TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

(Jer 20:13)

Psalm:

Lord, in your great love, answer me.

(Ps 69)

Second Reading:

But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

(Rom 5:15)

Gospel:

"What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul."

(Mt 10:28)

"So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows."

Matt. 10:31

Dear Friends,

Last week our teens went on two mission trips, one group to Montague, Michigan and the other to Puerto Rico. They were life-changing experiences for many, sent to serve others as part of a community of young Catholics and their generous chaperones. Thank you to all the generous benefactors of these mission trips.

The week before, I spent five days in northern Peru, visiting the parish of Santisimo Sacramento in Piura. I assisted the pastor there in celebrating Masses, visiting the homebound, delivering food to the poor, and blessing many homes.

In the extreme poverty of the village of San Pablo, I witnessed a most beautiful display of Eucharistic faith. A wheelchair-bound young man who was unable to speak had asked for Holy Communion. He was waiting out on the unpaved sand street in the extreme heat, and as we approached him, I saw three other people approaching, another in a wheelchair, and two on crutches, struggling through the sand to receive Jesus in the sacrament.

After I had given all of them Communion, and seeing the joy and peace which seemed to overcome them, I was deeply moved by their faith in the Lord and their love of the sacrament of the Eucharist. I reflected on the words in today's Gospel: Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Matt. 10:29-31

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

O'Brien Room to Be Converted

Dear Parishioners,

I want to share some exciting news with you. Our school is growing, and we are building a strong pipeline of students beginning in the pre-Kindergarten age group.

Toward that end, we are transitioning the O'Brien Room into a gross motor skills room to be used by our pre-K and Kindergarten students. The project is scheduled to begin on June 26 and should be complete before the school year begins in August.

I would like to thank Principal Kendrick and all the staff of the school for their dedication to our students.

Deacon Matthew Hahn

The O'Brien Room (in the lower level of the Parish Center) will be converted to a gross motor room for our youngest students.

Remember Your Identity

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, "Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

VOCATION OFFICE UPDATE

The Archdiocese of Chicago welcomes these priests ordained on May 20, 2023 who begin their parish assignments on July 1:

- Fr. Kevin Gregus
Two Holy Martyrs, Chicago
- Fr. Daniel Korenchan
St. Elizabeth Seton, Orland Hills
- Fr. Michael Mehringer
Queen of Apostles, Chicago
- Fr. Francisco J. Pagán Portalatín
San José Sánchez de Río, Chicago
- Fr. Jesús Raya Custodio
St. Alphonsus, Chicago

Our next event is Quo Vadis Days at Mundelein Seminary beginning on July 30. This 4-day retreat is open to all young men who have graduated 8th grade, 13–18 years old, who want to learn more about the priesthood. Those attending will have a life changing encounter with Christ while having the time of their life.

Father Tim and the Vocation Office want to share some information on our work to grow the number of future priests:

I. Strengths (Good News)

- Quality candidates
- Growth with Latino vocations – 40% of seminarians
- Retention is 80% of those who enter
- Projected new seminarians: 6 or 7 for the Spirituality Year

II. Weaknesses (areas for growth)

- No candidate projected to enter college seminary this year
- No candidates from Black Catholic, Asian/Pacific Islander or Polish communities

III. Opportunities

- Growth with candidates for college seminary

IV. Threats

- Pace of life for priests and discerners
- Lack of parental support, either for seminary or Totus Tuus

MINISTRIES SPOTLIGHT

Sharing through Sisterhood and Service: Women of St. James

The Women of St. James (WOSJ) is a community of Catholic women who are committed to growing and sharing their faith through sisterhood and service. Members of WOSJ may be part of a small group that meets monthly from September to May or participate as a member-at-large if a monthly meeting is not desired. All members grow together in faith through a single book study, selected annually by our WOSJ Spiritual Chair.

Members are invited to connect through our monthly newsletter, closed ministry Facebook page, special gatherings and service projects. Our ministry serves the St. James community as well as select local community groups and charities. The WOSJ Current Membership is 376 members. This includes sixty three projects. Many WOSJ choose to attend St. James Parish events and participate in service projects as a WOSJ small group.

Members at Large and more than 300 women participating in twenty four Small Groups. Each Small Group is named for a patron saint. WOSJ

is directed by a Ministry Lead and Steering Team.

WOSJ Small Groups meet once a month. Small Group Leaders also attend a monthly meeting to prepare for the upcoming chapter of study and participate in faith formation and fellowship. WOSJ hosts 3-4 All-Ministry Events throughout the year in addition to 3-4 seasonal service

Or email Jessica at WOSJMinistryleads@gmail.com with ministry questions or Katie at WOSJMembership@gmail.com with membership questions.

All are welcome to join the Women of St. James! The Ministry year runs September - May but we can place you in a small group at any time of year.

St. James PADS Update

The St. James PADS program, which has been in existence for over 30 years and has traditionally offered hot meals, showers, and overnight accommodations to the un-housed brothers and sisters in our community, has been a significant outreach program for our church community.

In March 2020, as COVID restrictions began to be enforced, the program was forced to shut down, and our PADS guests were given the opportunity to shelter in local motels. The St. James community rallied together with financial support so that a team of volunteers were able to provide breakfast, lunch and dinner weekly to over 100 motel PADS guests while also supporting our parishioner-owned restaurants.

As COVID challenges continued to evolve, and with the continued generosity of so many St. James volunteers who collectively purchased, cooked, prepared, and helped deliver warm meals over the past 3 years, St. James PADS was able to provide over 8,000 meals to those who found themselves un-housed or experiencing food insecurity during this difficult time while. St James continues to offer clothing and necessities upon request.

The motel/shelter program ended this past May 31st, and St. James will re-open our PADS site when the season begins in October 2023. Anyone interested in being part of this ministry please email st.james.pads@gmail.com

We will continue providing meals once a month during the summer through the PADS summer meal program. We remain committed to helping those in need while staying diligent with regard to the health of all involved.

Thank you, St. James, for your incredible support of those experiencing food and shelter insecurity.

God bless you,

St. James PADS and outreach ministry
