THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses.

(Acts 3:15)

Psalm:

Lord, let your face shine on us.

(Psalm 4)

Second Reading:

He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world.

(1 Jn 2:2)

Gospel:

"Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day."

(Lk 24:46)

"Witnessing our Catholic faith is the urgent task of all the baptized & confirmed."

Dear Friends,

"You are witnesses of these things," says Jesus to the Apostles after His resurrection. What things is Jesus referring to? "Thus it is written that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem." Luke 24:46-48

In these verses Jesus is speaking to the whole Church as well. He is speaking to us today. Witnessing our Catholic faith to the world is the urgent task of every baptized and confirmed Catholic. Recently Cardinal Gregory, the Archbishop of Washington, rightly spoke quite clearly about the unacceptable practice of choosing which Catholic teachings one will accept, while rejecting others. He was speaking particularly about those who publicly proclaim their Catholicism while rejecting and even attacking defined Church teaching.

It can be a real temptation to downplay, ignore or even reject those challenging teachings of our Church. We are witnesses of these things. Let's pray that the grace and the power of the Holy Spirit will strengthen us to be true witnesses.

Last week we had an inspiring celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday. Five priest heard confessions for up to four hours as hundreds of people received the Lord's forgiveness and mercy in that powerful sacrament. Special thanks to Fr. Michael Grzesik and Regina Kastner who planned and prepared the event, and all the priests who went through that marathon, as well as church decorators, readers and Tam Conseur and our musicians.

Also, congratulations to our confirmandi who received the sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop Perry over the last three days. Thanks to Bethany Larson and all our catechists who prepared them.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

BOOK DISCUSSION

The Sum of Us, by Heather McGhee

Tuesday, April 30 at 7:00 pm
SJ School Library (West side AH Rd.)

About the Book: Heather McGhee's specialty is the American economy—and the mystery of why it so often fails the American public. From the financial crisis of 2008 to rising student debt to collapsing public infrastructure, she found a root problem: racism in our politics and policymaking. But not just in the most obvious indignities for people of color. Racism has costs for white people, too. It is the common denominator of our most vexing public problems, the core dysfunction of our democracy and constitutive of the spiritual and moral crises that grip us all. But how did this happen? And is there a way out?

Fr. Larry Dowling will facilitate the discussion.

Dear Parishioners,

You may have noticed scaffolding along the North exterior wall of the church. "Why," you ask? We are repairing and re-attaching the limestone quoins at the corners of the original church. Some of the hardware that attaches the quoins to the building itself are corroding. We will be re-attaching the quoins with stainless steel anchors to prevent corrosion in the future. Please do reach out to me if you have questions, and to see a few pictures of the progress.
