FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

The rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful.

(Is 55:10)

Psalm:

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

(Ps 65)

Second Reading:

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God.

(Rom 8:18-19)

Gospel:

And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow."

(Mt 13:3)

"When we accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense."

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fail in communicating our faith. Fair enough. We can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure.

This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before.

He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult, obscurantist, or, worse, elitist?

No. We have to remember that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col. 2:3). He is the word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit.

However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we're dealing with a relationship, not new data. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense.

When others don't understand the Church or the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed.

The Grief Support Ministry

The St. James Grief Support group meets twice a month for comfortable conversation with people going through the same changes in their lives after a loss.

We are a small group who meet on the first and third Saturday of the month at 11:30 - once a month at a restaurant for a friendly lunch and once a month in the parish office for a more constructive meeting.

This group started two and a half years ago. Our spiritual leader is Deacon Johnny Burnett. We welcome new members from St. James as well as other local parishes who are looking for support. We have a grief counselor available if needed.

Our email is griefsupport@stjamesah.org. Ministry Leader Mary Jean Jarosz will be happy to contact all who are interested.
