A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

God's people enter the promised land, observe the Passover, and eat of the produce of the land (Joshua 5:9a, 10-12) or 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a.

Psalm

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34) or Psalm 23.

Second Reading

We are now ambassadors for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17-21) or Ephesians 5:8-14.

Gospel

We must rejoice when our brother who was dead in sin repents and comes back to life (Luke 15:1-3, 11-32) or John 9:1-41 [1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38].

Dear Friends,

I composed this prayer for St. James Parish. I have asked the members of the Parish Council to pray it every day. Would you consider praying it as well. We are not alone in the work we are doing here. God must be a part of it if we are to bear fruit.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Loving Father, the church is the beloved bride of your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. We look to you to lead your people. We ask that your word be clearly and faithfully proclaimed in your church and that, through it, we will be challenged, encouraged and changed.

We pray that our leaders be protected from temptation, complacency and discouragement, and filled with the joy that only comes from you. Give them the grace to be your faithful disciples. We ask that your church be filled with joy as we sing your praises as we gather together.

We ask for the intercession of our patron, St. James, and our mother Mary.

We pray for all the members of the Body of Christ at St. James Parish. We ask your healing and consolation for the sick and comfort for the grieving and the lonely. We ask your assistance for the poor, work for the unemployed, and welcome to the stranger. We ask for clarity as we discern how to best serve you. Give us all a spirit of generosity in responding to you in the vocations you have given us.

May our celebration of the Eucharist be a true participation in the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Fill our prayers with confidence in your mighty power and fill your people with your Holy Spirit. We ask for the intercession of our patron, St. James, and our mother Mary.

Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

ST. JAMES PARISH
RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

St. James' Religious Education's Family Faith Night was Tuesday, March 15. Our students and their families prepared for the season with traditional devotion of the fourteen Stations of the Cross.

With the help of our dedicated catechists, parish staff and volunteers, the children prayed at each station and reflected on each station.

Sensory elements enhanced the activity. For example, students touched the crown of thorns at Station One, smelled the oils that were used for Jesus' burial at Station Thirteen and picked up the cloth that Veronica used to wipe the face of Jesus at Station Six. These actions helped remind them of our Lord's journey to the Cross.

Thanks to all our families for coming out and to all the volunteers who helped make this possible.

RCIA

(Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Hello, my name is Sara Schwab. I grew up in Southern California and, although I have always believed in God, I was raised in a non-religious household. My parents came from very different backgrounds, with my mother being raised Catholic and my father Jewish. We only attended holiday services at nondenominational churches, and I would always leave inspired but also searching for something more.

As a young adult, that curiosity was still there, and I began attending a nondenominational church more regularly and knew I wanted to be baptized. After moving to Wisconsin to pursue my degree in Food Science at UW-Madison, I met my amazing husband, Josh. Josh was raised in the Catholic church, so we tried various churches in an attempt to find something we both enjoyed.

When we moved to Arlington Heights, I was apprehensive about going to a Catholic Church, as they had always intimidated me. However, I was again curious to see what my husband had experienced growing up. And so we started attending St. James.

As I began to learn the traditions of Mass, I began to feel more comfortable and appreciate how truly beautiful they are. That curiosity continued to grow, and I inquired about RCIA. This experience has meant more to me than I could have imagined. I am so thankful for this process and those who have helped me grow my relationship with God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.

Upcoming Parish Events & Volunteer Opportunities

A Journey With Cancer

Friday, April 8 at 7:00 pm

Finding strength and hope through the way of the cross: a journey with cancer

This contemporary version of the Stations of the Cross weaves together Jesus’ journey to the Crucifixion and the experiences of those diagnosed with cancer and their loved ones.

In this evening of powerful stories, music and prayer, we see Jesus, not as a victim, but as a symbol of strength. Through his journey to the cross, Jesus teaches us how to be strong.

These stations were written by a cancer survivor and is presented by several members of the St. James community.
