PENTECOST SUNDAY

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth
(Psalm 104).

Second Reading

Paul describes the gifts of the Spirit and life in the Spirit
(1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17).

Gospel

Jesus tells the Apostles of love and the Holy Spirit
(John 14:15-16, 23b-26).

"How can we make sense of tragedy? We know that death is not the end."

Dear Friends,

As a nation, we have been hit hard with the tragic massacre of innocent young people and their teachers in Uvalde, Texas. What a tremendous loss of beautiful life at the hand of a deeply disturbed boy. How can we possibly make sense of this?

In the world's terms, it cannot make sense. In our Christian view of life and death, however, there is at least some comfort. Where was Jesus when this tragedy was unfolding? Was he standing and watching, not intervening? Did he care?

I suggest we look at the Cross. Where was Jesus? He was dying with those children and their teachers. He is weeping with their parents and families, and we know that their death is not the end.

Ellie Garcia, a 9-year-old victim of the shooting, had posted a video online days before she died. In the video she said, "when we die, we will be with Christ." Some would scoff at this, accusing us Christians of believing in, "pie in the sky when we die." But we know that this is true. Jesus walked our walk, lived our life, died our death, was raised from the dead, and offers new and eternal life to those who believe in Him.

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to the Church on that first Pentecost to empower the Apostles and all the baptized to bring this Good News to all the world. This is the Good News which can bring comfort to the sorrowing and hope to those who despair.

Paul Claudel, a French poet and dramatist, once wrote, "Jesus did not come to explain away suffering or remove it. He came to fill it with His Presence."

I pray that the Holy Spirit, poured out upon those first disciples, will pour out His power upon us as well, so that we will know that Presence.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Mercy Box Ministry

Help Us Expand Our Reach This Summer

As the need to help people put food on their tables increases, we are expanding the Mercy Box program to help fill that need.

The St. James Mercy Box program will add a "June Edition" to its ministry, with a slight twist. We will still collect Mercy boxes, similar to what we do in December. Rather than delivering the boxes to identified parishes, however, we will distribute them from the St. James Parish parking lot via a "drive-thru" process.

I Want to Fill a Box:

In the Gathering Space you can pick up an unassembled box, complete with a list of needed food items, after all Masses on the weekend of June 4 and 5. Filled boxes are due back to St. James on Sunday, June 12 from 8:00 am -12 Noon. Return boxes to the Parish Center parking lot (West side of the street).

St. James Volunteers will distribute filled Mercy boxes on the morning of Saturday, June 18. To assist, use the SignUp Genius links below.

I Want to Volunteer:

Please email Bill at Bev51064@gmail.com.

Volunteer Opportunity: Media Assistants

We are looking for committed volunteers to help out on weekends this summer as Liturgical Media Assistants.

Assistants will run the lyrics slideshows on Saturdays and Sundays which help people participate during Mass.

Those middle-school age and older are encouraged to apply. This is an opportunity to earn service hours.

Please sign up on this form:

Or contact Tamaron Conseur at tconseur@stjamesah.org for more information.

Fr. Ryan's Final Mass and Reception

Immediately following Fr. Ryan's final 11:30 am Mass, all parishioners are invited to join him in the school parking lot to bid him farewell.

There will be live music, surprise entertainment, games for the kids, light lunch items, and assorted goodies for all. Please bring your own chairs and BYOB. There will be a limited area to sit under a tent. In the event of inclement weather, we will move into the Parish Center.
