THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans."
(Ex 22:21-23)

Psalm:

I love you, Lord, my strength.
(Ps 18)

Second Reading:

For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven.
(1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel:

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."
(Mt 22:37)

"We honor and pray to all the saints; those known and unknown."

Dear Friends,

An eventful week lies before us. Tuesday is, of course, Halloween, the eve of "All Hallows Day," otherwise known as the Solemnity of All Saints, an important feast day in our Church calendar. The feast has been celebrated at least since the fourth century, and in the ninth century the date was fixed on November 1. We honor and pray to all the saints, those known and unknown. This feast reflects our belief in the Communion of Saints, which we profess every Sunday in the Nicene and Apostles Creeds. By our Baptism, we are made members of this Communion, which includes those baptized on earth, those in Heaven, and those being purified in Purgatory.

On November 2, we mark All Souls Day, a day set aside for prayers for all the faithful departed who are in need of our prayers and Masses for their final purification. That evening we will offer a Requiem Mass at 7:00 pm for all the dead, and especially for those who have been buried from St. James in the past year. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. We also offer our deep sympathy to all who have lost a loved one in the past year.

Next Saturday, November 4, we will celebrate Jubilation: It's a Wonderful Life at 6:00 pm at the Lincolnshire Marriott. This is our annual gala to raise funds for a host of charitable organizations, as well as for St. James School tuition assistance and the St. James St. Vincent de Paul Society, offering emergency aid to those in need. I am struck by the generosity of our people at this event. Please plan on joining us!

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

P.S. I was on retreat the week of October 16. It was a needed time of prayer. I expressed my gratitude to God for the people and staff of St. James.

Veterans Day Mass, Nov. 11

Mass to Honor Veterans

On November 11, Veterans Day, we remember and honor all veterans for their sacrifice of time, comfort, ambition, health and prosperity. Their sacrifice means we may live in peace, and, ultimately, enjoy religious freedom.

We kindly ask that you keep our men and women of the armed forces in your prayers always.

Veterans will be recognized at 7:30 am Mass on Saturday, November 11 here at St. James. We will remember family members who were killed in action as well as current military.

Share the Names

Please forward all names of active service members and deceased veterans to be remembered at this special Veterans Day Mass to Deacon Matthew at mhahn@stjamesah.org or 224.345.7207 on or before Monday, November 6.

OUR PARISH CARES

Bereavement Ministry

Compassionate Hearts Are Needed

"We are called to servanthood in the name of God, following the new commandment ~ Love one another as I have loved you." (John Towner, composer).

There are no spoken or written words to adequately define this ministry. Some things can only be spoken in the heart.

St. James Bereavement Ministry serves those who are grieving. The devastation that accompanies losing a loved one can be paralyzing. As bereavement ministers, we walk with those who are grieving, helping them plan the funeral Mass which is a meaningful celebration of the life of their loved one. Perhaps most importantly, bereavement ministers listen to the story of the deceased from those who loved them best. It is a ministry of presence.

Bereavement ministers are trained by another bereavement minister. New ministers "shadow" them until they become comfortable soloing. When a funeral comes into our office, our receptionist emails the information to all bereavement ministers. The first minister who is available sends a response to the office and copies all bereavement ministers. The process of contacting the family begins then. If you have a compassionate heart and would like to join our team, we will welcome you with open arms. For more information, contact the Parish Office at 224-345-7200.

The Ministry of Care

Available to the ill and homebound

On behalf of our parish, Ministers of Care bring Jesus (communion) to Catholics in nursing homes, rehabilitation centers and at Northwest Community Hospital. They also serve those who are homebound.

If you have a family member or friend that would like them to visit, contact the parish office (224-345-7200).

Please keep the Ministers of Care and the people they visit in your prayers.

Serve at Mass - Liturgical Volunteers Needed

Here are the top four volunteer positions we need covered at weekend Masses. Will you serve and make a difference?

1. Ushers: Assist with seating and take up the collection
2. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion: Distribute the Body & Blood of Christ
3. Greeters: Welcome all at the entry doors
4. Musicians & Singers: Offer prayerful music

Opportunities are available for all ages. Contact Tamaron Conseur, Director of Music and Liturgy, for more information about music and liturgical ministries.

enKindle asks the Holy Spirit to fill the women at St. James with the knowledge and love of God that they may spread the knowledge of love of God to everyone they know. While evenings of enlightenment are women focused, all are welcome.

Pray with Us

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.
