BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Readings

First Reading:
"Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength." (Dt 6:5)

Psalm: I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading:
But Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. (Heb 7:24)

Gospel:
"The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than [this]." (Mk 12:31)

Eucharistic Adoration
Tuesday, November 5

Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration in the church on Election Day, November 5 from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm. Pray for our nation as we cast our votes for national and local political leadership.
May we have calm and civility as this often-contentious election season comes to completion.

Mary,
the Immaculate Conception,
Patroness of our nation
and of our Archdiocese, pray for us.

REFLECTION ON TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

P a t h T o S u n d a y

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time - Gospel of Mark 12:28-34

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment is the greatest. His response is both simple and profound: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength;" and then he adds a second, "Love your neighbor as yourself." These two commands encapsulate the essence of our faith, but they are far from easy to live out.

This passage invites us to reflect on what true love means. In our culture, love is often reduced to a feeling or preference—liking someone or something. However, Jesus calls us to a much deeper love, the kind He showed on the cross: agape, a love of self-sacrifice and action. It's not about feelings but about choosing to do good for others, even those we may not like or who hurt us. True love is laying down our lives in small ways for the sake of others.

Yet, we often find our hearts divided. We say we love God, but we can let other "gods" creep in—work, money, comfort, or even our reputation or self-image. How often do we prioritize these things over God? Just as importantly, we struggle to love our neighbors, especially those who challenge or inconvenience us.

Jesus reminds us that these commandments are inseparable. Loving God fully allows us to love others more deeply. The call to love requires us to act, not just to feel. Through prayer, Mass, and serving those around us, we can grow in this love, allowing it to shape our lives and draw us closer to God's Kingdom. Let us ask for the grace to love God with our whole hearts, and to love others as He loves us.

Reflection Questions:

- In your prayer, ask: Do I truly love God with all my heart, or are there areas of my life where I place other priorities above Him?
- Reflect on this: How do I view love? Is it more about my feelings or my willingness to sacrifice and act for others, even when it's difficult?
- Consider in quiet reflection: Are there people in my life whom I struggle to love? How might loving God more deeply help me to love those around me better, especially those who are challenging to love?

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

That They Might Have Life

A PRAYER FOR LIFE

to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, you came that we might have life – and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers' wombs and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it.

By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable.

For you are God, forever and ever. Amen.

YOU MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN

Praying for the Departed

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead.

Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory.

It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!
