TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from every face.

(Is 25:8)

Psalm:

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

(Ps 23)

Second Reading:

I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

(Phil 4:12-13)

Gospel:

"Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find."

(Mt 22:9)

"Please pray for the work of the synod."

Dear Friends,

On September 14, 1965, Pope Paul VI established the Synod of Bishops "to make ever greater use of the bishops' assistance in providing for the good of the universal Church" and to enjoy "the consolation of their presence, the help of their wisdom and experience, the support of their counsel, and the voice of their authority."

A synod is described in the Canon 342 of the 1983 Code of Canon Law as "a group of bishops who have been chosen from different regions of the world and meet at fixed times to foster closer unity between the Roman Pontiff and bishops, to assist the Roman Pontiff with their counsel in the preservation and growth of faith and morals and in the observance and strengthening of ecclesiastical discipline, and to consider questions pertaining to the activity of the Church in the world."

To date there have been 16 "ordinary general" synods, including the synod now meeting in Rome, and three "extraordinary general" synods, as well as 11 "special" synods, usually addressing an issue or issues in a particular country or region. In and of themselves, synods do not have legislative power; rather, they are advisory to the Pope.

The current synod is called "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission." It is not clear to everyone what a "synodal Church means, but it seems that the goal is to discuss more effective ways to increase participation in the Church's mission, and to build communion in the Church.

Please pray for the work of the synod, and ask the Holy Spirit to guide the discussions.

God bless you, and God bless the Church,

Fr. Ed

All Saints Day, Wednesday, November 1 (Holy Day of Obligation) Mass Times: 7:30 am | Noon | 7:00 pm

Eucharistic Revival

Effective October 21, we will be exposing the Blessed Sacrament in the church before select 5:00 pm Saturday Masses. Please take the opportunity to pray before Our Lord and Savior, present in the Blessed Sacrament.

The exposition is part of our efforts at Eucharistic Revival at St. James as we and Catholics from all over the country approach the Eucharistic Congress next summer in Indianapolis.

