FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

(Acts 4:12)

Psalm:

The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

(Ps 118)

Second Reading:

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

(1 Jn 3:2)

Gospel:

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

(Jn 10:11)

"Jesus has something precious and unique to offer those who follow Him."

Dear Friends,

There is something scandalous in the readings of today's Mass. Skandalon (from the Greek σκανδαλον) means any stumbling block, impediment or offense.

In Acts Peter's bold claim, "There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved," particularly in today's climate of indifferentism (the belief that differences of religious belief are of no importance), could be seen as arrogant and exclusive. The Apostle's claim is exclusive; it says that Jesus has something precious and unique to offer those who follow Him.

In fact, we know that Jesus Himself told His Apostles, "I am the Way and the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through me," (John 14:6).

Other world religions do not have the understanding of salvation which Christ revealed to us. They reject the notion of, "divine filiation," or becoming sons and daughters of God which is a scandal to them. In the second reading we hear, "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are."

These passages of Sacred Scripture reveal to us God's desire for a communion of life and love with His creatures. Our God Jesus went to His death for this. His Resurrection, which we celebrate in a glorious way during these fifty days of the Easter season, conquered death and gives us hope – hope that we will share His life eternally if we live for Him, and receive Baptism and the Holy Spirit. After that we must go into the world and proclaim this Truth to everyone.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

BOOK DISCUSSION

The Sum of Us, by Heather McGhee

Tuesday, April 30 at 7:00 pm
SJ School Library (West side AH Rd.)

About the Book: Heather McGhee's specialty is the American economy—and the mystery of why it so often fails the American public. From the financial crisis of 2008 to rising student debt to collapsing public infrastructure, she found a root problem: racism in our politics and policymaking. But not just in the most obvious indignities for people of color. Racism has costs for white people, too. It is the common denominator of our most vexing public problems, the core dysfunction of our democracy and constitutive of the spiritual and moral crises that grip us all. But how did this happen? And is there a way out?

Fr. Larry Dowling will facilitate the discussion.
