*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation."
(Ex 19:5-6)

Psalm:

We are his people: the sheep of his flock.
(Ps 100)

Second Reading:

Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life.
(Rom 5:10)

Gospel:

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness.
(Mt 10:1)

"Because God is infinite, there will always be more to God, more to understand and more ways to grow in relationship..."

Have you ever tried to explain to someone, what you mean by the word "God?" Perhaps you used words like "creator" and "Father."

Today, it is challenging to explain to people what we believe as Catholics; many people assert that they don't believe in a "supreme being." In a sense, we as Catholics don't believe in a "supreme being" either. What people often mean by "supreme being" is a god like Zeus, Thor or one of the other gods of Nordic, Greek, or Roman mythology.

[the Catholic understanding of] God is transcendent. That means that he is above and beyond the physical world. In order to create the universe, or multiverse, God has to be existentially above all that is physical.

God as God, is not physical at all. He does not have a body, he does not have eyes, or ears, or sit on a throne. Those are all images that help us understand our relationship with him, but are not literal.

The universe, while enormous at about 100 billion light years in size, is still limited in size. Angels, while impressive in power and knowledge, are still limited. Anything that is limited is finite. God, since he is not limited, is infinite.

What this means is that if we get to heaven, we will never be bored. If God were just the supreme being, or finite like us, we would eventually fully understand him. And then there would be no new adventures.

Because God is infinite, there will always be more to God, more to understand and more ways to grow in relationship with him. Even now, we begin that adventure in our relationship with him. He always has more for us if we open ourselves to him and his will. Our Catholic faith is quite the adventure.

A Father's Day Prayer

God, our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; may they know that the God of Compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

O'Brien Room to Be Converted

Dear Parishioners,

I want to share some exciting news with you. Our school is growing, and we are building a strong pipeline of students beginning in the pre-Kindergarten age group.

Toward that end, we are transitioning the O'Brien Room into a gross motor skills room to be used by our pre-K and Kindergarten students. The project is scheduled to begin on June 26 and should be complete before the school year begins in August.

I would like to thank Principal Kendrick and all the staff of the school for their dedication to our students.

Deacon Matthew Hahn

The O'Brien Room (in the lower level of the Parish Center) will be converted to a gross motor room for our youngest students.

MINISTRIES SPOTLIGHT

St. James Bereavement Ministry Seeks Compassionate Hearts

*"We are called to servanthood in the name of God, following the new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you."

There are no spoken or written words to adequately define this ministry, for some things can only be "spoken" in the heart.

Fourteen years ago, Maureen Ruane invited me to become a bereavement minister, and I am forever grateful. Walking with those who are grieving is a ministry of the heart where Compassion and Presence are essential.

The devastation that accompanies losing a loved one can be paralyzing. As bereavement ministers, we walk with those who are grieving, helping them plan the celebration of the life of their loved one and, most importantly, listening to their story of the deceased.

Bereavement ministers are trained by another bereavement minister. New ministers "shadow" them until they become comfortable soloing. When a funeral comes into our office, our receptionist emails the information to all bereavement ministers. The first minister who is available sends a response to the office and copies all bereavement ministers. The process of contacting the family begins then. If you have a compassionate heart and would like to join our team, we will welcome you with open arms.

Contact the Parish Office to learn more.
