THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it.

(Acts 2:23-24)

Psalm:

Lord, you will show us the path of life.

(Ps 16)

Second Reading:

Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning...

(1 Pt 1:17-19)

Gospel:

And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them.

(Lk 24:30)

"You were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ." 1 Peter 1:18-19

Dear Friends,

As we continue to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus during this extensive Easter Season, we are treated to these beautiful Scripture readings. Today's Gospel is the Road to Emmaus story, a powerful telling of the disciples' encounter with the Risen Jesus on the road and at the inn where He celebrated the Eucharist with them.

St. Peter writes in the second reading about the wondrous work Jesus brought about by His death on the Cross. He worked out our salvation through His Blood, something more precious than silver or gold. What a marvelous gift He has given us. The only cost to us if we wish to receive this gift is our lives, handed over to Him in love. Pope Benedict XVI spoke of this giving of our lives to Jesus:

"Are we not perhaps all afraid in some way? If we let Christ enter fully into our lives, if we open ourselves totally to Him, are we not afraid that He might take something away from us? Are we not perhaps afraid to give up something significant, something unique, something that makes life so beautiful? Do we not then risk ending up diminished and deprived of our freedom? ... No! If we let Christ into our lives, we lose nothing, nothing, absolutely nothing of what makes life free, beautiful and great. No! Only in this friendship are the doors of life opened wide."

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

The Journey of Jesus

from the River Jordan to Jerusalem and Beyond

(WITH A FEW STOPS ALONG THE WAY)

Using the Gospel texts, this presentation will examine some of the situations and people that Jesus encountered along His way. Some may look and act a lot like us.

Father John Cusick, a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago, was ordained in 1970. He has received numerous awards for his contributions to the church and to the city of Chicago, has authored two books and is known for his engaging and thought-provoking sermons. In recent years, he has embraced social media and considers Facebook to be his new pulpit.

APRIL IS CHILD ABUSE AWARENESS MONTH

Children are the world's most valuable resource and its best hope for the future. - John F. Kennedy

In the United States, about one in seven children under age 18 has experienced child abuse & neglect by a parent, caregiver, or another person in a custodial role. Because so many cases go unreported, this is likely an underestimate. Physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse and neglect result in long-term effects that can be devastating. Immediate physical injuries often lead to emotional and psychological problems such as anxiety and post-traumatic stress. These children are also at increased risk for delayed brain development, future violence victimization, and substance abuse.

Everyone benefits when children have safe, stable, nurturing relationships and environments.

- KNOW THE SIGNS and RISK FACTORS – See: Mayo Clinic – Child Abuse; American Psychological Assoc. – Understanding & Preventing Child Abuse, CDC – Fast Facts: Preventing Child Abuse & Neglect
- KNOW YOURSELF – Recognize when you're about to lose it. Take a break. Reach out. Seek help in learning to cope with stress & relate positively with your child. If you were abused, get counseling so you don't repeat or teach abusive behaviors. Build a network of support.
- SUPPORT – Be a good neighbor & help out a stressed parent; volunteer for or donate to programs or agencies that support families or work to end poverty, a known risk factor for abuse and neglect.
- INTERVENE – If you feel that a child may be in immediate danger, call 9-1-1. If you suspect abuse or neglect, call or text the Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline: 800-4-A-CHILD (800-422-4453).

A domestic violence ministry raising awareness, promoting understanding, and preventing relational abuse by educating communities and providing referrals to victims and survivors of emotional, financial, physical and sexual abuse.
