

SAINT JAMES PARISH

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

There is nothing wimpy or namby-pamby or blind about this conviction. When we love extravagantly, we are not purposely blinding ourselves to moral realities—just the contrary. Love is not a sentiment, but “a harsh and dreadful thing,” as Dostoevsky said. This is just what Jesus shows on his terrible cross. And this is just what we, his followers, must imitate. Taking up the cross means not just being willing to suffer but being willing to suffer as he did, absorbing violence and hatred through our forgiveness and nonviolence.

*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Abraham bargains with God to spare the city.
(Genesis 18:20-32).

Psalm

Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.
(Psalm 138)

Second Reading

Buried with Christ in baptism, we were also raised with him; all our transgressions are forgiven.
(Colossians 2:12-14).

Gospel

Jesus speaks of God's sure response to those who pray.
(Luke 11:1-13)

"In confidence we ask, knowing that we will receive, that He will bring to completion what He has done for us."

Though we be "but dust and ashes," we can presume to draw near and speak boldly to our Lord, as Abraham dares to do in this week's First Reading.

But even Abraham—the friend of God (see Isaiah 41:8), our father in the faith (see Romans 4:12)—did not know the intimacy that we know as children of Abraham, heirs of the blessings promised to his descendants (see Galatians 3:7, 29).

The mystery of prayer, as Jesus reveals to His disciples in this week's Gospel, is the living relationship of beloved sons and daughters with their heavenly Father. Our prayer is pure gift, made possible by the "good gift" of the Father—the Holy Spirit of His Son. It is the fruit of the New Covenant by which we are made children of God in Christ Jesus (see Galatians 4:6–7; Romans 8:15–16).

Through the Spirit given to us in Baptism, we can cry to Him as our Father—knowing that when we call He will answer.

Jesus teaches His disciples to persist in their prayer, as Abraham persisted in begging God's mercy for the innocent of Sodom and Gomorrah.

For the sake of the one just Man, Jesus, God spared the city of man from destruction (see Jeremiah 5:1; Isaiah 53), "obliterating the bond against us," as Paul says in this week's Epistle.

On the Cross, Jesus bore the guilt of us all. He canceled the debt we owed to God, the death we deserved to die for our transgressions. We pray as ones who have been visited in our affliction and saved from our enemies, as ones who have been spared.

We pray always a prayer of thanksgiving, which is the literal meaning of "Eucharist." We have realized the promise of this week's Psalm: we worship in His holy temple, in the presence of angels, hallowing His name.

In confidence we ask, knowing that we will receive, that He will bring to completion what He has done for us—raising us from the dead, bringing us to everlasting life along with Him.

Altar Servers Wanted

If Jesus came to your house for a meal, wouldn't you want to wait on His table?

What do Servers do?

Who can join?

Students from Grade 4 through 12 who have received their first Holy Communion.

How can you join?

You can join by attending an Orientation and Training Session that will be held at St. James in the church:

Mental Health Ministry - Coping With Violence

Are you reeling from the recent events of violence? Uvalde, Highland Park and our very own Chicago. Wondering... When will it end? What can I do? Please know you are not alone. If you or a loved one need support, please check out our Mental Health Ministry Webpage.

Dear Lord,

We come to you with heavy hearts. We ask for your healing as we continue the mission for peace and an end to violence throughout our country.

As our hearts break, help us to fill the open wounds with Your love and compassion. Help us to turn to you with our pain, confusion, anger and sadness as we support one another to move forward.

May we see this as an invitation to move outward from ourselves and not inward. Show us the outward steps - even if they are baby ones - that we can take towards building communities of love and peace.

Help us to show love and compassion to those who are isolated and rejected. Help them to see that they are children of God and their lives are meaningful.

We pray for eternal rest for those who have died. We pray for the consolation of their families and friends. We pray for healing and peace in our hearts and in the world
Amen.
