A MESSAGE FROM...

Not everything is absolute, and not everything is relative. This is one of the important principles underpinning the bishops' document Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship (FCFC). If all decisions were absolute—that is, if they never depended on circumstances but were always a simple yes or no, right or wrong—then discernment would be much easier, and we wouldn't need the virtue of prudence. Prudence helps us to apply what is absolute to certain situations.

What does this mean very practically? It means that we can't declare absolutely that "No Catholic can vote for a Democrat" or "No Catholic can vote for a Republican." If we could deal in such absolute statements, FCFC probably could be pared down from 53 pages to a single page.

However, we still must take into account the absolute principles that we believe in as Catholics—those discerned over time through reason with the help of divine revelation. These principles lie at foundation of Catholic Social Teaching and include (1) the dignity of the human person from the very moment the person is conceived in the womb; (2) the common good; (3) subsidiarity; and (4) solidarity (see FCFC ##44-56).

How does it translate into voting for a candidate? Here's what the bishops say: "A Catholic cannot vote for a candidate who favors a policy promoting an intrinsically evil act...if the voter's intent is to support that position" (FCFC #34; for the bishops' definition of "intrinsically evil act," see FCFC #22). In other words, if we're deliberately voting for Candidate A because A will work for policies that promote abortion, we're cooperating with evil. Or, if we're deliberately voting for Candidate B because B deliberately uses racist rhetoric in order to divide, we're cooperating with evil.

As a corollary, we "should not use a candidate's opposition to an intrinsic evil to justify indifference or inattentiveness to other important moral issues involving human life and dignity" (FCFC #35). As an example, just because candidate C opposes assisted suicide doesn't mean that we can support C's promotion of the death penalty. Obviously we have to weigh the gravity of the issues: a candidate's position on what the federal income tax rate should be would be minor relative to his or her position on starting a war, for instance.

Okay, fine. But what about when all candidates have some policies that promote intrinsically evil acts? Then we face a dilemma that can be worked through in one of two ways. We could (1) decide not to vote for any candidate for that particular office or (2) decide to vote for the candidate "deemed less likely to advance such a morally flawed position and more likely to pursue other authentic human goods" (FCFC #36).

When discerning the best decision, we should keep in mind that we may reject a candidate's unacceptable position promoting intrinsically evil acts but still vote for that candidate for other truly grave moral reasons (FCFC #35). The important thing to consider is that we're not overlooking a big moral issue simply because it's easier to vote a "straight party ticket" or because one candidate is better looking than another or because it might mean we stand to gain more financially through the candidate's economic policies. We should, however, consider a candidate's "commitments, character, integrity, and ability to influence a given issue" as well as his or her "integrity, philosophy, and performance" (FCFC #37, #41).

To summarize: certain principles are absolute, but how they are implemented—at least through voting—is often not absolute but requires prudential judgment. The heart of a healthy decision-making process in public life is Catholic Social Teaching. In the next issue, we'll begin to dig into some Catholic Social Teaching so that we can better form our consciences and prepare ourselves to make decisions on our ballots and in our lives.

St. James Ministers of Care
Training Event
Wednesday, October 21 at 1:00pm
Laramie Room

Join us on October 21st at 1:00pm in the Laramie Room for our annual Ministers of Care training event. We welcome those who want to begin or complete their St. James Minister of Care training. The Archdiocese asks that all Ministers of Care stay updated on new protocols, so we ask all of our current Ministers of Care attend.

St. James Ministers of Care are available to bring the Holy Eucharist, pray, and to visit with parishioners who are sick, injured, or unable to leave their homes. These visits are a wonderful opportunity for those unable to attend Mass to share in the Eucharist and to stay connected with their St. James family. Home, hospital, and care facility visitation is offered. This will be a condensed course that will touch on all of the topics needed for you to serve as a Minister of Care once these residences are re-opened. This abbreviated program will also be live-streamed and later posted on the St. James website.

Contact our Director of Liturgy, Tam Conseur, with questions and to sign up for the training. Once facilities are to re-open, there will be a need for more ministers. We hope you will consider preparing to be a part of this beautiful ministry.

For the fifth year, St James is participating in the CHASE THE CHILL program to provide hand-made scarves

Annual Mass Supporting People with Mental Illnesses, Families, Friends, and Mental Healthcare Providers

On October 25th, 2:00 pm, the Archdiocese will once again host The Annual Mass for Mental Illness Awareness. In these unprecedented times, mental health is in the forefront of our concerns. We know our faith is a key part of our being well. Whether you, a family member, or a friend are experiencing mental health conditions for the first time or for a long time, the annual mass is a time for all to pray together and share our similar journeys.

