ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Alleluia, Alleluia!

At the Easter Vigil on Saturday, April 16, St. James welcomed eight people into the Catholic Church. They are: Bill Brennan, Rachel Drasler, Garrett Knox, Yasmin Mendez, Isabella Ortiz, Zaylie Ortiz, Dawn Pfister-Williams and Sara Schwab. May they continue to feel God's presence and experience his grace throughout the Easter season and beyond. (Photos by Diane Adam)

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER; DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

The apostles perform many signs and wonders among the people. Many are added to their numbers (Acts 5:12-16).

Psalm

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

Second Reading

John, caught up in the spirit, envisions the glorified Lord, the first and the last, the one who lives (Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19).

Gospel

The risen Christ comes to his disciples with peace and the Spirit. The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

Reflection question:
How can I come to grasp more fully the meaning of my baptism?

Dear Friends,

Christ is risen! Alleluia!

Last week was an incredibly beautiful and joyful celebration of our faith. Seeing the packed church was an especially powerful gift. Other priests have told me that they, too, were joyfully overwhelmed by the huge numbers of people who returned to church after the sad shutdown of our churches over the past couple of years.

Thank you to all who worked so lovingly to make our Holy Week and Easter liturgies so beautiful: our musicians and choirs led by Tam Conseur, our sacristans and liturgical environment people, lectors, greeters and ushers, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion.

Thank you, maintenance staff, office staff, altar servers and MCs, Father Ryan and Father Bill.

A particular thanks to those who walked with our catechumens and candidates through the past few months as they prepared for the Easter sacraments and reception into the Catholic Church.

To Dave Chaplin, John Todesco, Jim Hamman, Deacon Johnny and Susan Burnett, and seminarian Dylan Crawley - thank you all for your dedication to the RCIA program.

God has been so good to us. We ask His continued blessings as we celebrate today's Feast of Divine Mercy.

God bless you,
Fr. Ed

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Update from PADS Public Action to Deliver Shelter

Thank you to everyone who made the last two years of PADS outreach possible while our church was unable to open as a shelter site. The many meals, delicious desserts, amazing handmade hats, scarves and mittens, generous lunches prepared by Saint James School families, and of course the monetary donations have brought comfort and peace of mind to those in our community who face housing insecurity and hunger.

Thank you to those who delivered food to local hotels, whether it was restaurant meals in the early days of the pandemic, or meals prepared by the St. James community since June, 2020.

Thanks to all who came each week to pick up compostable food containers and fill them with nourishing food. We distributed meals to both those staying in the hotels as well as to those who chose not to seek shelter opportunities but still needed a healthy meal. Together we were able to serve thousands of meals and still remain good stewards of the thoughtful and generous donations.

As PADS prepares to reopen for shelter here at St. James in October, please consider volunteering for the ministry. You could serve as a shift worker, join a food team, make lunches, set up the site, organize donations or converse with the guests calling St James their home for the evening.

St. James Church shelter site will be open from 5:00 pm each Wednesday evening to 7:00 am Thursday mornings. More information will be coming soon.

Please contact st.james.pads@gmail.com to volunteer.

God bless you for your steadfast care of the community we serve.

SCHOOL AND MINISTRY UPDATES

Educating PreK-8th Grade #FindAWay

Come experience how St. James School implements a strong math curriculum that pushes the students to articulate mathematical reasoning in addition to solving problems. Our student's math journey starts in PreK with number recognition and counting and finishes in 8th grade with our highest-level students receiving Algebra II concepts. Starting in 4th grade students begin being placed in flexible ability groups that differentiates the content, so students are being challenged and supported at their current ability level. Each school year we have a large number of students who place into the highest tracks of high school math at both private and public schools.

THE CHALLENGE FOR MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Pope Francis challenges us all to pattern our lives after Jesus and go out into the world as witnesses of what such a life can accomplish for the good of all. This presentation will examine what 'missionary disciples' might mean for women.

Our presenter, Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA, is Carroll Stuhlmueller, CP, Distinguished Professor Emerita of Biblical Studies at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago.
