THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Jesus tells the disciples that they will be witnesses to the ends of the earth.

(Acts 1:1-11)

Psalm

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

(Psalm 47)

Second Reading

Jesus has completed his mission, and we have hope.

(Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23.)

Gospel

As Jesus blessed his disciples he parted from them and was taken up to heaven.

(Luke 24:46-53)

"Jesus has accomplished salvation for all who willingly receive it."

Therefore, brothers and sisters, since through the blood of Jesus we have confidence of entrance into the sanctuary by the new and living way he opened for us through the veil, that is, his flesh, and since we have, "a great priest over the house of God," let us approach with a sincere heart and in absolute trust, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water.

~ Hebrews 10:19-22

Dear Friends,

Jesus has completed his mission. His death, Resurrection, and Ascension have accomplished salvation for all who willingly receive it. A couple of decades ago, the phrase "what would Jesus do?" became very popular. It was shortened to "WWJD?" and could be found on bumper stickers and t-shirts.

I heard a homily given by a priest friend of mine who said the question we should be asking is not "what would Jesus do," but "what did Jesus do?" Jesus continues to carry out this work today through the ministry of the Church.

Before He left us, Jesus gave the Great Commission to His Apostles, a scene which is pictured in the stained-glass window on the south wall of our church.

Jesus said, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age (Matthew 28:19-20)."

The word "Mass" comes from the Latin dismissal at the end of Mass: "Ite, missa est," that is, "Go, you are sent." Sent out on mission to proclaim what Jesus has done.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Save the Date Father Ryan's last Mass at St. James will be on Sunday, June 26 at 11:30 am. All are invited to enjoy a reception afterwards in the school parking lot. More details to come.

St. James

Mercy Box Ministry

Help Us Expand Our Reach This Summer

As the need to help people put food on their tables increases, we are expanding the Mercy Box program to help fill that need.

The St. James Mercy Box program will add a "June Edition" to its ministry, with a slight twist. We will still collect Mercy boxes, similar to what we do in December. Rather than delivering the boxes to identified parishes, however, we will distribute them from the St. James Parish parking lot via a "drive-thru" process.

I Want to Fill a Box:

Please receive an unassembled box, complete with a list of needed food items, after all Masses on the weekend of June 4 and 5. Filled boxes are due back to St. James on Sunday, June 12 from 8:00 am -12 Noon. Return boxes to the Parish Center parking lot (West side of the street).

St. James Volunteers will distribute filled Mercy boxes on the morning of Saturday, June 18. To assist, use the SignUp Genius links below.

I Want to Volunteer:
