*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Because Moses interceded, the LORD relented and did not punish the people.

(Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14)

Psalm

I will rise and go to my father.

(Psalm 51)

Second Reading

Paul expresses his gratitude for being appointed to the ministry.

(1 Timothy 1:12-17)

Gospel

There is great rejoicing in heaven when a sinner repents.

(Luke 15:1-32 [1-10])

"The Father never gives up on us, but waits for us patiently."

"What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?"

~ Luke 15:2

The obvious answer to this question that Jesus poses to his disciples is that no one would do this. No sensible shepherd would risk losing 99% of his flock to save one lost sheep. He would consider it a loss and take care of the flock.

This is a rhetorical question, challenging us to consider the depth of God's love for each one of us.

In the parable of the Prodigal Son, the father never gives up on his son, even after the son as much as tells the father, "I wish you were dead."

The welcome that the father offers to this selfish son is extraordinary. The love he has for him never wavers.

So it is with us. The Father never gives up on us, even when we live selfishly and hedonistically. He doesn't force himself on us, but waits for us patiently, calling us to a conversion of heart and a return to him, who is our source of life and love and salvation.

This love of the Father becomes present and real to us in the Eucharist. Jesus' self-offering out of pure love is here and tangible. Let's receive him!

God bless you,

Fr. Ed