SAINT JAMES PARISH
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

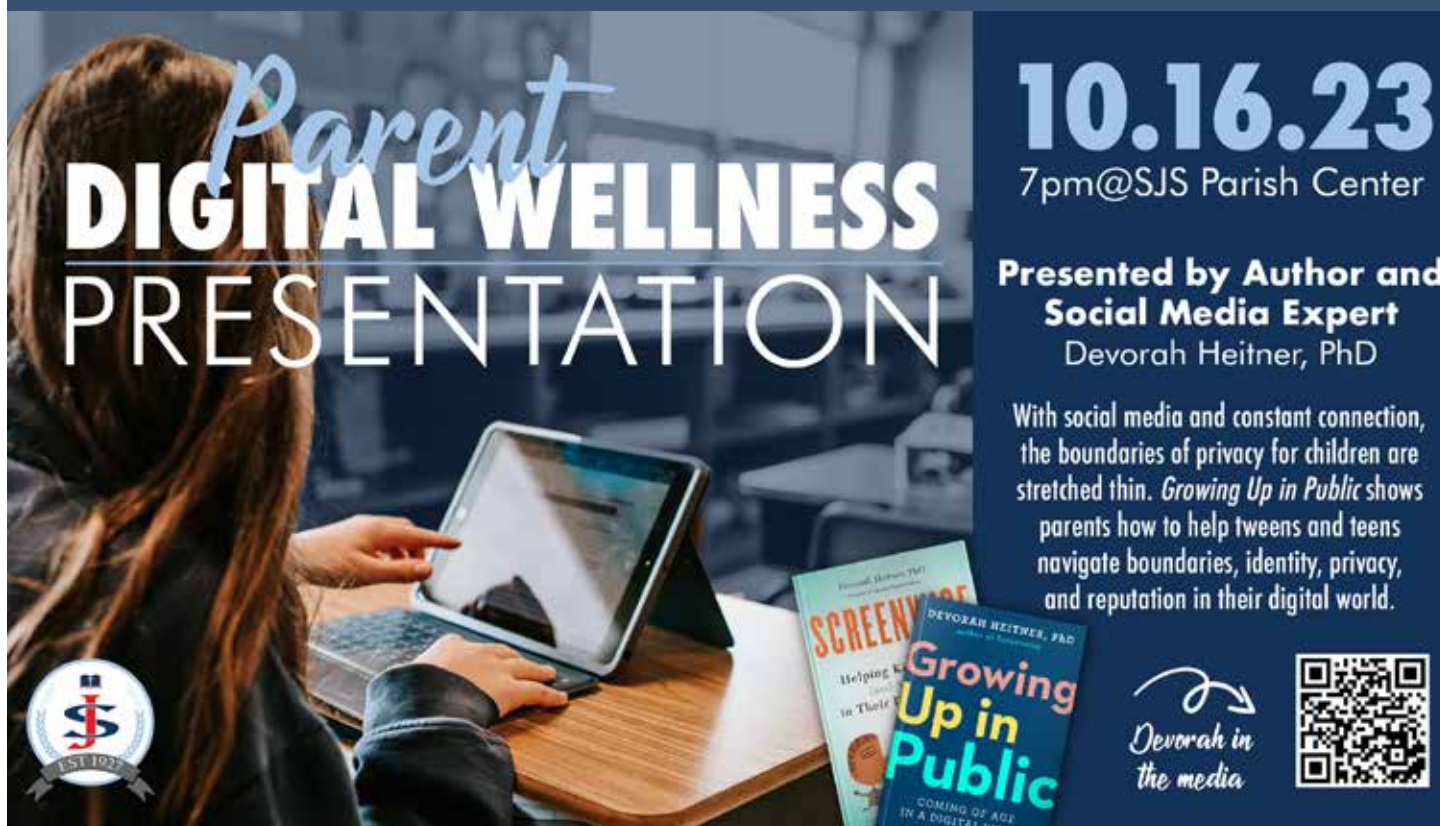

We Remember

The names of those who have died and were buried from St. James in the past year will be spoken at the 7:00 pm Mass on Thursday, November 2.

As the departed are always remembered with love in our hearts, however, participation is not strictly limited to those who have lost someone in the past year. All are welcome.

Send a photograph of your departed loved one which will be part of a display in the church for the month of November. This photo can be dropped off at the Parish Office or sent electronically to Flo Trunk at ftrunk@stjamesah.org no later than October 23. Unfortunately, we cannot return any photos.

This submission should include the first and last name, birth date and the year of their death. Please note: Only those who died between November 2022 - October 22, 2023 and who were buried from St. James will be listed in the Mass program.

Over 50 Group

All ages are invited to our next meeting.

With all that is happening on the internet these days, with emails and phone calls, the possibility of getting scammed is real! It is not just something that happens to other people.

We feel so strongly about the importance of this information that we are opening this talk up to the entire parish, regardless of age.

Come and hear Norma Ahlstrand from Wintrust Community Bank speak on how to avoid making a regrettable mistake! We will also enjoy cinnamon doughnuts and apple cider.

When: Wednesday, October 18 at 1:00 pm

Where: Laramie Room

RSVP to Frank at 847-398-2233

Your Assistance Is Requested

If you regularly attend the 5:00 pm Sunday Mass, you may have noticed that ushers are not always present to take up the collection. You may drop your contributions in the grey contribution towers located in the upper gathering space as well as in the narthex at any time. We are very thankful for your financial contributions to our community.

If you are interested in serving at the 5:00 pm Sunday Mass as an usher, please contact Deacon Hahn (see back page for info).

The St. James Stepping Stones Ministry Presents

THE CLOTHESLINE PROJECT

Dedicated to bringing compassionate awareness to violence within families & relationships

October 21 & 22, 2023
St. James Gathering Space

You are invited to give a voice to victims you know by adding their first name to a paper t-shirt on our clothesline. Each shirt color represents a different type of violence, and each shirt honors a survivor's strength and courage. As they rest shoulder to shoulder, bearing witness to the cruelties that exist in society, may our Christian community embrace them with prayers of healing.

Join us in remembering. Join us in prayer. Join us in ending the violence.

Everyone deserves to be in safe, healthy relationships.
If you or someone you know are in an abusive relationship, a path to safety exists. Get help.

