| TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Dear St. James Parishioners,

St. James has been a source of faith and hope for me over the past seven years. My heart and soul have been inspired by your support. As you may know, Chicago priests can partake in sabbaticals every seven years. After thirty-one years of priestly service, I will be taking my first sabbatical to pray, study, and renew my priesthood.

My initial plan was to go on sabbatical at the end of June 2021. However, I have been granted a six-month sabbatical by Cardinal Cupich beginning January 1, 2021. By taking my sabbatical in January of 2021, I will be eligible to be assigned as a pastor again in July of 2021.

Fr. Ryan McMillin has been appointed by Cardinal Cupich as Administrator of St. James effective January 1, 2021 through June 30, 2021. The process to discern a new Pastor for St. James should begin in early 2021. The Archdiocese of Chicago Priest Personnel Board will appoint Pastors to begin their term of service on July 1, 2021.

I have been tremendously blessed to be your Pastor and Servant since August of 2013. I am so very grateful for the fellow priests, deacons, staff members, and devoted parishioners that I have had the honor to serve with at St. James.

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt Foley

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP WITH FR. RYAN

Dear Faithful Citizens,

We've entered the final quarter of 2020, which means we're quickly approaching Election Day on November 3. As the election draws near and campaign ads come to flood our media, I thought it would be helpful to run a series of bulletin articles discussing how the church helps us to discern our participation in public life, especially through exercising our right to vote. I can't claim that what I present here is terribly original. In fact, it's more of a summary of what the U.S. Bishops have written in various documents, chief among which is Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. If you'd rather read that and skip these bulletin articles, I promise that you won't be hurting my feelings.

Some may ask whether voting in this election is worth our time. For instance, many find that no one presidential candidate perfectly aligns with Catholic principles, and so it may seem as if we're stuck and should avoid any difficult decisions. This is a bad strategy for two reasons. First, we don't want to reduce Election Day to voting for one office since our ballots include races for federal, state, and local offices.

Second, the church teaches that participation in political life is a moral obligation for a Catholic, not just something to be assigned to a select few or something to be exercised casually (FCFC #13). Why? Every Catholic participates in the royal office of Christ (who was priest, prophet, and king). When it comes to public life, even if we are not the governor or president, we still have a duty to make decisions that are informed by our Catholic faith, and voting is one way to make those decisions. More information on how to register to vote can be found here.

Now if it's our politics that's informing our faith and not the other way around, then we've got things backwards (FCFC #41) and we should be open to letting ourselves be re-formed. We are Christians with a royal office, not royal officeholders with a tiny Christian garnish that we display when convenient.

The bishops are exceptionally clear that the point of discussing Catholic teaching in the context of the election is not to make decisions for others (a common misconception) but to help form people's consciences for their own good decision-making. Forming one's conscience is an imperative for anyone desiring to grow more into the image and likeness of God (hopefully everybody!). And, particularly challenging for anyone too influenced by a culture of individualism (hopefully not everybody!), conscience formation is not just an individual endeavor; it requires a dialogue with scripture and tradition—and even church leaders, family, the community, and people of different opinions. Probably most difficult of all, it requires a sense of honest and humble detachment, an openness to the possibility that we might not be fully in the right or that our party affiliation may be an obstacle to making the best decision possible (FCFC #14).

Stay tuned for more!

Fr. Ryan

Seeking to overcome the obstacles of ignorance and the fear of discussing race, the question that animates Massingale's analysis is "How can we struggle together against an evil that harms us all, though in different ways?"

OCTOBER IS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

Domestic Violence Awareness Month has been a national observance since October 1987. It serves to bring together advocates working to end abuse, to remember the deceased, and to honor survivors.

Each year nearly four million U.S. women and men suffer physical violence at the hands of an intimate partner. Regardless of education, religion, race, gender, orientation, physical stature, age, social, marital, or employment status, domestic violence plays no favorites. Unfortunately, women and members of certain minority groups endure it in greater numbers.

Over the next month, Stepping Stones will feature articles describing an abuser's methods of control, patterns in abusive relationships, and ways clergy, staff and parishioners alike should respond to victims. May our education efforts lead you to action and effect needed change.

JUBILATION FAQs

Q: Who Can Host a Jubilation House Party?

A: We encourage anyone comfortable having a party, therefore, having people inside your home on Saturday night November 7th, to consider hosting. We foresee wonderful gatherings of ministry friends, class reunions, book clubs, or family/friend celebrations such as a birthday, retirement, or anniversary. You can theme your party however you want. We are excited to see the creativity!

Q: How many guests does a Jubilation House Party host invite?

A: We are basing parties on groups of 10. But, you can have more people or fewer people—whatever your comfort level. For each 10 people you host, Jubilation will provide a $250 gift card to offset party expenses and two Raffle tickets for a chance at three fabulous prizes! (Hint: iPhone!)

Q: As a host or a party guest, how are tickets purchased?

A: Hosts and guests purchase tickets via the online invitation that will be emailed on September 9th. Hosts can opt to pay for their guests (10-pack=$1000), or each guest buys their own ticket at $100 each. Each registered guest (whether the host buys or the guest buys) will have access to the silent auction website to view/bid on items. Email and phone numbers will be required at the time of purchase to enable this.

Q: What if I am unable or uncomfortable attending a house party? Can I still participate?

A: Definitely. These are uncertain times, and for some people we understand that staying home is a great option. Anyone can purchase a $100 ticket to participate in the silent auction and Fr. Matt's 8:30 pm ZOOM call regardless of where you are the night of November 7th.

Q: If I am new to Jubilation or do not know anyone hosting, how can I attend a house party?

A: All are welcome at Jubilation! Just let us know and we will arrange a location for you.

Q: I know that I want to host! What do I do now?

A: Wonderful and thank you! Think about your party, pick a theme, and talk to people you want to invite. Let them know the date and intent of this fundraiser. Advise that the ticket price is $100 OR if you plan to purchase their ticket. If you intend to purchase their ticket, gather their cell number and email address for registration time. If they buy their own ticket, a space will be available at the time of registration to put HOST name.

Q: Anything special a host needs to do at or for their party?

A: Yes! Hosts should have support for this fundraising effort and encourage silent auction bidding by their guests throughout the evening. Make it fun! Hosts can remind guests that all proceeds go to charities and to St. James' ministries. Hosts will need to remember the important ZOOM CALL at 8:30 pm for Fr. Matt's welcome, blessing, thanks, and reminder for cash donations toward the traditional paddle raises. The two traditional paddle raises are (by way of electronic donations) for St. James Tuition Assistance (school and religious education tuition support) and PADS/St. Vincent dePaul (suburban homeless/emergency aid).
