TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

(Is 55:8)

Psalm:

The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

(Ps 145)

Second Reading:

Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain.

(Phil 1:20-21)

Gospel:

"What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?"

(Mt 20:14-15)

"Jesus himself knew the Psalms and quoted them on occasion."

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

There is a part of the Bible to which we usually give little thought: the Psalms. Yet, every day at Mass, including Sundays, we have a reading from the Psalms.

We typically think of the Bible as a book, when it is actually a collection of books. (The word comes from the Greek βιβλία, which means "books.") One of the books is Psalms. It is a collection of songs that were sung, or rather chanted, at the temple in Jerusalem as well as in synagogues. That is why we sing them on Sundays rather than simply read them. Jesus himself knew the Psalms and quoted them on occasion. For example, on the cross, he quotes Psalm 22 when he said, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Traditionally, the Psalms are ascribed to King David. However, current scholarship indicates that while many were probably written by King David (about 73 of them), the rest were written by other people, who likewise were inspired by the Holy Spirit. In total there are 150.

The entire book of Psalms is probably the result of bringing together five different books. These would be: Psalms 1-41, 42-72,

73-89, 90-106, 107-150. Each individual book ends with a doxology, a "praise" to God. For example, Psalm 41 concludes at verse 14, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from all eternity and forever. Amen. Amen."

The Psalms form the basis for what is called the Liturgy of the Hours. Priests, deacons and religious are required to pray it every day, several times a day. The idea is to fulfill what St. Paul encouraged in "pray always." Each "hour" is comprised of three Psalms as well as other readings from the Bible and other prayers. We pray it on behalf of the whole Church; we think about the Psalms daily.

Your Brother in Christ,

Fr. Paul

Saint James' PADS Shelter Reopening in October

We have an urgent need for more volunteers to serve the unhoused!

We are very close to reopening the doors of the church to the vulnerable and unhoused in our area.

The renovation of St. James Church was thoughtfully outfitted to offer a soft place to land on a weekly basis from October through April. We are grateful to be able to offer showers, laundry, and warm meals. This is only possible with consistent, generous support from the community.

St. James PADS will reopen in October which starts next week! We still need volunteers this season.

If you have worked with PADS in the past

- Please come back and mentor new volunteers.

If you have not volunteered with PADS

- Please join one of our volunteer teams. Gather your friends to work together on a shift.

- The commitment can be as small as four hours per month or as often as you are available.

The Volunteer Roles

- Set-Up Volunteers work from 5:30-6:30 pm on Wednesdays setting up the site.
- Shift Volunteers work one Wednesday per month covering four-hour or five-hour shifts from 7:00 pm - 7:00 am. Shift Volunteers must be 18 or older, or 16 with a parent. 2nd & 3rd shift volunteers are especially needed.
- Food Teams provide and/or serve warm dinner for the guests one Wednesday per month.
- Clean-Up Volunteers work Thursday mornings 6:30-7:30 am.

- There will be additional opportunities for small groups, scouts, youth groups, community groups, teams, ministries, etc.

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

For over 40 years, the Catholic Church in the United States has celebrated National Migration Week (NMW), which has traditionally been linked to the Vatican's World Day of Migrants and Refugees, this year on Sunday, Sept. 24. As in year's past, NMW will use the theme chosen by the Holy Father: "Free to choose whether to migrate or to stay." This theme calls attention to the conviction that people have a right not to migrate and if a person migrates it should be done by choice and not by necessity.

Adapted from: National Migration Week, 2023 | USCCB website

"Even as we work to ensure that in every case migration is the fruit of a free decision, we are called to show maximum respect for the dignity of each migrant; this entails accompanying and managing waves of migration as best we can, constructing bridges and not walls, expanding channels for a safe and regular migration. In whatever place we decide to build our future, in the country of our birth or elsewhere, the important thing is that there always be a community ready to welcome, protect, promote and integrate everyone, without distinctions and without excluding anyone."

From: Message of His Holiness Pope Francis for WDMR 2023