This year will be different but still with the same purpose of caring for and supporting one another. On Zoom, there will be opening comments from Cardinal Cupich, we will celebrate mass, and then have an opportunity for casual conversations.

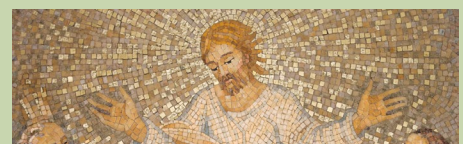

Please register in advance by using the following Zoom link and we will send you the "log on" link to the mass:

OCTOBER IS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

The Power & Control Wheel is based on interviews with abused women about life with a male batterer, though we know that men, too, suffer intimate partner abuse. The wheel serves to demonstrate that domestic violence is more than visible cuts and bruises. Abusers use physical and sexual violence or threats of such to establish control, but the “tactics” reinforce and maintain it, achieving his end – dominance. Eroding her self-esteem, controlling her finances, isolating her from others, undermining her authority and/ or threatening with a look or gesture, ensure compliance. He gets his way. She submits or bears the brunt.

Everyone deserves to be in a safe, healthy relationship. If you or someone you know may be in an abusive relationship, a path to safety exists.

JUBILATION

* Silent Auction Alert | Featured Item *

St. James Jubilation HOUSE PARTY is looking for that special person wanting to add music to their home, school, or lobby! The church Steinway, built circa 1915, will be sold to our highest bidder on November 7th! The 7' grand piano is in excellent condition, just needs a new home.

Interested parties can make an appointment with Julie Cohen (jcohen@stjamesah.org) for a “test-drive” and “a look under the hood” between now and November 6th.

JUBILATION FAQs

Q: Who Can Host a Jubilation House Party?

A: We encourage anyone comfortable having a party, therefore, having people inside your home on Saturday night November 7th, to consider hosting. We foresee wonderful gatherings of ministry friends, class reunions, book clubs, or family/friend celebrations such as a birthday, retirement, or anniversary. You can theme your party however you want. We are excited to see the creativity!

Q: How many guests does a Jubilation House Party host invite?

A: We are basing parties on groups of 10. But, you can have more people or fewer people—whatever your comfort level. For each 10 people you host, Jubilation will provide a $250 gift card to offset party expenses and two Raffle tickets for a chance at three fabulous prizes! (Hint: iPhone!)

Q: As a host or a party guest, how are tickets purchased?

A: Hosts and guests purchase tickets via the online invitation that will be emailed on September 9th. Hosts can opt to pay for their guests (10-pack=$1000), or each guest buys their own ticket at $100 each. Each registered guest (whether the host buys or the guest buys) will have access to the silent auction website to view/bid on items. Email and phone numbers will be required at the time of purchase to enable this.

Q: What if I am unable or uncomfortable attending a house party? Can I still participate?

A: Definitely. These are uncertain times, and for some people we understand that staying home is a great option. Anyone can purchase a $100 ticket to participate in the silent auction and Fr. Matt's 8:30 pm ZOOM call regardless of where you are the night of November 7th.

Q: If I am new to Jubilation or do not know anyone hosting, how can I attend a house party?

A: All are welcome at Jubilation! Just let us know and we will arrange a location for you.

Q: I know that I want to host! What do I do now?

A: Wonderful and thank you! Think about your party, pick a theme, and talk to people you want to invite. Let them know the date and intent of this fundraiser. Advise that the ticket price is $100 OR if you plan to purchase their ticket. If you intend to purchase their ticket, gather their cell number and email address for registration time. If they buy their own ticket, a space will be available at the time of registration to put HOST name.

Q: Anything special a host needs to do at or for their party?

A: Yes! Hosts should have support for this fundraising effort and encourage silent auction bidding by their guests throughout the evening. Make it fun! Hosts can remind guests that all proceeds go to charities and to St. James' ministries. Hosts will need to remember the important ZOOM CALL at 8:30 pm for Fr. Matt's welcome, blessing, thanks, and reminder for cash donations toward the traditional paddle raises. The two traditional paddle raises are (by way of electronic donations) for St. James Tuition Assistance (school and religious education tuition support) and PADS/St. Vincent dePaul (suburban homeless/emergency aid).
