THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

PATH TO SUNDAY

Today's Readings

1st Reading:

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters.
(Is 43:16)

Psalm:

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.
(Ps 126)

Second Reading:

Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.
(Phil 3:14)

Gospel:

Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin anymore."
(Jn 8:10-11)

Dear Friends,

In today's world, we live in a culture that emphasizes permissiveness and a reluctance to judge others. Phrases like "live and let live" dominate discussions on morality. Today's Gospel — where Jesus tells the crowd, "Let he who is without sin cast the first stone" — is often misinterpreted as supporting a non-judgmental attitude toward sin. But is this truly the message of Christ?

The Gospel presents a profound moment: the Pharisees bring a woman caught in adultery before Jesus, attempting to trap Him. If He condemns her, He violates Roman law; if He spares her, He contradicts Mosaic law. Jesus' response is brilliant—He neither denies the law nor authorizes her stoning but shifts the focus onto the sinfulness of her accusers. One by one, they leave, beginning with the elders who recognize their own faults.

However, the story does not end with Jesus simply letting the woman go. His final words to her are crucial: "Go, and from now on, do not sin anymore." This is where contemporary interpretations often falter. Jesus does not endorse a "live however you want" attitude; rather, He calls for repentance.

There is a difference between judging a person's soul — reserved for God alone — and judging actions according to God's moral law. Sin is not subjective; it is real, and it damages our souls.

Lent reminds us that God's patience is meant to lead us to salvation. True freedom lies not in permissiveness, but in striving to live in Christ, embracing holiness, and rejecting sin.

Read a new reflection each week:

SAINT JAMES PARISH
RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

That They Might Have Life

Begotten, Not Made

(Why IVF is Contrary to Catholic Teaching)

- The Sanctity of Marriage – Conception must be through the exclusive marital act of a husband and wife, and not through a laboratory procedure by a technician.
- The Gift of a Child – All children are gifts from God, and their lives must not be acquired or disposed of by the decision of man. Every child who survives IVF is a blessing, but at the cost of many innocent embryonic siblings.
- The Dignity of the Human Person – Each person is made in the image of God, receiving a soul at its inception (fertilization) and must not be produced, sold, warehoused (frozen), or destroyed (aborted, “selectively reduced”).

(Restorative reproductive medicine (e.g., Napro Technology) assists rather than replaces the marital act, treating the cause of the infertility, and thus is a morally acceptable alternative.”

For further information, see the USCCB published guidelines for Catholic Couples on reproductive technologies: Reproductive Technology – Evaluation and Treatment of Infertility

There is a Catholic Infertility Conference April 25-26 at the Guadalupe Shrine in LaCrosse, Wisconsin
