

We have a Lending Library that is housed in Meeting Room # 1, adjacent to the Laramie Room, in the lower level of the Church. We have a collection of books and DVDs on the following subjects

- Bullying
- Domestic Violence
- Human Trafficking
- Teen Dating Violence

as well as a two-drawer file cabinet filled with informational brochures and education materials on support agencies, relational violence, child and elder abuse, etc. Documents housed in the file cabinet are free for the taking. Books and DVDs may be checked out for four weeks. Those wishing to protect their identity need only initial the "card" housed in the inside pocket. We ask that all materials be returned in a timely fashion.

We have purchased age-appropriate books for the SJ School counselor and library on bullying, feelings/emotions and friendship that may be checked out by students or used by school faculty and staff.
