ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

"COME, AND YOU WILL SEE." - JN 1:39A

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JAN 14

2024

*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

The LORD came and revealed his presence, calling out as before, "Samuel, Samuel!" Samuel answered, "Speak, for your servant is listening."
(1 Sm 3:10)

Psalm:

Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.
(Ps 40)

Second Reading:

Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? But whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one Spirit with him.
(1 Cor 6:15, 17)

Gospel:

So they went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day.
(Jn 1:39)

"Thank you to all who generously shared their time, talent and treasure."

Dear Friends,

Another Christmas season has passed. Hard to believe how quickly it has passed. We had wonderful celebrations of the holy days, with so many people giving their best.

I would like to thank everyone who gave so generously of their time and talent: those who decorated the church so beautifully, our liturgical ministers – ushers, lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, our sacristans and altar servers, our choirs, cantors, and our music director, who enhanced our worship so beautifully, our priests and deacons, office staff and maintenance people.

It is all a labor of love. We worship the God who loves us to the point of death, who was raised from the dead, and who offers us life in abundance and in eternity. His birth as a man in Bethlehem was his love offering to us humans.

Thank you also to all who so generously gave of their own gifts for the support of the parish. You are the best!

Our prayers are with you as we begin this New Year of 2024. God love you!

Fr. Ed

Tuition Assistance Program

We're excited to share that from November onwards, we've gathered $140,796 through various initiatives like Jubilation Paddle Raise, corporate grants, and recent #GivingTuesday and end-of-Giving-Season campaigns! While we've made substantial strides towards our $200,000 target, we're not quite there yet. Your support is crucial to prevent any interruption in funding for our students. Please consider donating TODAY to the SJS Tuition Assistance Program (TAP). Every contribution counts!

Implicit Bias

In Open Wide Our Hearts, the bishops write: "Racism can often be found in our hearts – in many cases placed there unwillingly or unknowingly by our upbringing and culture. As such, it can lead to thoughts and actions that we do not even see as racist, but nonetheless flow from the same prejudicial root. Consciously or subconsciously, this attitude of superiority can be seen in how certain groups of people are vilified, called criminals, or are perceived as being unable to contribute to society, even unworthy of its benefits."

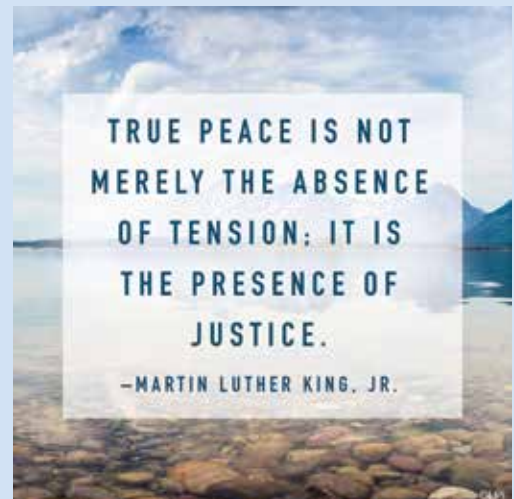

Racism is evil because it violates the fundamental dignity of the human person who is made in the image and likeness of God, and it denies the unity of the human family. Education about racism can be life-changing, opening one's eyes to racial injustices within our history that persist today.

Implicit bias is a challenging topic. It may help to prayerfully reflect upon the following questions:

- What attitudes or perceptions do you have about cultural ethnic groups outside of your own?
- Where do you think these attitudes or perceptions came from?
- What is an example of a way that you may have acted differently toward someone of another ethnic group because of implicit bias?
- How does bias and the way it causes us to act fail to respect the dignity of every child of God?
- What can you do to overcome your own biases?

Search online for these educational videos and a self-quiz that may be helpful during this reflection.
