*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

OUR LORD, JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

(Ez 34:17)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

(Ps 23)

Second Reading:

When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

(1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."

(Mt 25:31-32)

"The salvation he offers is not earned; it is not deserved."

Dear Friends,

We come to the completion of another liturgical year, or "Year of Grace" on this Feast of Christ the King. We hear the telling of the awe-filled final judgment in Matthew's Gospel. Jesus speaks of his Second Coming. It will be strikingly different from his First Coming at Christmas, when he was born into our race, into poverty, in a stable.

His Second coming will be "in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him" (Matt 25:31). St. Paul in 1 Corinthians describes the judgment, "in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power."

Those who belong to Christ are the members of his Body who have responded to his grace in love, in serving the needs of the other before their own. The salvation he offers is not earned, it is not deserved. Rather, it is sheer gift, won at the cost of his blood. It is an offering of glorified eternal life, union with God in his dynamic inner Trinitarian life.

At our Baptism, Jesus claims us as his own - "you belong to me." At our judgment, may we hear the same words. The greatest tragedy would be to choose not to belong to him. It really is our choice. A deceased priest wrote years ago in his journal just before he died these heartfelt words, "All for love, for Him, as He has been all for me."

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Angels Among Us

A ONE-NIGHT TALK WITH Q&A
11.27.24 | 7:00-8:30PM
PRESENTED BY FR. PAUL

Learn:

What is an angel, exactly? Why is each one its own species?

What kind of angel is Satan?

Why can't fallen angels be saved? Does God refuse to forgive them?

What would we see if we could see the angelic realm?

What is demonic oppression and obsession?

Location: Laramie Room

Prepare Your Heart for Him

The worship environment for this year's Advent Season follows the liturgical tradition of purple colors.

One of the most recognizable symbols of the season is the Advent wreath. It's circular shape is a reminder that God has no beginning and no end; the evergreen branches denote everlasting life; and the four candles symbolize Christ as the Light of the World.

It is our hope that you are inspired during this Advent season to joyfully anticipate what an awesome event is about to unfold—the birth of Christ, Light of the World—on Christmas Day.

Noon Mass During Advent December 4-22.

St. James will hold an additional daily Mass each weekday at noon.

Are you interested in learning more about the
St. James Junior Ambassadors?

St. James Jr. Ambassadors Club invites our children to experience and exercise the corporal works of mercy, as we explore the many ministries at St. James that are feeding the hungry, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, visiting the sick, and caring for creation. Each time we meet, we will learn about the impact a child can have in this world when they follow Jesus.

The Things That Endure

In the Sistine Chapel in Rome, where the cardinals meet to choose the next pope, there is a monumental painting of the Last Judgment by Michelangelo. One of the reasons that painting was put there, back in the late 1500's, was to remind the cardinals that they will have to answer to God for the choice they make of the next pope. We too are going to have to answer to God for how we use the gifts he has given us: for self-indulgence, or for self-giving.

Our choices and efforts in life matter to God; they have a lasting impact, for good or evil; they really do mean something.

One of the greatest theological minds of our time, Cardinal Francis George, gave a famous saying before he died. He said, "The only thing we take with us when we die is what we have given away. The only things that endure are our relationships with God and with each other." As we conclude the liturgical year, let each of us reflect on how we are living our life remembering the words of Jesus, "Whatever you do to the least of my people, you do unto me."

~ Fr. Michael Grzesik

MINISTRY UPDATES

YOUNG ADULTS Age 21 - 35

Join us this year for mass and meetups! Come together as a young adult community for Mass and come build community afterwards over drinks and dinner.

The next event is Wednesday, November 29 starting at 6:00 pm in the church. Father Dan Korenchan will celebrate the Holy Mass.

This is our last meetup for 2023; no gathering in December.

At this Season of Thanks, for their efforts in supporting victims and working to end domestic and teen dating violence, Stepping Stones gratefully acknowledges,

ACDVO (Arch. Chicago Domestic Violence Outreach) for their dedication to awareness, services and prevention in the fight to end domestic violence; for establishing and supporting parish domestic violence ministries in Cook and Lake Counties

Between Friends for providing direct crisis intervention and legal assistance services to victims; offering teen dating violence prevention and community education and training programs

Catholic Charities for assisting victims and survivors along a path to safety and better lives through counseling, education, transitional housing, and outreach programs

CDC for creating Dating Matters, a healthy relationships curriculum for junior high students which has been implemented in six Archdiocesan and six Chicago public schools

Fr. Chuck Dahm for spearheading domestic violence awareness efforts in the Archdiocese of Chicago and founding ACDVO

Life Span for offering legal representation, counseling, court advocacy, and immigration legal services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking within Chicago and Cook County

St. James Pastors and Staff for supporting Stepping Stones' education and awareness efforts for the past 14 years

WINGS for providing an avenue to self-sufficiency for those experiencing domestic violence by offering housing, children and family services, hospital outreach, mentoring and counseling.

Welcome Newly Arriving Refugees

Sign up now to greet and provide a warm welcome to a refugee family (or individual) when they first arrive in our community!

Refugees often arrive in Chicago with only a few personal possessions. Help turn an empty apartment into a home by collecting and delivering all the basic household items the very first day they arrive. All items must be new. Collection will be 12/10-12/14. More details on the signup link.

We are thrilled to announce that the St. James Annual Mercy Box program will be a part of our Christmas charities again this year.

The spirit of Christmas is alive as these food boxes benefit a diverse group of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

Mercy Boxes will be distributed after all Masses on the weekend of December 2-3. The boxes will come unassembled, with a list of food items needed attached to the box. It will not be necessary to wrap the box.

Filled boxes are due back to St James on Sunday, December 17.
