NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Your ancestors waited in faith and courage for God's promised summons.

(Wisdom 18:6-9)

Psalm

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

(Psalm 33)

Second Reading

Because of his faithful obedience to God's call, Abraham's descendants number as the stars.

(Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19)

Gospel

Keep watch and be prepared, for you do not know the day or the hour when the Son of Man will appear.

(Luke 12:32-48)

"We too await the final fulfillment of what God has promised us in Christ."

We are born of the faith of our fathers, descending from a great cloud of witnesses whose faith is attested to on every page of Scripture (see Hebrews 12:1). We have been made His people, chosen for His own inheritance, as we sing in this Sunday's Psalm.

The Liturgy this week sings the praises of our fathers, recalling the defining moments in our "family history." In the Epistle, we remember the calling of Abraham; in the First Reading we relive the night of the Exodus and the summons of the holy children of Israel.

Our fathers, we are told, trusted in the Word of God, put their faith in His oaths. They were convinced that what He promised, He would do.

None of them lived to see His promises made good. For it was not until Christ and His Church that Abraham's descendants were made as countless as the stars and sands (see Galatians 3:16-17, 29). It was not until His Last Supper and the Eucharist that "the sacrifice . . . the divine institution" of that first Passover was truly fulfilled.

And now we too await the final fulfillment of what God has promised us in Christ. As Jesus tells us in this week's Gospel, we should live with our loins girded—as the Israelites tightened their belts, cinched up their long robes and ate their Passover standing, vigilant and ready to do His will (see Exodus 12:11; 2 Kings 4:29).

The Lord will come at an hour we do not expect. He will knock on our door (see Revelation 3:20), inviting us to the wedding feast in the better homeland, the heavenly one that our fathers saw from afar, and which we begin to taste in each Eucharist.

As they did, we can wait with "sure knowledge," His Word like a lamp lighting our path (see Psalm 119:105). Our God is faithful, and if we wait in faith, hope in His kindness, and love as we have been loved, we will receive His promised blessing and be delivered from death.

Weekly Stewardship Recommendation:

Protect pollinators.

Bees, butterflies and other pollinators are necessary for three quarters of our major food crops. They are in serious decline due to exposure to parasites, pesticides, disease, climate change and habitat loss. Dedicate at least a small area of your garden to provide habitat for pollinators, planting native plants and using sustainable gardening practices. Halt pesticide use. Go to www.citizensforconservation.org to learn how to create a pollinator garden.

Jubilation

Saturday, November 5

We are looking forward to welcoming everyone back for our first in-person Jubilation since 2019!

Volunteers Needed

If you are interested in helping make this year's Jubilation a success, fill out the form at the link below, and select the area(s) you would like to help with.

There are a variety of opportunities leading up to the event as well as some on the day and night of Jubilation.

ST. JAMES SCHOOL

Educating PreK-8th Grade #FindAWay

Come experience how St. James School implements a strong math curriculum that pushes the students to articulate mathematical reasoning in addition to solving problems. Our student's math journey starts in PreK with number recognition and counting and finishes in 8th grade with our highest-level students receiving Algebra II concepts. Starting in 4th grade students begin being placed in flexible ability groups that differentiates the content, so students are being challenged and supported at their current ability level. Each school year we have a large number of students who place into the highest tracks of high school math at both private and public schools.

VIDEO SERIES

Join us this summer for a content series exploring our identity as sons and daughters of God, using the model of relationship, identity and mission.

We begin with our relationship with God, which tells us what our true identity is and how our mission flows from that understanding.

This model, which was revealed to us by Jesus, prepares us and sends us out on a mission.

We're looking forward to you joining us!

Are you a Catholic woman seeking to grow in your faith and connect with women of all ages and stages as your schedule allows?

Join the Women of St. James ministry!

Each year, WOSJ selects a 6-session bible study to unite our 300+ members in prayer and formation. This year, we'll be learning about Acts of the Apostles! Our small group study will help us discover that the greatest acts of the apostles are actually a result of the work of the Holy Spirit—the conversions of hearts and lives everywhere. No prior experience with a bible study is needed to be a part of WOSJ!

Jesus and the Women of the Gospel

DISCOVERING YOUR OWN
FERVENT DISCIPLESHIP

The gospel stories and parables offer us multiple proofs of Jesus' encounters with women, sometimes as petitioners, but also as disciples.

– Women of the Gospel –

In his last days, women disciples would be keeping vigil with Jesus throughout his suffering on the cross, accompanying his body for burial and witnessing his resurrection. In this presentation, we will probe some examples of these encounters and what they mean to us personally.

Sr. Wendy Cotter, CSJ, PhD, a Sister of St. Joseph, was a professor of the New Testament at Loyola University. Now retired, she is involved in social justice work with the Jane Addams Senior Caucus. Sister Wendy served abroad in Peru for four years, has written articles and scholarly papers and has published two books. She has been invited to offer scripture workshops, parish missions and retreats, which she regards as a special grace in her life.