Feed the Hungry - Loaves & Fishes Ministry

For over thirty years, the St. James community has reached out to the homeless in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood. The Loaves & Fishes Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for women at Sarah's Circle. Our ministry operates every Saturday beginning in October and continues through the last weekend in April.

We previously supported the NS Housing men's shelter. Unfortunately, this shelter has temporarily moved to the Midway Airport area. With regret, we are unable to provide support until its return to the Uptown neighborhood. Further information will follow once we receive notification.

Numerous St. James groups prepare lunches and meals, and many families and individuals make lunches, pick up soup and bread and give up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. Thanks to all who have helped in the past.

Now Seeking Volunteers To:

- Pick up bread from Central Continental Bakery on Friday evening
- Pick up soup from local restaurants on Saturday afternoon
- Make approximately 50 lunches
- Transport the donations (soup, bread, lunches) to the volunteer driving to the shelters
- Deliver food to the shelter by 5PM on Saturday

Thank you to those businesses who donate soup on a regular basis: Egg Harbor • Peggy Kinnane's • Cooper's Hawk • Central Continental Bakery

The support received from these establishments is essential in the work of this ministry: feeding the hungry.

MINISTRY UPDATES

Viator House of Hospitality Award

On October 7 St. James received an award accepted by Fr. Ed Pelrine. Parishioners Sarah Tipperreiter along with George Ostendorf were acknowledged for going above and beyond along with Fr. Matt Foley and Fr. Ed Pelrine. St. James has been a Faith Community Partner since 2018. Its inception was 2017.

The award recognizes the hope offered by the significant and ongoing dedication an individual or community has made to the men who call Viator House home.

St. James, as a parish and through several member families, has been a significant partner to Viator House since its beginning through committed volunteers and generous financial support.

Calling All Knitters and Crocheters!

Please help us keep PADS guests (and others) warmer this winter, by creating a winter scarf. Got some yarn in your stash that might work? Any pattern of about 6 inches wide by 60 inches long will be greatly appreciated. For the ninth year, we are participating in the Chase the Chill outreach to provide handmade, warm scarves for those in need.

On the weekend of November 18-19 you are invited to tie your scarf around designated trees in front of the St. James Church entrance. PADS guests will select their scarf on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

For more information or a pattern, please check out www.chasethechill.com or connect with Kathy at kk_ek@msn.com or at 847-255-8899. Thank you!

CHASE THE CHILL

Migrants, refugees and asylum seekers: Who are they, why do they come and how does Catholic Charities help them?

What Does It Mean To Be A Migrant?

Migrants are vulnerable people who are fleeing their country of origin and seeking safety and opportunity elsewhere. The Catholic Church recognizes the right of all nations to control their borders and the flow of migrants within. At the same time, the church recognizes the right of individuals to migrate in search of safety and security, which often means leaving one's country of origin. At the end of 2021, 89.3 million people worldwide had been forcibly displaced. Of those, 27.1 million were considered refugees, 53.2 million were internally displaced (still living within their home country but forced to flee to another region) and 4.6 million were asylum seekers.

Refugee vs. Asylum Seeker

Refugees abroad (many of them living in refugee camps) are designated by the United Nations and the U.S. State Department for acceptance into the country. Refugees are closely supported by a number of entities. They are "documented" migrants. Asylum seekers experience a different process. If they are released into the United States interior by the federal government, asylum seekers will typically be given a Notice to Appear (NTA), the charging document that signals the initiation of removal proceedings against an individual.

Once released from custody, many asylum seekers receive services at a border respite center. Asylum seekers face overwhelming barriers to reach the U.S. and obtain asylum.

Contrary to common misperceptions, asylum seekers are not eligible for federally funded benefits or resources, including the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Medicaid or public housing assistance.

Employment is not an immediate option. Asylum seekers must wait at least 150 days after filing a complete asylum application before applying for employment authorization.

How does Catholic Charities Help?

For more than 110 years, the Catholic Charities community has recognized the inherent dignity of every person, regardless of where they come from or how they arrived. Catholic Charities agencies offer a continuum of services to those in need. In 2021, Catholic Charities agencies served more than 608,000 vulnerable people on the move via welcoming and integration-specific programming.
