A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Abraham and Sarah show hospitality to messengers of the Lord.
(Genesis 18:1-10a)

Psalm

He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.
(Psalm 15)

Second Reading

The mystery hidden from generations past has been manifested; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory.
(Colossians 1:24-28)

Gospel

Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. Mary has chosen the better part.
(Luke 10:38-42)

"Worship of the true God compels us to acts of love and justice."

Dear Friends,

Last Tuesday we held a staff planning day to look at the year ahead and talk about the mission we are engaged in as the Church. It was an invigorating day of sharing our vision and our hopes for the parish.

Several years ago, I was on a committee interviewing potential candidates for the diaconate. One of the questions asked was "what is the purpose of the Church?" Their responses varied widely; some right on target and some pretty far from it. Is there a definitive answer to this question?

Yes, there is. The mission of the Church, as we understand it, comes from the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20:

Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age."

The final words of Canon 1752 of the Code of Canon Law of the Roman Catholic Church are: "The salvation of souls, which must always be the supreme law in the Church, is to be kept before one's eyes."

Everything we do as a parish flows from these passages. Discipleship and our life lived in relationship with Jesus leads to mission and service to our neighbor. Another way of saying this is worship of the true God compels us to acts of love and justice.

I am grateful to all of our dedicated staff members who participate so wholeheartedly in the mission of Jesus.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Mental Health Ministry - Coping With Violence

Are you reeling from the recent events of violence? Uvalde, Highland Park and our very own Chicago. Wondering... When will it end? What can I do? Please know you are not alone. If you or a loved one need support, please check out our Mental Health Ministry Webpage.

Dear Lord,

We come to you with heavy hearts. We ask for your healing as we continue the mission for peace and an end to violence throughout our country.

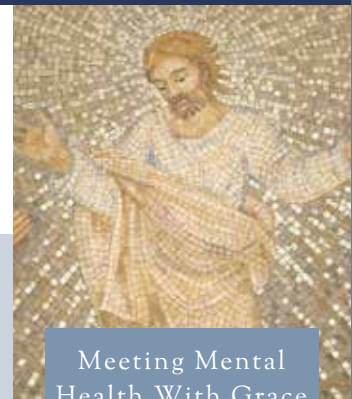

As our hearts break, help us to fill the open wounds with Your love and compassion. Help us to turn to you with our pain, confusion, anger and sadness as we support one another to move forward.

May we see this as an invitation to move outward from ourselves and not inward. Show us the outward steps - even if they are baby ones - that we can take towards building communities of love and peace.

Help us to show love and compassion to those who are isolated and rejected. Help them to see that they are children of God and their lives are meaningful.

We pray for eternal rest for those who have died. We pray for the consolation of their families and friends. We pray for healing and peace in our hearts and in the world.

Amen.

Are you a Catholic woman seeking to grow in your faith and connect with women of all ages and stages as your schedule allows?

Join the Women of St. James ministry!

Each year, WOSJ selects a 6-session bible study to unite our 300+ members in prayer and formation. This year, we'll be learning about Acts of the Apostles! Our small group study will help us discover that the greatest acts of the apostles are actually a result of the work of the Holy Spirit—the conversions of hearts and lives everywhere. No prior experience with a bible study is needed to be a part of WOSJ!

Altar Servers Wanted

If Jesus came to your house for a meal, wouldn't you want to wait on His table?

Why Serve?

To serve at the Altar is helping out a priest, your parish, and above all God! Serving allows you to play an active part in parish life. You will be giving something special to the community.

What do Servers do?

The main function of Altar Servers is to assist the Priest (and God) at the Altar. They do this in many different ways: holding the book, ringing the bells, holding an acolyte candle, carrying the cross and much more.

Who can join?

Students from Grade 4 through 12 who have received their first Holy Communion.

How can you join?

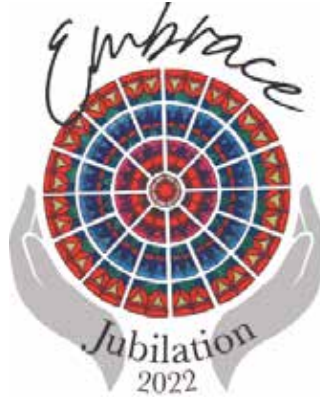

You can join by attending an Orientation and Training Session that will be held at St. James in the church:

- July 26, 4-5 pm
- July 28, 3-4 pm

You must attend one session plus fill out a commitment form and a contract.
