*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Woe to the complacent. Their wanton revelry shall be done away with.

(Amos 6:1a, 4-7)

Psalm

Praise the Lord, my soul!

(Psalm 146)

Second Reading

Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus.

(1 Timothy 6:11-16)

Gospel

The parable of Lazarus and the rich man.

(Luke 16:19-31)

"But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called."

1 Timothy 6:11-12

Fight the good fight of the faith. (This is a superior translation to the one we hear from the current lectionary, which says "compete well for the faith.") We are called to be zealous warriors for Christ. Our Christian life is a battle. The world hates our Christian faith and challenges it at every turn. But the Lord is faithful to us and is always with us in this spiritual battle.

We must keep reminding ourselves of our true identity: we are the beloved sons and daughters of the King. We have been claimed and adopted by God through Jesus Christ. He has given us an unsurpassed dignity greater than anything the world can give.

On October 5, we will begin our process for those wishing to explore the Catholic faith and hopefully be received into the Church at Easter. This process is known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). Please contact me if you are interested or if you know someone who is interested. It is a great adventure!

God bless you,

Father Ed

A WARM WELCOME TO A FAMILY IN NEED

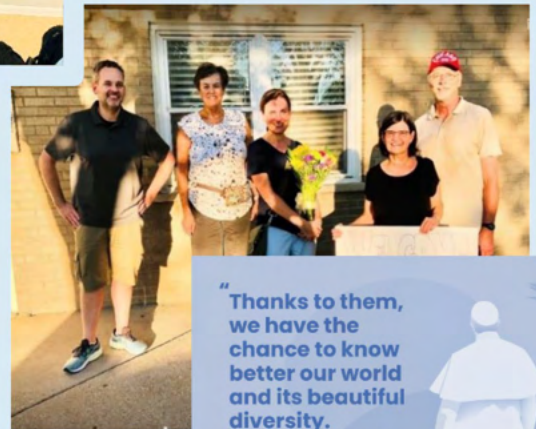

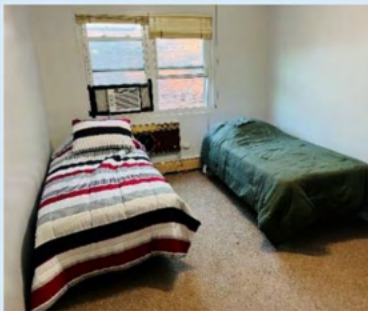

St. James recently welcomed a refugee family of five from Colombia to their new apartment on the north side of Chicago. Working with our Peace & Justice ministry and Exodus International, over 50 parishioners donated household supplies and food, and 8 people set up the apartment. From home baked cookies to comforting pillows, everything for a new start was provided. The family wishes us to know how grateful they are for our support. They told us that their lives were endangered by the violence in their country. The father and son are skilled construction workers. They felt our love and support, and we will keep them in our prayers.

Some reflections on the day:

“It was such an honor and privilege to welcome and provide some of the necessities of daily living.”

“Making the love of God real and present to those in need.”

“They arrived in a completely new environment not speaking English, with its own gargantuan share of challenges. They will have to rebuild their lives from the ground up. I am deeply proud of them and of their trust due to the support of the Ethiopian agency that sponsored them. I was grateful that Chicago has that agency plus Exodus who helped us help the family feel a warm, loving “Welcome to Chicago!” No one is leaving them to fend for themselves. We all will walk with and pray for them. “

World Day of Migrants and Refugees – Sunday, September 25, 2022

“Thanks to them,
we have the chance to know better our world
and its beautiful diversity.
We can grow in our common humanity and build together an ever greater sense of togetherness.”

— Pope Francis

Feed the Hungry - Loaves & Fishes Ministry

For over thirty years, the St. James community has reached out to the homeless in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood. The Loaves & Fishes Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for women at Sarah's Circle and men at North Side Housing. Our ministry operates every Saturday beginning in October and continues through the last weekend in April.

Numerous St. James groups prepare lunches and meals, and many families and individuals make lunches, pick up soup and bread and give up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. Thanks to all who have helped in the past.

Now Seeking Volunteers To:

- Pick up bread from Central Continental Bakery on Friday evening
- Pick up soup from local restaurants on Saturday afternoon
- Make approximately 125 lunches
- Make a hot meal for the men currently sheltered in a hotel
- Transport the donations (soup, bread, lunches, and hot meal) to the shelters late Saturday afternoon or early Saturday evening

Thank you to those businesses who donate soup on a regular basis: Egg Harbor • Peggy Kinnane's • Central Continental Bakery

The support received from these establishments is essential in the work of this ministry; feeding the hungry.
