OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

David is anointed king of Israel.
(2 Samuel 5:1-3)

Psalms

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

(Psalm 122)

Second Reading

The Father delivered us to the kingdom of his beloved Son.

(Colossians 1:12-20)

Gospel

The repentant criminal receives Jesus' promise of Paradise.

(Luke 23:35-43)

"Jesus is King not only of heaven and earth, but of the entire universe."

Dear Friends,

He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation;

for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities - all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent.

For in him all the fulness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

- Colossians 1:15-20

This beautiful hymn to the supremacy of Christ is read on today's powerful feast of Christ the King. Jesus is King not only of heaven and earth, but of the entire universe. As we proclaim in the Nicene Creed every Sunday, "through Him all things were made".

In a profound way, our king of the universe desires a deep friendship with each of us.

We can sit with our king in the adoration chapel and enjoy an intimate conversation with him.

We are invited to join ourselves with him in the sacrifice of his life to the father on the altar and on the Cross, and to receive him in Holy Communion.

We celebrate this solemnity on the final Sunday of the liturgical year, and it is appropriate that we do.

The entirety of Jesus' mission is summed up on this feast, and in the final words of the Colossians hymn: to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

HOSPITALITY SUNDAY THIS WEEKEND

St. James will offer hospitality after Sunday morning Masses in the Laramie Room.
Please head to the lower level for donuts and coffee with one another.

Thanksgiving

Mass at 9:00 am on Thursday, November 24

Please join us to offer thanks for the gifts we have received at our Thanksgiving Mass. This Mass will also be live-streamed.

MERCY BOXES

We are thrilled to announce that the St. James Annual Mercy Box program will be a part of our Christmas charities again this year.

We have identified several inner city parishes with families struggling to make ends meet. This year St. James will deliver Mercy Boxes to needy families at St. Malachy, St. Agatha, St. Gall and The Kolbe House in Chicago.

The spirit of Christmas is alive as these food boxes benefit a diverse group of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

How Can I Get a Box?

Mercy Boxes will be distributed after all Masses on the weekend of November 26 and 27. The boxes will come unassembled with a list of food items needed attached to the box. It will not be necessary to wrap the box.

Filled boxes are due back to St. James on Sunday, December 18. Drop off is from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm in the Parish Center parking lot on the west side of the street.

If you are attending a virtual Mass the weekend of November 26 and 27 feel free to stop by the gathering space and pick up a box.

Join Our New Apostolate

Help...we really need some help! The young adults who normally 'work the slides' during Mass need some assistance. Their schedules are jam-packed. Consequently, sometimes we do not have a regularly scheduled person to run the slideshow for us during our weekend Masses.

We are going to start a new apostolate. Those who join will take charge of the slideshow during Mass. The more the merrier. No need to volunteer for several Masses in one weekend. You can still attend your favorite Mass (with a guaranteed seat).

Might you please consider joining this new apostolate here at St. James?

Thank you for considering.
Contact Deacon Matthew Hahn (see back page of bulletin) with questions and to sign up.

ADVENT, 2022 - Begins November 27

Happy New Year! No, I'm not jumping the gun on 2023. For the purposes of our church calendar, the new year begins each year on the First Sunday of Advent, which in 2022 falls on November 27 (5:00 pm mass on Saturday, 11/26 is the official turning point). The Catholic Church will be calling this new year "The Year of Grace," but for our season of Advent here at St. James we've chosen the theme "Journey To Bethlehem."

To set us in the right spiritual frame of mind, I'd like to share with you a reflection by theologian Mark Searle:

Human beings cannot live without hope. Unlike the animals, we are blessed – or cursed – with the ability to think about the future and to fear our actions to shaping it. So essential is this to human life, that human beings cannot live without hope, without something to live for, without something to look forward to. To be without hope, to have nothing to live for, is to surrender to death in despair.

But we can find all sorts of things to live for and we can hope for almost anything: for some measure of success or security or for the realization of some more or less modest ambition; for our children, that they might be saved from our mistakes and sufferings and find a better life than we have known; for a better world, throwing ourselves into politics or medicine or technology so that future generations might be better off.

Not all these forms of hope are selfish; indeed, they have given dignity and purpose to the lives of countless generations.

One of the reasons we read the Old Testament during Advent is to learn what to hope for. The people of the Old Testament had the courage to hope for big things; that the desert would be turned into fertile land; that their scattered and divided people would eventually be gathered again; that the blind would see, the deaf hear, the lame walk; that all the peoples of the earth, would be united in the blessing of everlasting peace. Clearly, their hopes were no different from ours: lasting peace, tranquil lives, sufficiency of food, and an end to suffering.

Thus we hope for the same things as the Old Testament people, for their hopes are not yet realized. But we differ from them in two ways. First, the coming of Jesus in history, as a partial fulfillment of God's promises, immeasurably confirms and strengthens our hope.

Secondly, we differ from the Old Testament people because Jesus has revealed to us that God is not afar off, but is already in our midst. Hence the importance in the Advent liturgy of John the Baptist and of Mary: because they recognized the new situation, they serve as models for the Church in discerning the presence of our Savior in the world.*

On behalf of Fr. Ed, Fr. Paul and all the staff, may all of you come to know Christ born in your hearts once again as we journey together to Bethlehem.

- Deacon Johnny

Liturgical Notes on Our Journey to Bethlehem

ART & ENVIRONMENT: This year's Advent environment features the color purple with accents of pink and grey. Our parish will be spiritually journeying to Bethlehem during this season; but, the visuals will feature plain pines, bare branches and snow since it's winter here in the Northern Hemisphere. The Advent wreath will be present near the sanctuary and lit before Mass. Each lit candle marks another week closer to reaching Bethlehem and that momentous day of Christmas - Christ's birth!

MUSIC: During Advent the restrained joy of our liturgical music augments the sense of anticipation we feel as we journey toward the manger in Bethlehem. The great feast of Christmas awaits us there, but until then we wait in hope.

We invite you to take time for this journey—spiritually, visually, vocally. (The destination is awesome.)

Meeting Mental Health With Grace

stjamesah.org/mentalhealthresources/

Thanks be to God at Thanksgiving and Always

Throughout the Bible, we read about individuals experiencing hardships yet who continue to express gratitude to God. They don't call what was hard "easy" or describe suffering as "joyful". Instead they see their adversity through the lens of God, as his way of bringing them closer to him.

During the upcoming holiday season of Thanksgiving, we can choose to show God gratitude by focusing and giving thanks for the many wonderful gifts he has given to us. When we give thanks to the Lord, it truly does bless both the Lord and us.

Research Indicates:

Five ways giving thanks is good for your mental, physical, and relational health:

- It increases happiness and decreases depression.
- It gives you better sleep.
- It lowers stress levels
- It contributes to resilience
- It builds relationships with God and others

Faithful Father, thank you for your unfailing love. You satisfy the thirsty and fill the hungry with good things. Remind me that I lack nothing as your beloved child. Fill my heart with gratitude for the gifts of this day including...
I ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.
