A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

The Israelites show their faith by offering the LORD first fruits of the products of their new land.

(Deuteronomy 26:4-10)

Psalm

Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

(Psalm 91)

Second Reading

All who express faith in the risen Christ and confess that he is Lord will be saved.

(Romans 10:8-13)

Gospel

Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and was tempted.

(Luke 4:1-13)

"The sacrament of Reconciliation is a powerful way to receive God's forgiveness and to be restored to right relationship with Him."

Dear Friends,

The temptation of Jesus in the desert is always read during Lent. In this time of trial in the life of Jesus, his very identity is called into question by Satan. "If you are the Son of God..." is repeated by the Enemy, as he attempts to sow doubt in the mind of Jesus about his real identity and his real mission.

This event happens immediately after the Baptism of Jesus, where his sonship is affirmed. "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." Jesus does not surrender to the temptations of Satan. He retains his confidence in his true identity - the beloved Son of the Father.

Through our own Baptism, we share in this noble identity. We are sons and daughters of the Father. He created us and redeemed us through Jesus. This season of Lent is a grace-filled time in which we are given the opportunity to renew our relationship with the loving Father.

Traditionally, we fast, pray, and give to the poor (almsgiving) during Lent. I ask you to take advantage of the opportunities offered at St. James. They are listed on the facing page.

In particular, I invite you to receive the Sacrament of Penance or Reconciliation before Easter. It is a powerful way to receive God's forgiveness and to be restored to right relationship (righteousness) with Him.

You might also consider weekday Mass. We offer a noon Mass every day during Lent, along with our 7:30 am Mass.

May this Lent be a time of spiritual renewal for you.

~ Fr. Ed

GIVING LIGHT TO THE DARKNESS

A PANEL DISCUSSION ON DEPRESSION

A reflection...

As someone who has significant life experience with depression, I was grateful and excited that over 100 people attended "The Depression Panel," at St. James, either on Zoom or in person!

From causes to treatment, to spirituality and self-care, to someone sharing their own personal walk with depression, good basic information was had by all. And depression is not something with which we have to live. There is hope and treatment.

With that thought, I would like to encourage anyone who might have said, "that sounds like me," or had similar thoughts, to reach out for assistance.

There is life after depression. I AM CERTAIN.

Blessings,

Jan

RCIA

(Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

This year St. James has five candidates for initiation into the Catholic Church. Please pray for these people that God will guide them ever closer to his Son as they prepare for the Easter Vigil.

My name is Rachel Baker. I grew up in central Illinois attending services at the Methodist church every Sunday. When my family moved to Washington state I stopped attending church regularly. Throughout my years in the Northwest, I attempted to find a church where I felt welcome, although never found a church where I felt “at home.”

Five years ago I moved back to Illinois, now in Arlington Heights, and I started to reconnect with my faith and my relationship with God. I attempted to build that relationship outside of a church as best I could, until I met my now fiancé who introduced me to the Catholic Church. My fiancé's family and the members of St. James have made me feel so welcome, it was an easy decision to start RCIA classes. The members helping us through RCIA have done such an amazing job welcoming and educating the students about the Catholic faith, and preparing us to live a life closer to God. My fiancé and I are so excited to be married at St. James and to see our future children baptized and raised within the church.
