NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

Then the LORD said to him, "Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by."
(1 Kgs 19:11)

Psalm:

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.
(Ps 85)

Second Reading:

My conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people.
(Rom 9:1-3)

Gospel:

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.
(Mt 14:28-29)

If you could read just one book...

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

If I could recommend just one book to help someone in the spiritual life – after the Bible, of course – it would be The Story of a Soul: The Autobiography of St. Thérèse of Lisieux (the Little Flower). A relatively short read, it is the one book I have bought and given away more than any other; I currently don't own a copy.

St. Thérèse desired to be a missionary, proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ in foreign lands. However, her vocation was to the cloistered convent of the Carmelites. In the process of her discernment, she realized that her vocation was to be love at the heart of the Church.

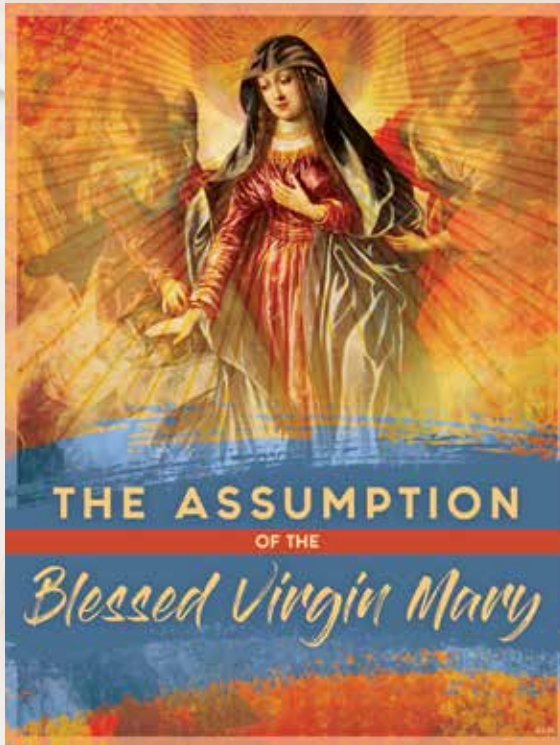

It is love that fuels the missionaries in their evangelistic efforts. As a person whose life was dedicated to prayer, her life was to intensely love Jesus, especially in prayer and in the Carmelite community. The fruits of that life would be a channel of grace for the Church and her missionary work.

While she would not be doing a great "work" in the sense of literally risking her life for Jesus in foreign lands, she would do great "works" by doing small actions with great love. She writes, "Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love." She also wrote: "Our Lord does not so much look at the greatness of our actions, or even at their difficulty, as at the love with which we do them." This was her "little way."

If you are single, have a family, or are retired, and wonder what great thing God has for you to do, then consider St. Thérèse's little way in your life.

Your Brother in Christ,

Fr. Paul Stein

PADS Reopening This Fall

Volunteers are needed!

St. James PADS will reopen October 2023. We are in need of many volunteers this season. If you worked with PADS in the past, please come back and continue to nourish the spirit of those in need and mentor new volunteers. If you have not volunteered before, please join one of our volunteer teams, and check with your friends to see if you would like to work together on a shift. Many parishioners and others in the community have formed lifelong bonds with their fellow volunteers through this program. Serving others is a connection like no other. The commitment can be as small as four hours per month or as often as you are available.

Shift Volunteers work on either the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, or 4th Wednesday of the month covering 4-5 hour shifts from 7:00 pm -7:00 am. During this time the volunteers monitor and serve the needs of the guests with showers, sleeping arrangements and laundry.

Shift Volunteers must be 18 or older, or 16 with a parent. New volunteers will have access to a brief training.

Food Teams sign up for either the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, or 4th Wednesday of the month to provide and/or serve warm dinner for the guests (signing up to drop off either an entrée, side, or dessert from a given menu).

To sign up to volunteer with PADS, please follow this link or scan the code below: <https://forms.gle/YQSF94LvCefN584C8>

"Mass Confusion"
Tuesday, September 19
at 6:30 p.m. sharp!

A Catholic comedy
for all ages!

Lighten up, folks, with "Mass Confusion," an interactive fun, faith- and music-filled catechetical comedy, featuring the wit and wisdom of the "man of many faces," Doug Brummel and his cast of characters, along with accomplished musician and songwriter Dave Wilson.

The two men share a passion for their faith, family, humor and music, as they spread the joy of the Gospel! "Mass Confusion" engages, entertains, evangelizes and catechizes all at the same time. It's like a Catholic casserole with a perfect blend of inspiration, catechesis and joy!

Perfect for all ages and backgrounds. Invite your family and friends of all faiths! This is an exciting opportunity for our community!

"Doug and Dave are a true gift to the people of God. Mass Confusion was a delightful evening where people were uniquely inspired and learned about the source and summit of our Faith. Mass Confusion is awesome!"

That They Might Have Life

August 14 ~ Feast Day of St. Maximillian Mary Kolbe Martyr of Charity ~ A Patron of the Pro-Life Movement

At age 10, in a dream, Our Blessed Mother offered him either the crown of purity or the crown of martyrdom.

He chose both.

He shocked the Nazi camp leader at Auschwitz by offering to take the place of a father of two children who had been sentenced to the starvation bunker.

His Militia Immaculata is an association of those who commit themselves to the mystery of the Incarnation, begun in the womb of the Immaculate Mother of God.

He wrote: "These sufferings ... are necessary ... so that those who come after us may be happy."

St. Maximillian Mary Kolbe teach us that the value of family life is worth our sacrifices also!
