THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

All the ends of the earth will behold the salvation of our God.

(Isaiah 52:7-10)

Psalms

The whole world has seen God's salvation.

(Psalm 98)

Second Reading

God has spoken to us through the Son, the very imprint of God's being.

(Hebrews 1:1-6)

Gospel

The Word became flesh; from his fullness we have all received grace.

(John 1:1-18)

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests

Dear Friends,

This is the message of the angels announcing the birth of the Messiah, the anointed one, the savior sent to rescue us from the filth of sin and death.

He has come to save us, to offer us a new way of living, a new way of understanding our relationship with the God who sees us as beloved sons and daughters.

A blessed Christmas to all of you! May you come to know the great love of God for you as we celebrate this solemn feast.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Ed

Help Wanted During Mass Join the Slideshow Apostolate

Help...we really need some help! There are many times when we do not have a regularly scheduled person to run the slideshow for us during our weekend Masses. The slideshow is important as it helps everyone at Mass participate in all aspects of prayer and song.

No need to volunteer for several Masses in one weekend. You can still attend your favorite Mass (with a guaranteed seat).

Might you please consider joining this new apostolate here at St. James? All are welcome.

Thank you for considering. Contact Deacon Matthew Hahn with questions and to sign up.

Fifth of a Series: The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

- As a worker, do I give my employer a fair day's work for my wages? As an owner, do I treat workers fairly?
- Do I treat all workers with whom I interact with respect, no matter their position or class?
- Do I support the rights of all workers to adequate wages, health insurance, vacation and sick leave? Do I affirm their right to form or join unions or worker associations?
- Do my purchasing choices take into account the hands involved in the production of what I buy? When possible, do I buy products produced by workers whose rights and dignity were respected?

FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

The EDGE Overnight Retreat for all EDGE and SJS middle school youth will be a chance to get away from the day to day. Youth will learn how Jesus not only forgives them of their sins but also has the power to cast out fear even in the darkness.

Youth will be empowered to go forth and share the light of Christ with others. Adoration and confession will be part of this retreat.

The weekend will be filled with opportunities for prayer, talks, games, small group time, lots of food and lots of fun. We only have room for 60 youth so sign up today!

This past year, John Camardella took a sabbatical from teaching to complete a graduate degree in religion at Harvard Divinity School. As part of his research, he traveled to Israel and Palestine with the biblical archaeology program and partnered with the Israeli Antiquities Authority to excavate a recently discovered site in Galilee.

Join us for this exciting presentation where we will dig into the archaeological process and unearth the diverse ways Jesus is understood in light of archaeological findings.

John Camardella teaches two world religion senior elective courses at Prospect High School, where his students earn dual credit through Eastern Illinois University. This designation is a first for public schools in the United States and allows students to earn three undergraduate credits upon graduation. John also works as an Education Fellow at Harvard Divinity School, where he trains public school administrators and educators to adopt a more sound approach to teaching about religion.

MENTAL HEALTH MINISTRY

Meeting Mental Health With Grace

Holiday Stress and Mental Health

The Archdiocese Commission on Mental Illness has an article with ideas on handling holiday stress. Here are a few tips from the article. Click HERE to read the full article on our Mental Health Ministry Webpage:

- Help loved ones figure out how to handle some of the stress of family gatherings (i.e. how to answer tough questions during family time, identify a task to focus on during gatherings, how long to stay, places to go to take breaks etc...).
- Set boundaries around time spent on holiday tasks. An afternoon shopping at a couple stores is more manageable than a full day at the mall.
- Prioritize quiet time with God by creating a special holy space with a candle, cross or picture to connect with Jesus.

If you or someone you love is looking for help:
