

SAINT JAMES PARISH

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

God Is Near

Creator of the Universe,
May I always choose to see through eyes of faith.
When I see fearful and frustrated faces, may I see Your eyes.
When I see the raging storm coming, may I see your breath.
When I see the fragile bodies of those who are ill,
may I see Your broken body upon a cross.
When I gaze upon all there is and will be,
may I see and believe, without reservation,
that You ARE ALIVE and You ARE NEAR.
May Your Kingdom come and Your will be done.
Amen

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

Thus says the LORD
to his anointed, Cyrus,
whose right hand I grasp,
subduing nations before
him.

(Is 45:1)

Psalm:

Give the Lord glory and honor.

(Ps 96)

Second Reading:

We give thanks to God
always for all of you,
remembering you in
our prayers, unceasingly
calling to mind your work
of faith and labor of love.

(1 Thes 1:2-3)

Gospel:

"Then repay to Caesar
what belongs to Caesar
and to God what belongs to God."

(Mt 22:21)

"Many classics of the horror genre are, at their core, theological."

In our secular culture, October is often associated with Halloween. That's fine, other than the fact that so many people don't realize any longer that it is short for "All Hallows Eve," because it is the night before All Saints Day in the Catholic Church.

To that end, I am reminded of an article I read years ago that explored how the classic horror genre of books and movies – think Bram Stoker's Dracula and Night of the Living Dead, not Twilight and Resident Evil – were, at their core, theological. For example, in the classic genre, zombies represent death, hence, while they moved slowly, the never ceased moving. You can outrun death in the short term but can never escape it.

I don't think that classic horror authors always intended their works to be theological. However, questions such as life and death will always lead to questions about everlasting life; questions about good and evil lean in the direction of God.

The classic genre existed in a Judeo-Christian culture, thus the framework in which the stories came to exist imparted Judeo-Christian themes.

Unlike before, now zombies can sometimes move fast and are at times more intelligent than the slowly moving mindless monsters from before.

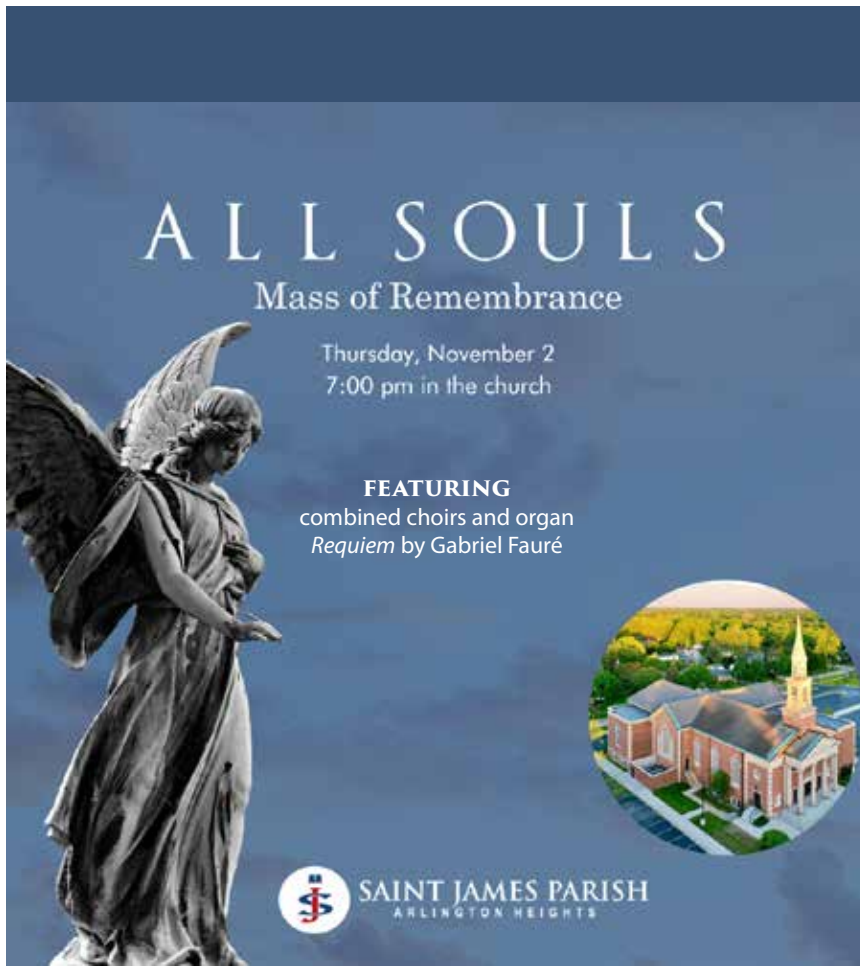

Vampires fill an interesting niche. Underneath the classic Dracula is a Christian framework: Van Helsing is an agent of the Holy See (i.e. the Vatican) and things such as holy water and the Eucharist are used to combat vampires. Christ is the light in the darkness, having risen from the dead. Dracula represents evil and the rejection of God, and thus is banished to the darkness.

The world of Twilight, in contrast, has a Mormon framework – Meyers is Mormon – and I think explains why vampires can walk about in daylight and so on. (Mormonism has an embedded deification theme different than Christianity.)

This coming All Saints Day, may we seek to be holy and walk in the light of Christ.

Your Brother in Christ,

Fr. Paul

We Remember

The names of those who have died and were buried from St. James in the past year will be spoken at the 7:00 pm Mass on Thursday, November 2.

As the departed are always remembered with love in our hearts, however, participation is not strictly limited to those who have lost someone in the past year. All are welcome.

Send a photograph of your departed loved one which will be part of a display in the church for the month of November. This photo can be dropped off at the Parish Office or sent electronically to Flo Trunk at ftrunk@stjamesah.org no later than Monday, October 23. Unfortunately, we cannot return any photos.

This submission should include the first and last name, birth date and the year of their death. Please note: Only those who died between November 2022 - October 22, 2023 and who were buried from St. James will be listed in the Mass program.

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

In the spirit of Eucharistic Revival the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament takes place this Saturday before the 5:00 pm Mass. St. James will continue this practice on select Saturdays as we and Catholics from all over the country approach the Eucharistic Congress next summer in Indianapolis.

Eucharistic Congress | July 17-21, 2024

Come make history with us in Indianapolis at the 10th National Eucharistic Congress, where we will gather at the feet of Jesus for the first time in nearly a century, boldly anticipating a new Pentecost. Your life—and our Church—will never be the same. A group from St. James will attend. More details to come. See resources below to learn more.

The St. James Stepping Stones Ministry Presents

THE CLOTHESLINE PROJECT

Dedicated to bringing compassionate awareness to violence within families & relationships

October 21 & 22, 2023
St. James Gathering Space

You are invited to give a voice to victims you know by adding their first name to a paper t-shirt on our clothesline. Each shirt color represents a different type of violence, and each shirt honors a survivor's strength and courage. As they rest shoulder to shoulder, bearing witness to the cruelties that exist in society, may our Christian community embrace them with prayers of healing.

Join us in remembering. Join us in prayer. Join us in ending the violence.

Everyone deserves to be in safe, healthy relationships.
If you or someone you know are in an abusive relationship, a path to safety exists. Get help.

The Ministry of Care

Available to the ill and homebound

On behalf of our parish, Ministers of Care bring Jesus (communion) to Catholics in nursing homes, rehabilitation centers and at Northwest Community Hospital. They also serve those who are homebound.

If you have a family member or friend that would like them to visit, contact the parish office (224-345-7200).

Please keep the Ministers of Care and the people they visit in your prayers.

Ways to Give

When you give to St. James, you're supporting the life and mission of our parish as we seek to share the love of Christ with our community.

Gifts of Treasure

- Giving online is a secure, easy way to simplify your contributions. St. James uses Faith Direct. This online giving platform allows you to set up one-time or recurring financial gifts.
- Drop off your gift in person at Mass or at the parish office.

Gifts of Time & Talent

- Involvement in any of our ministries or apostolates is a wonderful way to give back to God and strengthen our parish.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus tells us: "repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." This answer, coming in response to a trick question of whether it was lawful for Jews to pay taxes to Caesar, gives us pause.

To be sure, the government has its area of responsibility, so do pay your taxes, stop at red lights, and don't be a terrorist. But what belongs to God? Everything. God created the universe out of nothing; it is his. The government must conform itself to God's laws.

In our lives, we can be tempted to compartmentalize, thinking that we give God his hour on Sunday, but the rest of the week is ours.

Likewise, we tend to think that we can volunteer for a parish group such as the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and then spend the rest of our time the way we want.

