

Happy Father's Day!

We are blessed to have so many wonderful dads and father figures in our community. After Mass this weekend, we invite you to stop by the upper gathering space to pick up a special gift.

BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Today's Readings

First Reading:

And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom.

(Ez 17:24)

Psalm:

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you. (Ps 92)

Second Reading:

Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. (2 Cor 5:9)

Gospel:

"It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants." (Mk 4:31-32)

"I can see that God is raising up saints in our day ... He has given us all we need to carry out his great commission."

To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.- Mark 4:30-32

Jesus uses this well-known image – that of the tiny mustard seed – to describe the Kingdom of God. Maybe that's an apt symbol for the Church today, truly suffering in so many ways, and in what looks like a diminished state. It's true that we can see decline in the Church in so many ways, and it's painful to watch.

On the other hand, if we open our eyes, we can also see signs of God's work – the fruit of the Word of God – the Scriptures and Jesus the Divine Word. I can see that God is raising up saints in our day. Maybe an urgent message God is sending us is that we can never conquer men's and women's souls with the tools of this world. It is only through trusting in the power of God and the power of His Word and His grace that we can be victorious over sin and corruption and false promises, and introduce people to a life-changing relationship with the Father through Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. God has "empowered us for mission." He has given us all we need to carry out his great commission to preach the Gospel to all nations.

St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians, "We are always courageous." (2 Cor 5:6). Have courage!

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

P.S. Please join us after all Sunday morning Masses for Hospitality in the Laramie Room today.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PATH TO SUNDAY

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTIONS TO CARRY YOU TO SUNDAY AND THROUGH THE WEEK

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B | Gospel of Mk 4:26-34

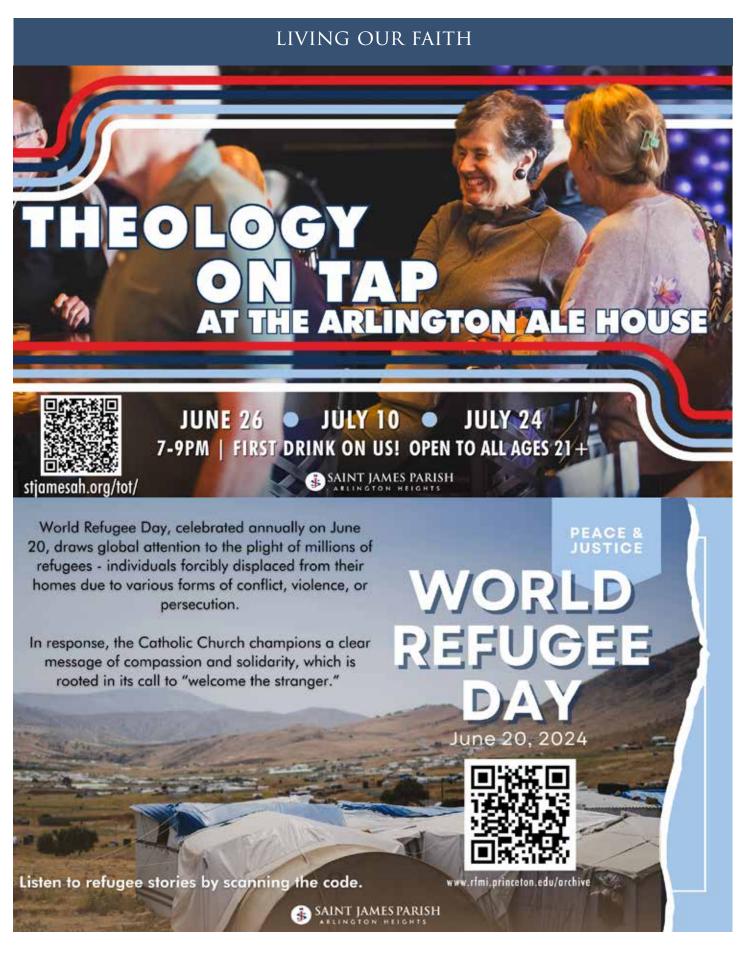

In Sunday's readings, we explore the Kingdom of God, a term often used but not always fully understood. Many people equate the Kingdom of God with heaven or an eternal life with God, but often miss its broader implications. Historically, during Jesus' time, the phrase 'Kingdom of God' evoked varied responses. The Sadducees saw it as a shadowy existence, while the Pharisees anticipated a revived Kingdom of Israel led by a messianic descendant of King David.

Jesus, however, presented a different understanding. As King, not merely through earthly descent but as God incarnate, He spoke of a heavenly kingdom that transcends physical space. It is a state of existence with God, akin to an alternate reality or parallel dimension. This kingdom is also made up of people, described as living stones built into a spiritual house.

Jesus' teachings indicate that the Kingdom of God is both present and future—it is growing now, through the Church, and will be fully realized in the end times. Our entry into this kingdom is through grace and requires our cooperation. We must live as true citizens of this kingdom, reflecting Jesus' reign in all aspects of our lives.

Reflection Questions:

- How are you living as a citizen of the Kingdom of God in your daily actions?
- 2. Is Jesus truly the King over your life, influencing your choices and behaviors?
- 3. How do you cooperate with God's grace to grow spiritually?

Happy Father's Day!

Fathers in Our Lives

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail.

We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

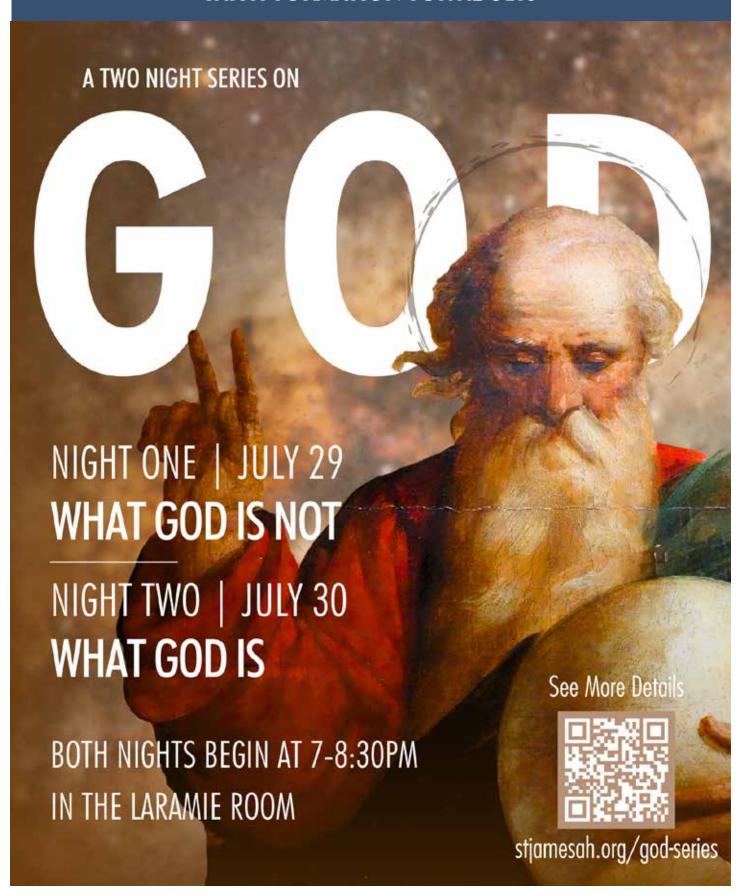

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.

In Your Holy name, O God, we pray.

Amen.- Rev. Chuck Currie
