Glory to God in the highest and on earth
peace to those on whom his favor rests

Dear Friends,

This is the message of the angels announcing the birth of the Messiah, the anointed one, the savior sent to rescue us from the filth of sin and death.

He has come to save us, to offer us a new way of living, a new way of understanding our relationship with the God who sees us as beloved sons and daughters.

A blessed Christmas to all of you! May you come to know the great love of God for you as we celebrate this solemn feast.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Ed

...FROM ST. JAMES

The Gift of Time

Isn't it a little crazy: Christmas is Jesus' birthday, and yet we are busy giving gifts to everyone else but the birthday boy. Did you ever wonder what Jesus wants for his birthday? I think he may want TIME. It is a special gift that, in a way, can only be given once.

At the same time – no pun intended – that is the gift he has already given to us. In the Gospel reading for Christmas day, we read: “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be.”

Not only did God create time itself, but God gave us his own personal time. When God the Son took on our human nature and was born in Bethlehem, he was giving us 33 years of his presence on earth.

Are we willing to give to Jesus our time? Are we willing to volunteer, pray, worship, and spend time at St. James? Are willing to give Jesus a unique gift of TIME for his birthday?

~ Fr. Paul Stein

Christmas Readings

First Reading:

For a child is born to us, a son is given us; upon his shoulder dominion rests.
(Isaiah 9:5)

Psalm:

Today is born our Savior,
Christ the Lord.
(Psalm 96)

Second Reading:

The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age.
(Timothy 2:11-12)

Gospel:

“For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord.”
(Luke 2:11)