We should volunteer and we do have other things to do. Yet, when we volunteer, we are not giving to God and the Church community like we give to Caesar. We are giving back to God what is already, truly his.

So, here is a question to ponder: how am I giving back to God and his Church community what is already his in terms of my talent and abilities?

~ Father Paul Stein

Feed the Hungry - Loaves & Fishes Ministry

For over thirty years, the St. James community has reached out to the homeless in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood. The Loaves & Fishes Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for women at Sarah's Circle. Our ministry operates every Saturday beginning in October and continues through the last weekend in April.

We previously supported the NS Housing men's shelter. Unfortunately, this shelter has temporarily moved to the Midway Airport area. With regret, we are unable to provide support until its return to the Uptown neighborhood. Further information will follow once we receive notification.

Numerous St. James groups prepare lunches and meals, and many families and individuals make lunches, pick up soup and bread and give up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. Thanks to all who have helped in the past.

Now Seeking Volunteers To:

- Pick up bread from Central Continental Bakery on Friday evening
- Pick up soup from local restaurants on Saturday afternoon
- Make approximately 50 lunches
- Transport the donations (soup, bread, lunches) to the volunteer driving to the shelters
- Deliver food to the shelter by 5PM on Saturday

Thank you to those businesses who donate soup on a regular basis: Egg Harbor • Peggy Kinnane's • Cooper's Hawk • Central Continental Bakery

The support received from these establishments is essential in the work of this ministry: feeding the hungry.

Pray for Peace in the Middle East

Jim and I arrived home from a pilgrimage to the Holy Land on Friday evening, just hours before the bombing in Israel occurred. Somehow we were divinely protected by leaving the day before the bombing occurred.

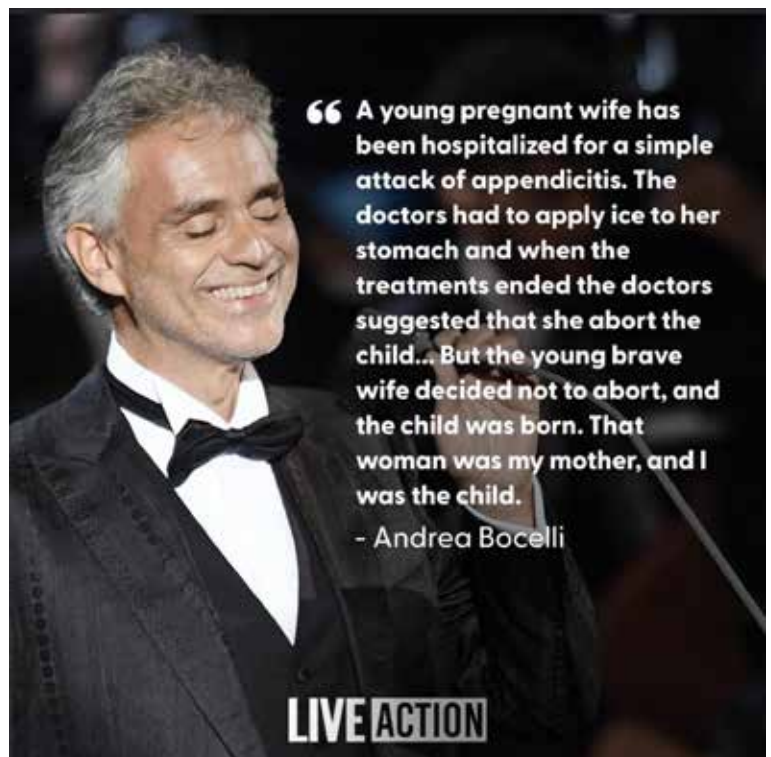

Words can't describe the scenes of violence, the lack of regard for life, all in the name of power and the presence of evil. Yet Jim and I and our fellow pilgrims were spared. I ask, "why were we spared, Lord?" Some would say we were just lucky. As believers, we know luck plays no part. We can't walk away from this without knowing that we have a responsibility to pray without ceasing.

Prayer is essential in our Catholic christian life, yet sometimes it may be too casual. We are a prayerful community, blessed to live in America. Can you imagine being born into a culture where hatred and fear are simply a way of life? A place where children awaken to fear and uncertainty?

Let us join our hearts and pray for peace.

Lord, hear our prayer.

~ Rusty McDermott, St. James parishioner
