SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PATH TO SUNDAY

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"For thus says the LORD,
'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" (2 Kgs 4:43)

Psalms:

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.
(Ps 145)

Second Reading:

One body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call;
one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all.
(Eph 4:4-6)

Gospel:

Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted.
(Jn 6:11)

"His mission transcends political power; it is about spiritual nourishment and eternal life."

Today, we explore a significant event from the Gospel of John: the miraculous feeding of the 5,000. At first glance, it's a story of Jesus multiplying loaves and fish to feed a hungry crowd; an extraordinary display of his power. But as we dig deeper, we uncover layers of profound meaning that resonate with our faith today.

Imagine being among the crowd that day, witnessing Jesus take five loaves and two fish, give thanks, and miraculously provide for thousands. This act wasn't just about satisfying physical hunger; it was a prelude to something greater - the institution of the Eucharist. By giving thanks (from the Greek eucharistein), Jesus foreshadowed the sacrament that would sustain his followers throughout history.

The twelve baskets of leftovers signify God's abundant grace and the unity of his Church. Jesus, fulfilling the hopes of his people as the promised Messiah, challenges earthly expectations by withdrawing from their attempts to make him king. His mission transcends political power; it is about spiritual nourishment and eternal life.

For us today, this miracle echoes in the celebration of the Eucharist. Just as the crowd experienced God's provision that day, we too encounter Christ in the sacrament - receiving not just bread and wine, but his very body and blood. It's an invitation to deeper faith and communion with God, reminding us that through the Eucharist, God continues to abundantly provide for his people, sustaining us on our journey of faith.

Reflection Questions:

- How does the miraculous feeding of the 5,000 challenge your view of Jesus' role in your life today?
- Reflect on a moment when you felt spiritually nourished by participating in the Eucharist. How does this sacrament sustain your faith journey?
- Considering the twelve baskets of leftovers, what does God's abundant grace and provision mean for your understanding of community and unity within the Church?

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

July 28, 2024

On this day Pope Francis invites the world's Catholics to pause and ponder the contributions grandparents and the aged have made to our families and society. In 2021, he established this annual celebration to bring attention to people sometimes relegated to the margins of society, to honor them and to encourage acts that favor them. In addition, the Pope sees the day as an opportunity to raise awareness among public policy makers to protect the "weakest and most fragile" among us and recognize the dignity and worth of the elderly. His Holiness calls us to offer "tenderness and affectionate attention" to them – those who have shared their wisdom and lived experience with us, the next generations.

God, you have taught me from my youth;
to this day I proclaim your wondrous deeds.

Now that I am old and gray,
do not forsake me, God,
That I may proclaim your might to all generations yet to come.

Psalm 71: 17-18

LIVE YOUR FAITH

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is the process by which adults can come into the Church.

RCIA is for: those inquiring about the Catholic Church, those who have decided to become Catholic from another Christian tradition, and those baptized Catholic who never received religious education.

RCIA begins meeting in the fall and culminates at the Easter Vigil as participants receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.
