raised and baptized Catholic. Married and mother of three boys - work in the parking industry for over 15 years. After coming in couple times, interacting with Fr. Ryan and feeling very welcome, I decided to join St. James Church. I always wanted to be confirmed from the time I was 16 years old, but events in life made it challenging for me. I was extremely happy after I spoke to my RCIA instructor James and found out that I will be able to attend the program and be confirmed, regardless of my hectic schedule and busy life. I am grateful for my journey and the support given in the RCIA program. I also look forward to enhancing my faith, understanding of Catholicism and be confirmed.

FAITH DIRECT®
By Ministry Design

LENT

Last year, we learned that some families at St. James chose to embrace the Lenten season by “giving up” envelopes and make the switch to online giving through Faith Direct. The steady support of recurring donations absolutely helped sustain our mission during the upheaval and challenges set in motion by COVID-19. To those families, and to all families who contribute to St. James through Faith Direct, we are tremendously grateful. This year, I would like to invite those still not giving regularly online to prayerfully consider moving to online giving.

Lent takes on special meaning each year – a time for all Christians to renew their faith in the Resurrection by journeying to the Cross. Even in the most challenging of times, as we all experienced during the past year, he constantly provides silver linings and hope for better things to come. Almsgiving is one way we can give of ourselves as Christ did, all while providing for our parish, our ministries, and community needs.

Please consider “giving up” or sacrificing offertory envelopes and switching to Faith Direct. It saves the parish money overall and increases efficiency. Signing up with a recurring gift is easy, and Faith Direct will help if you need assistance. Click here to enroll:

<https://membership.faithdirect.net/IL859> or text to 224-313-4345.

May God bless you and your loved ones this Lenten season and throughout the year. Thank you for your stewardship and dedication to St. James. ~ Yours in Christ, Fr. Ryan
