| TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME |

A MESSAGE FROM...

Every Sunday at Mass we profess these words of the Nicene Creed: “I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.” What exactly are we speaking of when we say “invisible creation”? Sadly, one of often overlooked teachings of our faith - maybe because of their invisibility - is our understanding of angels.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church has a small but substantial teaching on angels (numbers 325-354). In Sacred Scripture, we find numerous references to angelic missions. Exodus 23:20 tells us, “Behold, I send an angel before you, to guard you on your way and to bring you to the place which I have prepared.” Later, the angel Raphael brings healing to Tobit. Michael wages war on our ancient adversary in the book of Revelation. And, possibly the most famous angelic interaction is captured on a window in our very own Church, the Annunciation from Luke chapter 1, “The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph; and the virgin’s name was Mary.” I bet you know how the rest of the story goes!

In both the Old and New Testament, we see angels singing, wrestling, freeing and guarding the people of God. “No evil shall befall you, no scourge will come near your tent. For he will give his angels charge of you to guard you in all your ways” (Ps 91). It would be a great mistake to overlook the importance of angels in our world and guardian angels in our own lives!

Grow familiar with and develop a relationship with your guardian angel. God has placed an angel beside every human being to help us along the road of life. Your guardian angel is a great intercessor for all your material and spiritual needs. Some of the greatest saints in the Church – St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Teresa of Avila, St. Padre Pio, St. Josemaria Escriva, and many more - have had great relationships with their guardian angels.

Our guardian angel accompanies us throughout our earthly life and welcomes us into eternal life. In your work or in your home, acknowledge your guardian angel. Invite your guardian angel into moments of joy or struggle. As Christians, we never have to be alone. We are always accompanied by the grace of God, the help of our Good Mother - the blessed Virgin Mary, and our holy Guardian Angel.

September 29 is the Feast of the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. Just a few days later, on October 2 we celebrate the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels. Now is a great time to prayerfully foster a better relationship with our friend and constant companion, our Holy Guardian Angel.

CALLING ALL ST. JAMES KNITTERS AND CROCHETERS!

Please help us keep the homeless PADS guests and other homeless warmer this winter, by creating a warm winter scarf. Got some yarn in your stash that might work? Any pattern of about 6 inches wide by at least 60 inches long will be greatly appreciated. For the fifth year, we are participating in the CHASE THE CHILL program to provide hand-made scarves for those in need during our harsh winter.

On the weekend of November 21-22 you are invited bring your clean scarf in a zip lock bag to the designated receptacle outside the parish office door. Homeless PADS guests will then select their scarf on 11/25, the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. For more info or a pattern, please check out www.chasethechill.com or connect with Kathy at kk_ek@msn.com or at 847-255-8899. Thank YOU!

Those hours are:

Thank you for your patience over the summer!

JUBILATION FAQs

Q: Who Can Host a Jubilation House Party?

A: We encourage anyone comfortable having a party, therefore, having people inside your home on Saturday night November 7th, to consider hosting. We foresee wonderful gatherings of ministry friends, class reunions, book clubs, or family/friend celebrations such as a birthday, retirement, or anniversary. You can theme your party however you want. We are excited to see the creativity!

Q: How many guests does a Jubilation House Party host invite?

A: We are basing parties on groups of 10. But, you can have more people or fewer people—whatever your comfort level. For each 10 people you host, Jubilation will provide a $250 gift card to offset party expenses and two Raffle tickets for a chance at three fabulous prizes! (Hint: iPhone!)

Q: As a host or a party guest, how are tickets purchased?

A: Hosts and guests purchase tickets via the online invitation that will be emailed on September 9th. Hosts can opt to pay for their guests (10-pack=$1000), or each guest buys their own ticket at $100 each. Each registered guest (whether the host buys or the guest buys) will have access to the silent auction website to view/bid on items. Email and phone numbers will be required at the time of purchase to enable this.

Q: What if I am unable or uncomfortable attending a house party? Can I still participate?

A: Definitely. These are uncertain times, and for some people we understand that staying home is a great option. Anyone can purchase a $100 ticket to participate in the silent auction and Fr. Matt's 8:30 pm ZOOM call regardless of where you are the night of November 7th.

Q: If I am new to Jubilation or do not know anyone hosting, how can I attend a house party?

A: All are welcome at Jubilation! Just let us know and we will arrange a location for you.

Q: I know that I want to host! What do I do now?

A: Wonderful and thank you! Think about your party, pick a theme, and talk to people you want to invite. Let them know the date and intent of this fundraiser. Advise that the ticket price is $100 OR if you plan to purchase their ticket. If you intend to purchase their ticket, gather their cell number and email address for registration time. If they buy their own ticket, a space will be available at the time of registration to put HOST name.

Q: Anything special a host needs to do at or for their party?

A: Yes! Hosts should have support for this fundraising effort and encourage silent auction bidding by their guests throughout the evening. Make it fun! Hosts can remind guests that all proceeds go to charities and to St. James' ministries. Hosts will need to remember the important ZOOM CALL at 8:30 pm for Fr. Matt's welcome, blessing, thanks, and reminder for cash donations toward the traditional paddle raises. The two traditional paddle raises are (by way of electronic donations) for St. James Tuition Assistance (school and religious education tuition support) and PADS/St. Vincent dePaul (suburban homeless/emergency aid).
