ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. John 13:34

This year, Open Doors Ministry has shifted from the Classroom Inclusion model to a Family Support model. Children who are enrolled in our St. James remote RE programs receive tailored support based on their individual needs. Our team routinely checks in with parents and we provide supplemental materials so students can fully participate in the program. Remote learning can be extremely challenging and making the process less overwhelming and the content accessible is our primary goal this year.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Why I do what I do

When I was a little girl, the kids in the neighborhood would play together all summer long. As is typical, kids like to go where parents are welcoming and toys are aplenty. For us, it was my friend Tim's house. Tim's parents were really cool. He had two cats named Hey-You and Ditto. He had a baby brother named Patrick, who we could feed and dress! Tim also had a sister named Nora, who was two years younger than we were, and had Down's Syndrome.

At that time, I didn't know many people with disabilities. Nora certainly looked different because she had the distinguishing features of a person with Down's Syndrome. But other than that, she was just part of our kids' group. We all played together on the swing-set in the backyard, inventing stories and plots that kept us greatly entertained! We had lemonade stands and ran through sprinklers. When it got dark, we played Kick the Can and Ghost in the Graveyard. On rainy days, we played house or school in the basement. Our days were full of kid-fun activities, and no one ever bothered to notice that Nora was different. Everyone was included.

When school rolled around, Nora wasn't included. She had to take a special bus to a special school while the rest of us walked together both ways to our local Catholic school, where we were taught to be kind and loving and accepting of one another. Except that wasn't what was happening to Nora. She wasn't being accepted, she was being sent off to another school. Our Catholic school had no place for Nora, or other individuals with special needs. Even as a child, I knew something wasn't right. Why was Nora, who was our friend/sister/fellow child of God NOT part of our loving, caring Catholic school that taught each one of us children how much God loves us, how important it is to love each other, how every human life is precious and deserving of respect? Through the years, I encountered this repeatedly. Families would leave Catholic schools because the needs of one of their children couldn't be met. Friendships that had formed between children and families were changed forever. The message was clear: We can't serve that child here. I couldn't understand why.

Fast forward to today. Much has changed in the world, and the way we approach teaching children with special needs is remarkably different. I have worked at several schools in my career, and I am so proud to be a part of the inclusive Catholic education and services at St. James. St. James School offers inclusive education to students with various disabilities, both visible and invisible. We serve children with Specific Learning Disabilities, Autism Spectrum Disorders, ADHD, and Cerebral Palsy, to name a few. We differentiate to meet the needs of our students and we find a way to teach and learn from each and every child. We honor God in everybody. Open Doors Ministry welcomes children with varying special needs, so they can fully participate in religious education classes with their peers. We provide mentors and materials to ensure students feel safe, confident, and encouraged. By focusing on welcoming and serving all children, everyone recognizes that we are all made in God's image, and nobody should be sent away. To this day, I think of Nora as my inspiration.

Mercy Box Program 2020

We are thrilled to announce that the St. James Annual Mercy Box program will be a part of our Christmas charities again this year. Fr. Matt has identified several inner-city parishes with families struggling to make ends meet. This year St. James will deliver "Mercy Boxes," to needy families to St. Malachy, St. Agatha, and The Kolbe House in Chicago. The spirit of Christmas is alive as these food boxes benefit a diverse group of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

HOW CAN I GET A BOX?

Mercy Boxes will be distributed after the Saturday and Sunday masses on the weekend of November 28th and 29th. The boxes come unassembled, with a list of food items needed, attached to the box. It will not be necessary to wrap the box. Filled boxes are due back to the St. James Parish Center parking lot on SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20th from 8AM-1PM.

If you are attending a virtual Mass the weekend of November 28th and 29th feel free to stop by the gathering space and pick up a box.

If you have any questions, please contact Bill Borst: bev51064@gmail.com
