A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! The Lord shines upon
you and the glory
of the Lord appears
over you.
(Isaiah 60:1-6)

Psalm

All the nations will
worship you, Lord.
(Psalm 72)

Second Reading

The Gentiles are coheirs, copartners
in the promise in Christ Jesus.
(Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6)

Gospel

Magi from the east
arrive looking for the newborn king
of the Jews.
(Matthew 2:1-12)

Dear Friends,

My grandparents called the Feast of the Epiphany, "Little Christmas." The twelfth day of Christmas commemorates the coming of the Magi, wise men from the East, following the Star of Bethlehem to meet the Messiah. Psalm 72 in today's Mass proclaims, "Lord, every nation on earth will adore you."

Jesus was born as a Jew, in Palestine, and raised and formed in that religious and social environment.

But the mission of the Jewish nation was to present the Anointed One, the Messiah, to the whole world. This remains the mission of the Church (and our parish) to this day. God has generously given us every grace and gift we need to carry out this mission.

Last week, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, the brilliant theologian and loving friend of Jesus Christ who became the Bishop of Rome, and therefore the Pope, was laid to rest in the grotto beneath St. Peter's Basilica, near the tomb of St. Peter. Bishop

"Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI was laid to rest near the tomb of St. Peter..."

Robert Barron commented that Pope Benedict was one of the most important theologians of the century. He was gifted with a brilliant intellect, a true humility, and a lively faith. He spoke several times of the importance of having a deep friendship with Jesus. May he now see that friendship deepened as he prepares to meet the Lord face to face. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.

As we enter into the final days of the Christmas season, I want to thank all those who gave of themselves so generously to prepare for our Christmas Masses. Everything was beautiful: the liturgies, the music, the decorations. To our altar servers, maintenance staff, office staff, priests, deacons, greeters, ushers, lectors, sacristans and mass coordinators I have to say, you are all great! What a beautiful gift of praise and thanksgiving we offered to God in thanksgiving for the gift of His Son Jesus!

God bless you,
Fr. Ed

Dear St. James:

I am writing this letter to you because I am retiring from ministry. I was ordained a Deacon in May, 2000, and I have truly cherished these twenty-two plus years. When I think back on all the baptisms, marriages, visitations, committals and holy hours over the years, I can only say, "I was blessed." Thanks to all the wonderful priests and parishioners that I came in contact with through the years, I never had a bad day. It's hard to be "put out to pasture," but it is my decision. I thank our four remaining Deacons for their understanding, but I feel confident that they will continue to minister without me.

May God bless you, and thanks for the memories.

Sincerely,

Deacon Pierce Sheehan

Feed the Hungry

Volunteers are needed to assist in the distribution of fresh produce at the upcoming St. James and St. Edna's Produce Mobile. We average over 200 families representing over 700 individuals. The distribution will be in St. Edna's parking lot on Thursday, February 9.

Tis a great time to get a little low impact exercise, some fresh air and possibly meet new friends. Distribution runs from 9:30 until 11:30. We ask, if possible, to be there around 8:00 to help set up the tables. Should you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Max McGee at

Max70McGee@gmail.com or 847-848-5574

A Prayer for the New Year

Remember us, O God;
from age to age be our comforter.
You have given us the wonder of time,
blessings in days and nights, seasons and years.
Bless your children at the turning of the year and fill the months ahead with the bright hope that is ours in the coming of Christ.
You are our God, living and reigning, forever and ever.
Amen.

A Dynamic Understanding of Jesus

BIBLICAL ARCHAEOLOGY & A CONTEMPORARY UNDERSTANDING OF A HISTORICAL MOVEMENT

This past year, John Camardella took a sabbatical from teaching to complete a graduate degree in religion at Harvard Divinity School. As part of his research, he traveled to Israel and Palestine with the biblical archaeology program and partnered with the Israeli Antiquities Authority to excavate a recently discovered site in Galilee.

Join us for this exciting presentation where we will dig into the archaeological process and unearth the diverse ways Jesus is understood in light of archaeological findings.

John Camardella teaches two world religion senior elective courses at Prospect High School, where his students earn dual credit through Eastern Illinois University. This designation is a first for public schools in the United States and allows students to earn three undergraduate credits upon graduation. John also works as an Education Fellow at Harvard Divinity School, where he trains public school administrators and educators to adopt a more sound approach to teaching about religion.
