ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

THE LORD COMES TO RULE
THE EARTH WITH JUSTICE.

Let the sea and what fills it
resound,
the world and
those who dwell
in it;
let the rivers
clap their hands,
the mountains
shout with them for joy.

- Psalm 98

"St. James is a vibrant and busy place, thank God!"

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to tell you that St. James has been assigned a new priest, Father Paul Stein, as our second Associate Pastor. He will begin his assignment on November 26. Father Paul was my classmate in the seminary. He is a good and holy priest who will be a great addition to our team.

St. James is a parish of 3,000 households. It is a vibrant and busy place, thank God! There is a lot of work to do in proclaiming the Gospel and serving the spiritual needs of thousands of people. Numerous parishioners are involved in many apostolates and liturgical ministries. It will be a great help to have another priest to join the mission. Our deacons, as well, are tremendous assets in carrying out the work of God at St. James.

Please welcome Fr. Paul Stein as he joins us later this month. We do have a slight challenge: we will have two Fr. Pauls and we will have to figure out how to identify them!

Our Jubilation event was a terrific celebration and a beautiful manifestation of the generosity of so many of you. Thank you to all who supported this event, which enables us to support many worthy charitable groups as well as our St. James School. Thanks in particular to Mike and Krista Coleman and Steve and Patti Denten, our chaircouples, and to Julie Jacobson, our Director of Stewardship and Development, who put so much time and commitment into successfully coordinating this beautiful evening.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Thanksgiving

Mass at 9:00 am
Thursday, November 24

Please join us to offer thanks for the gifts we have received at our Thanksgiving Mass. This Mass will also be live-streamed.

MERCY BOXES

We are thrilled to announce that the St. James Annual Mercy Box program will be a part of our Christmas charities again this year.

We have identified several inner city parishes with families struggling to make ends meet. This year St. James will deliver Mercy Boxes to needy families in St. Malachy, St. Agatha, St. Gall and The Kolbe House in Chicago.

The spirit of Christmas is alive as these food boxes benefit a diverse group of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

How Can I Get a Box?

Mercy Boxes will be distributed after all Masses on the weekend of November 26 and 27. The boxes will come unassembled, with a list of food items needed attached to the box. It will not be necessary to wrap the box.

Filled boxes are due back to St James on Sunday, December 18. Drop off is from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm in the Parish Center parking lot on the west side of the street.

If you are attending a virtual Mass the weekend of November 26 and 27 feel free to stop by the gathering space and pick up a box.

Join Our New Apostolate

Help...we really need some help! The young adults who normally 'work the slides' during Mass need some assistance. Their schedules are jam-packed. Consequently, sometimes we do not have a regularly scheduled person to run the slideshow for us during our weekend Masses.

We are going to start a new apostolate. Those who join will take charge of the slideshow during Mass. The more the merrier. No need to volunteer for several Masses in one weekend. You can still attend your favorite Mass (with a guaranteed seat).

Might you please consider joining this new apostolate here at St. James?

Thank you for considering. Contact Deacon Matthew Hahn (see back page of bulletin) with questions and to sign up.

ANNUAL FINANCE REPORT

Thank You
for your generosity!

◇ Includes increase in school enrollment and the addition of a curriculum fee.

♦ Includes gifts & one-time donations, (large, one-time gift given in Dec 2020) and fundraising.

◇ The Archdiocese passes these costs through to us.

The Archdiocese of Chicago asks us to publish 'the numbers' that reflect our financial position for the previous fiscal year which, as you can see, remains quite strong.

Please note:

- There were a couple of large one-time donations that were made two years ago that we did not receive this past fiscal year.
- School enrollment continues to grow as demonstrated by the increase in tuition and fees.
- Our parish has a very knowledgeable and involved Finance Council that guides and directs our financial dealings.
- As a staff, we are determined to be good stewards of the treasure that comes from our parishioners.

Thank you to all who give so freely of their time, talent, and treasure!

Reminder to All Knitters and Crocheters!

If you haven't already created a scarf, it's not too late. All warm knit or crocheted scarves 6 inches wide and 60 inches long are most welcome and appreciated by the homeless who will receive them.

Don't forget to bring your warm winter scarves to the designated trees outside the St. James Church entrance on November 19 and 20. Thank you!

St. James PADS Update

Our Shelter Remains Closed

The overnight shelter at St. James will not be opening in November. Currently families and those with any medical fragility remain sheltering in hotels and only a small percentage of those who have been asked to leave the hotels are seeking shelter in churches. There is another church open on Wednesday nights and the number of guests showing up there is minimal.

We would love to believe this means that the need has diminished but that seems extremely unlikely and we remain uncertain as to how and where the clients are meeting their needs.

COVID has changed the face of many things, and homelessness is no exception. St. James will monitor the situation closely and will open when the numbers allow us to do so. In the meantime we will explore other ways of serving the unhoused and meeting those in need where they are.

The St. James PADS program has been an integral part of our community outreach, and its success is due to the commitment and dedication of our volunteers. We look forward to serving the community as soon as the current situation changes.

We will continue to do outreach of food, clothing and individual requests as needed. Keep watching the bulletin for future volunteer opportunities to serve.

We currently need help with:

- Delivering meals to hotels,
- Delivering full holiday dinners (prepackaged)
- Donations of professional attire for those seeking employment
- Donations of clothing and personal items for families with growing children
- Organizing holiday outreach events

Contact us at st.james.pads@gmail.com if you can help.
